GRADUATING EXERCISES OF STATE UNIVERSITY

Dr. Jas. H. Dillard the Speaker of Occasion---Degrees and Medals Awarded.

The final exercises of the University commencement began at 10 a. m. Tuesday in the High School Auditorium. This hall had been tastefully decorated with bunting in the college colors and with palms from the Experiment Station.

At the rear of the stage sat the members of the Board of Control, President Sledd, President-elect Murphree, Dr. Conrad, Dr. Curry and Dr. Dillard. To their right were the members of the University faculty, and to their left the graduates of the year.

After the invocation by Dr. Curry, the president stated that the two men in the graduating class whose grades were the best were awarded first and second honors, respectively, and that the salutatory would be delivered by the second honor, the valedictory by the first honor man. He then introduced Mr. F. T. Wilson as the second honor man.

Mr. Wilson expressed very gracefully the appreciation of the graduating class of the many courtesies and kindnesses that had been extended to them by the citizens of Gainesville. He thanked the large audience for the interest they were taking in the graduating exercises, and hoped that the spirit of joy and of gladness permeating the young men who had reached the first mile-post in their career would extend to all present.

Dr. Dillard's Address.

The president, at the conclusion of this address, in a few well-chosen words introduced the speaker of the occasion, Dr. James Hardy Dillard, formerly a very distinguished professor of Tulane University, New Orleans, today the representative of the James Fund.

Dr. Dillard began with some well-phrased compliments to the beautiful city of Gainesville. Coming to the city had recalled his first trip to Southern California. He had been crossing the dreary wastes of the desert, when suddenly the beautiful scenery rose before him. It was because of the contrast almost celestial. So the night before he was delighted with the magnificent trees and fine residences of Gainesville after the ride on the fast express from Sampson City.

The future of the commonwealth, he continued, may of the whole republic, depended upon the young men like those before him now being graduated at the colleges throughout the land. Since the beginning of democratic government there has been a tremendous need of men who would take an interest in politics without seeking preferment. A man must value his cause more highly than his personal gain.

No one can look twenty-five years ahead and feel sure of the continuance of democratic government. As we of the South once attempted to destroy the Union, it may fail to our lot in future to preserve the Union by maintaining the principles upon which it was founded.

Concentration of wealth has always caused political disturbance, and in restoring order there may be a destruction of personal liberty and of the political hopes of centuries.

He then gave a masterly sketch of the conditions existing in Rome during the last hundred years of the republic. He told of the several martyrs who had been slain because of their efforts in behalf of the common people. He showed how tragically the one man who fully understood the conditions had been instrumental in bringing about the establishment of an absolute government; how Julius Caesar, an aristocrat by birth, a populist in principle, had in the defense of the liberty and rights of the people found it necessary to use methods which finally led to absolutism. Had he lived fifty years he might have saved the republic; as it was he helped on its decline.

In the same way insidious enemies were attacking our republican institutions. Attacked in time it was possible to overcome them. But if these enemies be allowed full sway for a period of years, the very friends of the people might by their efforts advance aristocratic rule. We should count the cost of every gain for the people.

In particular he besought his hearers to study the questions arising from the conflict between aristocratic and democratic views. Let them oppose themselves to all attempts of individuals to gain special privileges. And above all at present let them study the workings of protective tariffs, which he believed was productive of many of the evils now existing in the land.

A second principle that ought to be manfully sustained was that of Home Rule—home rule for the community, for the county, for the State. In special privileges, home rule, these would help to preserve our democratic government.

In conclusion he urged the importance of one sentiment, idealism. Let the young men form high ideals in politics, and, regardless of consequences, strive valiantly to enforce the workings of these ideals. Thus would democratic principles be maintained. Let us rise above party, let us frown upon all schemes of graft, of political corruption; let us strive for the interests of the common people, of the whole country. In doing so, let us count the cost and use means that will not ultimately bring in a train of evil results. Let us profit by the last hundred years of Rome.

President Sledd Awards Degrees.

Wolfe's Orchestra then gave a concert selection. After the President Sledd awarded the following degrees: B. A. upon W. B. Martin and Raymond Ray; B. Sc. in civil engineering upon W. W. Gibbs; B. Sc. in electrical engineering upon Theo. D. Knox; B. Sc. in agriculture upon F. T. Wilson.

The highest degree conferred by the University was then awarded: M. Sc. in chemistry upon R. N. Wilson; M. Sc. in agriculture upon R. Y. Winters.

Dr. Sledd feelingly addressed the graduates, the first class to take a four-years' course in the University of the State of Florida. He prayed that it might be said of each of them, as it has been said of Gordon, "God above knows where he is, but wherever he may be, he is doing his duty."

Vice-President Farr.

Vice-President Farr then arose and at the close of a graceful tribute to Dr. Sledd, announced that the University had conferred upon him the honorary degree of D. D. This was the first honor degree conferred in the history of the institution, and this was conferred although both the Board of Control and the faculty are on record as being opposed to granting honorary degrees except in the most rare and exceptional circumstances. Dr. Sledd, although greatly surprised, made a very fitting response.

Awarding of Medals.

The awarding of medals followed: The Freshman-Sophomore medal for Declaration to H. G. Glazier, of the Sophomore Class; the Junior medal for oratory to W. D. Rader; the Senior medal for oratory to W. B. Martin. The Buckman medal, which is conferred upon the student making the best average in any class of the Engineering Department, was awarded to W. W. Gibbs, of the Senior Class, with honorable mention of students Felton and Hadley Taylor.

Three medals were awarded by the Military Department: for the best-drilled man to J. H. Vidal, for the best marksman to W. W. Gibbs, second marksman, Charles Larsen. There was only point difference in the scores made by Messrs. Gibbs and Larsen.

The medal offered by the Mildred Lee Chapter, U. D. C., to the student writing the best essay on an assigned subject was won by B. G. Langston with an essay on "The Causes of the Civil War."

The medal offered by the U. D. C. of the State was won by P. S. May. This medal is open to all colleges in the State, and has been awarded five times. The University has competed for it four times and has won it three times.

Tokens of Affection.

Mr. Bryan then happily presented a gold-headed cane, the gift of the faculty as a token of affection and esteem, to Dr. Sledd. The recipient was much moved and thanked the donors most fittingly.

Dr. Crow, as the spokesman of the faculty, presented a set of books to Dr. Yocum as an expression of their admiration and affection and regret at his retiring from the University. Dr. Yocum's response was gracefully made.

With a well-written valedictory, the first honor man, A. Hadley Taylor, Jr., then, on behalf of the graduating class, took formal farewell of the citizens of Gainesville; of the Board of Control, of Dr. Sledd, of the faculty, of the student body, and finally of the members of the class of 1908-09.

Dr. Murphree was then introduced as the President-Elect of the University, and expressed his regard and affection for the out-going President, Dr. Sledd.

The audience was dismissed with the benediction by Dr. A. B. Curry, of Memphis.

HOUSE PASSED COUNTY UNIFORMITY 36 TO 26

Bill Had Been Previously Killed, But Was Reconsidered---Senate's Long Session.

TALLAHASSEE, May 26.—Things happened in the House yesterday, when, following a change in sentiment, the Duke county uniformity of school text-books bill was taken up on reconsideration of the vote by which it was recently killed and was passed by a vote of 36 to 26.

The next important action came with the passage to third reading of the Cash primary bill, which provides among other things for disfranchisement for an extended time of persons guilty of bribery in elections.

The House devoted the afternoon and night to the consideration of the general revenue bill. This was taken up informally in the committee of the whole and much discussion was evoked.

Representative Davis offered an amendment prohibiting the sale of liquors by licensed dealers in amounts of less than half a pint at a time. This was killed, but not until it had been warmly fought.

THE SENATE.

Consideration of the Broome bill relating to the liability of railway companies having relief departments occupied nearly the entire time of the Senate. Some very lively discussions were aroused at times. The consideration of the bill will be resumed today.

The Stokes loan shark bill was passed to third reading.

Following several days of most strained conditions the Senate last night, under the leadership of the so-called anti-corporation element, held the alleged corporationists down to what proved almost an all-night session.

For several days it has been noised about that the so-called corporationists are endeavoring to block all legislation by dilatory tactics in order to prevent certain measures coming to a vote. This caused resentment and last night a caucus was held, when it was decided to apply the water cure.

A night session was held and when a motion to adjourn was made at 10 o'clock it was promptly voted down. Repeated motions were turned down and the minority then discovered that they were up against something.

The chair then ruled that motions could not be in order until business has been transacted.

Following this the Senate settled down to the calendar and after a measure was acted upon a motion to adjourn was made, the roll call was demanded and the motion to adjourn voted down.

Senate Bill No. 316 by Mr. McCreary, prescribing method of serving process upon non-resident copartners having an office or conducting a business in Florida, was advanced to third reading, as was also House Bill No. 403, by Mr. Duke of Alachua, to encourage establishment and maintenance of unenclosed game preserves for certain birds and other game.

MELROSE NOTES.

MELROSE, May 26.—Mrs. M. J. Barnett entertained quite a party of Hawthorn friends on Saturday, consisting of Mrs. W. S. Moore, Mrs. M. Hulme, Mrs. D. Hulme, Mrs. Harry Barnett, Miss M. Burkstresser and Leo Johnson.

W. H. Lee and Mrs. Lee have gone to Lake City to attend the commencement exercises at Columbia College. Their son, Stetson Lee, will return with them.

Miss E. Ricks of Highland was the guest of Miss L. Mack for the weekend.

The many friends of H. Barnett extend their regrets at the loss by fire of his store on Sunday night at Hawthorn.

The Eddy Bros. of Green Cove Springs are at work repainting the school house. They expect to finish the job this week.

Mrs. R. E. Storrs of Macon, Ga., and Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Cameron of Atlanta, arrived yesterday for a few weeks' stay at the Darlington cottage.

Situation in Georgia Railroad Strike Unchanged

ATLANTA, May 26.—A settlement by arbitration should not be difficult so far as the Georgia Railroad strikers' demands are concerned, Vice-President Ball of the firemen's organization said yesterday, because the firemen are not trying to exact a hard and fast settlement. They struck because ten white firemen were replaced by negro firemen. The railroad officials declare that the negroes were put in these positions as rewards for faithful service, and that they are within their legal rights in such action. Upon this one crucial point of the controversy there has as yet been no sign of agreement. The directors of the road, the general manager and other officials were at a almost continual conference yesterday, and it was reported that some of the directors strongly favored Governor Smith's proposition for each side to select three Georgians as arbiters.

Mr. Scott would not say whether this offer would be accepted. The directors include men with local business interests, which are liable to be affected unfavorably by a long tie-up.

Hand cars, automobiles and inter-urban cars made little impression upon the 3,000 pounds of delayed mails in the Atlanta postoffice. Here and there in the strike districts a rural postmaster shouldered a sack of outgoing mail, and after hours of hard work riding and walking managed to reach a railroad station not affected by the strike. Reports were current that the Federal courts might interfere and place guards on trains in order to get the mails through. No such action, however, developed locally. The strikers have announced that they are willing to fire engines to carry mails, but that such engines must carry mails only and not passengers.

Jordan Named as Next Mayor of Jacksonville

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., May 26.—William S. Jordan was yesterday named Mayor of Jacksonville, winning out over W. H. Schring, the present holder of the office, by a majority of 321 votes.

It was an unusually quiet election and but little activity was seen around the polling places. The friends of the two candidates worked quietly and the result is no surprise, it being conceded during the day that Jordan would win the office.

J. B. Dodge was defeated for Controller by L. T. Gregory, and E. P. Douglas, the present city marshal, was defeated by E. H. Haddock. A. O. Wright was named to succeed himself as judge of the municipal court.

MISS HATTIE LUDWIG FIRST IN WESTERN

WHILE MISS HATTIE ENGLISH LEADS IN THE EASTERN.

All Sections of the County Are Active and It Will Pay Candidates to Work.

As will be seen by reference to the list, Miss Ludwig leads in the Western section, and Miss English in the Eastern, but all prospects of the county are now showing up fine and each day the result changes in these sections.

By special arrangement, we have been enabled to increase the prizes, and now every candidate in the race will get a prize—a certificate good for $25 as a cash payment on any piano bought from the A. B. Harper Piano Company, of Jacksonville. In addition to this, they will give to the first five following the leader in each section of the county a certificate good for $100, and this can be applied as a payment in the same manner. This means that you can purchase any piano you want and use this as a cash payment and make arrangements for deferred payments. The same instrument that is now being given away can be purchased for the certificate and $225, so it will pay you to be among the first five following the leader.

Weekly clubs are still coming, but we urge the candidates to work among their friends while their time is unoccupied—it will prove profitable for them.

Following is the standing of the candidates as a result of the count yesterday:

SANITARY COMMITTEE URGES CLEANING UP

INSPECTOR TAYLOR IS NOW ON ROUNDS OF THE CITY.

Be Ready to Receive Him and His
The Inspector He Will Leave

NOON, MAY

The sanitary committee of the City Council have started out the Inspector of whose duty it will be to inspect every residence in the city and see that it is properly cleaned in front and other rubbish before the city can act on it.

E. T. Taylor is the appointed inspector and is on his rounds today, visiting every residence in the city in time, besides all the business houses, and in order to avoid trouble and confusion it is well to comply with his requirements.

It may seem hard to go to expense of cleaning up, but it is one of the laws of the city and besides everyone should have sufficient pride to keep their premises in a clean, healthy and sanitary condition.

The committee have signified their intention of prosecuting all offenders brought to their attention and it behooves the citizens generally to see that not only are their places in healthy state, but those of their neighbors also.

The work has been started a little earlier this season than formerly, but none too soon, and we hope that it will be unnecessary for the inspector to be compelled to issue orders compelling the citizens to comply with the ordinance upon this subject.

A Birthday Greeting.

On Saturday, the 23rd, a host of friends and relatives enjoyed a delightful dinner at the home of I. C. Manning given by the Manning brothers in honor of their aged mother's seventy-ninth birthday. Three sons and one daughter, friends and relatives, sixty in number, were present to partake of the toothsome dinner and delicious ice cream that was spread under the shade trees in the yard, where it was more pleasant for the crowd.

Elder J. T. Johnson preached a very interesting sermon for the occasion, concluding with the hymn, "Jesus, Lover of My Soul." May God bless the sons and daughters with the presence of their devoted mother many more birthdays. They show by their kind deeds that they have not forgotten the kind care of a mother.

A FRIEND.

FAULTLESS PRESCRIPTION.

No Remedy for Stomach Distress and Indigestion So Perfect.

A scientific prescription for dyspepsia put up in small tablet form and called Mi-o-na is making thousands of quick and lasting cures throughout America.

There is no stomach disease (even catarrh of the stomach) that it is not guaranteed to cure, and J. W. McCollum & Co. have so much faith in Mi-o-na for stomach disorders of all kind that they will refund your money if it does not cure.

Mi-o-na, the faultless prescription, stops sour stomach, belching of gas, distress after eating, heartburn, biliousness and nervousness.

It is well worth a trial by any reader of The Sun who suffers from any stomach disturbance. It contains ingredients that not only give relief but that act on the stomach so beneficially that in a short time the flabby tired out walls of the stomach regain their strength and activity and can perfectly digest any kind of food with out aid.

Try Mi-o-na for a week: misery will change to happiness; despair to hope; dull eyes to bright and you will yourself wonder why you suffered so long with such a remarkable prescription at hand.

And only 50 cents for a large box at J. W. McCollum & Co.'s, and at druggists everywhere.

The Value of Good Digestion

Is easy to figure if you know what your stomach is worth. Kodol keeps the stomach at par value, by insuring good digestion. Kodol cures Dyspepsia.

Kodol insures good digestion by absolutely duplicating Nature's normal process, in perfectly digesting all food taken into the stomach.

While Kodol is doing this, the stomach is resting—and becoming strong and healthy. A strong and healthy stomach guarantees a sound and active brain.

The man with a sound stomach—a stomach that is doing for the body just what Nature intended it to do—is the man who is always prepared for any emergency. He is "there with the goods."

The man with a sick stomach is a man sick all over. When the stomach is irritated by undigested food, the blood and heart are directly affected. Then dizziness, unnatural sleepiness, sick-headaches, vertigo and fainting spells, and even serious brain trouble develop. Kodol will prevent these.

Spurring the stomach and brain to special effort by "nature" and "stimulants" doesn't cure anything, or accomplish any good. Neither does dieting, indigestion and the serious ailments which it induces can be averted and corrected only by natural means.

Kodol supplies this natural means. It performs the stomach's work for it—just as the stomach should perform it—while the stomach takes a little rest, "for the stomach's sake."

Our Guarantee

Go to your druggist today and get a dollar bottle. Then after you have read the entire contents of the bottle if you can honestly say, "that it has not done you any good, return the bottle to the druggist and he will refund your money without question or delay. TELEPHONE TALKS

The Long Distance System

One of the most valuable features of our service, to our subscribers and to the public generally, is our connection with the extensive long distance lines of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company and the other associated Bell Telephone companies.

We own thousands of miles of long distance lines in the seven States in which we operate and in addition can connect any telephone in our system with lines extending to any other city in which a Bell Telephone system is operated.

These long distance lines are of the most modern and improved construction and are maintained at a high state of efficiency. The Bell systems, operating in various sections of the country, are uniform in their equipment and in their methods of operating.

Only by reason of this close traffic arrangement between the Bell Telephone companies is it possible to go to a Bell Telephone almost anywhere, ask for "Long Distance" and be put in communication with almost any point in the country.

This vast network of wires, radiating throughout the nation, is used daily in commerce and for social purposes by the banker, the farmer and citizens in all walks of life and our plant here is an important link in this great chain.

MEMORIAL SERVICE OF G. A. R. SUNDAY

SERMON TO BE DELIVERED AT FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH.

Services Will Also Be Held at Cemetery on Monday Following to Decorate Graves.

In compliance with the annual custom of the association, on next Sunday morning, May 30th, there will be a memorial service held at the First Baptist church at 10:30 o'clock. The sermon will be delivered by the celebrated divine, Rev. Dr. Jno. E. Banard of Cartersville, Ga., assisted in the pulpit by Rev. S. B. Rogers.

Dr. Banard, who has accepted the invitation to deliver this sermon, is one of the most talented and finest orators of the Southern Baptist Church, one whom it will be a treat to hear, and this fact alone will serve to call out many.

Invitations of the most cordial nature have been extended the local Camp of Confederate Veterans, the two chapters of the Daughters of the Confederacy, the Blue and the Gray, the Spanish-American War veterans, the Patriotic Order Sons of America, and the general public to attend this service.

The battalion of the various organizations will assemble at the Post Headquarters in the Dutton building and headed by the Gainesville Brass Band, who have generously offered their services, with Company "H" of the Second Regiment, Florida State Troops, acting as an escort of honor, will proceed to the church, returning in the same order. The usual choir of the church will be augmented by special music arranged by Col. I. E. Webster.

On the following day, Monday, May 31st, services will be held at the cemetery and the graves of all the departed veterans of both the Blue and the Gray will be decorated with flowers. In addition to the usual ritualistic service on this occasion, there will be an address delivered by the talented young lawyer, Col. W. E. Baker, the reading of President Lincoln's address at Gettysburg and special music by selected singers under the leadership of Col. I. E. Webster.

Carriages will be in waiting on the north side of the square at 9 o'clock for any Confederate Veterans, Daughters of Confederacy and any others who desire to attend the ceremonies and hear the address of Col. Baker. Those fortunate enough to have flowers are requested to make a donation for the decoration of the soldiers' graves.

The Grand Army of Florida, at the present time, under Department Commander General James Skinner of Archer and his able staff, are in a flourishing condition and doing much to inculcate the principles of fraternity, charity and loyalty among the Blue and Gray veterans who are still with us.

Attention, Stonewall Camp.

The Stonewall Camp of Confederate Veterans is invited by the Lew Wallace Post, G. A. R., to join it in its memorial service to be held at the First Baptist church in this city at 10:30 o'clock on next Sunday morning; and also invited to accompany such Post on the next day to the cemetery to decorate the graves of all the soldiers buried there. Carriages will be in waiting on the north side of the square for the members of Stonewall Camp who will go to the cemetery.

As many as can should accept the invitation.

YOUNG MEN WANTED.

Manufacturers and Wholesalers the Country Over Want Men, at Salaries Ranging From $2,000 to $10,000.

Why young men prefer a life of drudgery at a small salary to dignified and agreeable work with a large salary is a mystery to those who are going ahead.

Without any previous experience, any young man of ordinary education can become a trained salesman in six weeks.

Traveling salesmen earn from $2,000 to $10,000 a year and expenses, and with the return of prosperity thousands are in demand.

The Bradstreet System has successfully trained thousands of young men by mail in salesmanship, and the president makes this announcement to the readers of The Sun. He says: "I will teach you salesmanship at your home in six weeks, and secure you a position as a traveling salesman with a reliable firm. I have written a book which tells how easy it is for any young man with ambition to succeed as a salesman. This book I will gladly send you free." Write for it today, to the President Bradstreet System, 326 Cornwall Bldg., Rochester, N. Y.

UNIVERSITY WORK COMMENCES MONDAY

EDDINS MFG. COMPANY SECURE
CONTRACT FOR FINISHING.

Other Work Will Doubtless Be Ordered Within a Very Short While for Buildings.

Work of remodeling and completing the University buildings will commence at once, the contract for the needed improvements having already been awarded.

The successful bidders on this work was the Eddins Manufacturing Company of this city, and they will put a force of men upon the buildings by the first of the coming week and complete those already erected at the University grounds.

This contract provides for the completion of Buckman Hall and it will require a number of weeks to complete the contract. Besides the carpenter work, the entire building is to be painted and stained on the inside, which will add very materially to the attractiveness of the present quarters.

Thomas Hall is also to be repaired and finished up in first-class style. Cement floors are to be placed in the bath rooms, the walls are to be replastered and in all the entire building will be overhauled where it is found necessary.

This is only the first step taken by the Board of Control in better equipping and arranging for the comfort of the students that attend the University, and it is believed that work will commence on the other large buildings before the end of the summer.

With this work started, the Federal building now in progress and a score or more residences being worked upon, shows that business is good in Gainesville even during the dull season, of which the merchants and people generally are very thankful.

Mayor's Court Tuesday.

There were two cases before Mayor Davis Tuesday morning, as follows:

Pat Taylor, charged with a plain drunk, fined $2 and costs.

Ed Haile, charged with disorderly conduct. Case postponed until Friday.

On this date the case against Manuel Johnson will also be called. He is the old darkey Marshal Arnaw arrested a couple of weeks since charged with selling "booze."

Young's Impromptu.

To most persons Edward Young is the author of "Night Thoughts" and nothing more, but he was also a man of the world and a shrewd and caustic wit as well as the rector of St. Mary's church at Welwyn.

It was there in the garden of the rectory that he composed some of the best impromptu verses known. He was walking with two ladies when some one summoned him to the house. His companions were agreeable, and he was in no haste to leave them. Turning as he reached the gate, he said: Thus Adam looked when from the garden driven.

And thus disputed orders sent from heaven. Like him, I go and yet to go am loath; Like him, I go, for angels drove us both. Hard was his fate, but mine still more unkind; His Eve went with him, but mine stays behind.

HAIR TELLS CHARACTER.

Color of Hair Said to Indicate a Person's Temperament.

Many people believe that blonde, or light hair denotes affection and dark hair constancy. A person without hair is not devoid of character; far from it. The disposition of the average bald-headed man is to show such solicitude for the welfare of others, that he neglects himself. A germ causes baldness. Prof. Sabouraud, of Paris, France, inoculated a rabbit with Dandruff germs, causing it to become totally bald in five weeks' time. To rid the scalp of these dangerous germs it is necessary to apply Newbro's Herpicide.

"Destroy the cause—you remove the effect."

Bay the garden is 40 by 30 feet, this is something like the planting of it should be: Dwarf early peas, medium early and late peas, beets, early and later; beans in succession, including bush limas; carrots, radishes, tomatoes, cucumbers, peppers. Do not adventure upon corn unless it be sweet corn planted on the pea space as a second crop, to come in just before frost. Make an asparagus bed all across one end of the plot, setting two-year-old roots and fertilizing the bed heavily in early summer just after cutting ceases. Peas are so hardy they may be planted before snow is past, provided, of course, the ground is right when they go in. Make it fine and light, cover the seed at least three inches deep, then tramp the earth over them, setting the feet so one track touches the other. A quart of seed will sow a hundred feet of drill the proper thickness. An ounce of beet seed will sow the same row length.—Circle Magazine.

Is a pretty hard thing to accomplish when you're blue, bilious and out of sorts. There is a sure cure for all kinds of stomach and liver complaints—constipation and dyspepsia. Ballard's Herbine is mild, yet absolutely effective in all cases. Price 50 cents per bottle. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

The act of realism was reached, though by accident, in a criminal trial a number of years ago at Lebanon, O. Two men had a personal encounter. One of them after vainly trying to draw his pistol from his hip pocket turned to flee. A moment later he fell, shot in the small of the back. One chamber of his pistol was found to have been fired. His assailant was tried for murder. The defense contended that the man had shot himself while trying to draw his pistol, which had become entangled in the lining of the pocket, and that the prisoner's shot had not taken effect. The prosecution contended that such a wound could not have been self-inflicted. The defendant's counsel, Clement L. Vallandigham, undertook to demonstrate to the jury just how the dead man's pistol had hung in the pocket and just how possible it was to inflict such a wound. Suddenly there was a loud report, and the lawyer sank to the floor. The ball had entered the back almost in the identical spot where the dead man had been shot. The defendant was acquitted. Mr. Vallandigham died.—Exchange.

"A charming gentleman about four years old used to pass my house every day on his way to kindergarten," said a lady, "and in course of time I made his acquaintance and gave a penny to him each morning when we parted."

"Eventually his mother requested me not to give any more money to him. The next morning I did not present the usual penny. He did not seem to notice the omission. The succeeding day when the penny was not given to him he said nothing. But on the morning of the third day when the penny was not forthcoming he yelled up to me and whispered: 'What's the matter? Ain't your husband working?'"

"On the way home he was overtaken by a sudden heavy shower and, having no umbrella, crawled into a hollow log by the roadside to keep himself dry until the downpour was over.

"Soon the log began to swell, and the water it got the more it swelled until the sides finally closed in on the prosperous citizen and held him in a grip like a vise.

The rain ceased, but the unfortunate man was unable to move land or foot. He shouted for help, but no one heard him. He was about to give up in despair when he suddenly thought of the coat he had dropped into the collection box that day, and it made him feel so mean and small that he crawled right out of the log without any further trouble.

"Now, if you expect to get caught in a shower and be obliged to take refuge in a hollow log on the way home, by all means put a cwt in the contribution basket." If you don't anticipate a crisis of that sort—well, you will know what to do when the basket is needed.

The minister expected a shower of silver and bills to follow this story but unfortunately just as the collection began a black cloud passed overhead. It suddenly began to sprinkle, and the pennies fairly rained into the contribution basket. Only one quarter, a solitary dime and a lone nickel were found among the coppers, and they sat in before the shower began.

The congregation, it seems, had all left their umbrellas at home, and they were not taking any chances. — New York Times

Every pore and gland of the skin is employed in the necessary work of preserving its smooth, even texture, softening and cleansing it, and regulating the temperature of our bodies. This is done by an evaporation through the pores of the skin, day and night, continuously. When the blood becomes impure with humors and sends a certain percentage of these impurities also passed with the natural evaporation, and then sweat, very nature becomes and indicates the skin, and drives up its natural oils, causing pimples, boils, pustules or some itching rash, or hard, scaly skin affection. S. S. S. cures skin troubles of every kind by neutralizing the acids and removing the humors from the blood. S. S. S. cools the acid-heated circulation, builds it up to its normal strength and thickness, multiplies its nutritious red corpuscles, and stretches it in every way. Then the skin, instead of being irritated and diseased by the exuding acid matter, is nourished, soothed and softened by this cooling, healthy stream of blood. S. S. S., the greatest of blood purifiers, expels all foreign matter and surely cures Eczema, Acne, Tetter, Salt Rheum and all other diseases and afflictions of the skin. It removes pimples, blackheads, and other unsightly blemishes from the skin and assists in restoring a good complexion. Book on Skin Diseases and any medical advice desired free to all who write.

THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.

The Cannon That Modernized Japan

Business is no longer a man to man contact, in which the merchant and the patron establish a personal bond, any more than battle is a hand-to-hand grapple, where bone and muscle and sinew decide the outcome. Trade as well as war has changed in its aspect—both are now fought at long range.

Just as a present day army of heroes would have no opportunity to display the individual valor of its members, just so a merchant who counts upon his personal acquaintanceship for success is a relic of the past—a business dodo.

Japan changed her policy of exclusion to foreigners after a fleet of warships battered down the Satsuma fortifications. The Samurai, who had hitherto considered their blades and bows good enough, discovered that one cannon was mightier than all the swords in creation if they could not get near enough to use them. Japan profited by the lesson. She did not wait until further ramparts were battered to pieces, but was satisfied with her one experience and proceeded to modernize her methods.

The merchant who doesn't advertise is pretty much in the same position as that in which Japan stood when her eyes were opened to the fact that times had changed. The long range publicity of a competitor will as surely destroy your business as the cannon of the foreigners crumbled the walls of Satsuma. Unless you take the lesson to heart, unless you realize the importance of advertising, not only as the means of extending your business but for defending it as well, you must be prepared to face the consequences of a folly as great as that of a duelist who expects to survive in a contest in which his adversary bears a sword twice the length of his own.

Don't think that it's too late to begin because there are so many stores which have had the advantage of years of cumulative advertising. The city is growing. It will grow even more next year. It needs increased trading facilities just as it's hungry for new neighborhoods.

But it will never again support neighborhood stores. Newspaper advertising has eliminated the strength of being locally prominent, and five cent street car fares have cut out the advantage of being "around the corner." A store five miles away can reach out through the columns of the daily newspaper and draw your next door neighbor to its aisles, while you sit by and see the people on your own block enticed away without your being able to retaliate or supply new customers to take their place.

It is not a question of your ability to stand the cost of advertising but of being able to survive without it. The thing you have to consider is not only an extension of your business but holding what you already have.

Advertising is an investment, the cost of which is in the same proportion to its returns as seeds are to the harvest. And it is just as preposterous for you to consider publicity as an expense as it would be for a farmer to hesitate over purchasing a fertilizer if he discovered that he could profitably increase his crops by employing it.

GAINESVILLE, —THE— University City.

Gainesville is conceded to be the most enterprising as well as the most beautiful city in the interior of Florida. It is located in the very center of the State, half way between the Atlantic and Gulf Coasts, surrounded by lands of such fertility as to be capable of producing a great variety of crops; in the heart of the truck-growing, phosphate and naval stores belt. She has the best educational advantages in the State, good churches, with edifices which are superior to any town of its size in Florida, with large and consistent congregations; has a climate which cannot be excelled for health and pleasure. All these natural advantages, combined with a progressive and enterprising cosmopolitan citizenship, are sure to make a big city.

There are many natural attractions in close proximity to the city, some of which are Alachua Sink, Paine's Prairie, the Devil's Mill Hopper, War-ran's Cave, and Lake Newnan, all of which are reached by private conveyance.

Spring Park Stock Farm, the largest and finest live stock farm in the State, is only eight miles west of the city and is reached by a good hard road, affording a most pleasant drive.

The farmers of Alachua county, of which Gainesville is the county seat, "live at home and board at the same place." The temperature is very uniform, scarcely ever reaching the nineties in summer or the twenties in winter. The population of Gainesville is about eight thousand, representing nearly every nationality on the face of the earth, and strangers always meet with a hearty welcome.

The University of Florida for young men and the National Agricultural Experiment Station are located within the corporate limits of the city. In fact, Gainesville has so many things that we must be pardoned if we omit a few of them in the following enumeration of what

Gainesville Has:

One artist.
No saloons.

Sold in This City

TWO PIANOS AND A DIAMOND RING

Total Cash Value, $1,000.00

To Be Given Away by the Merchants and The Sun to Citizens of Alachua County!

Each Section Gets Prizes!

Contest to Close August 18, 1909

Realizing that all should share alike in the distribution, leading business houses have joined in the combination to give away Two Handsome Pianos and One Diamond Ring to residents of Alachua county in three different sections. These progressive firms will give One Vote for each penny spent with them.

In the event of a tie for any prize offered, a prize similar in all respects there-to will be given each of those tying.

THE A. R. HARPER PIANO CO. of Jacksonville, from whom the pianos for this contest were purchased, have agreed to offer extra prizes as follows: To the first five candidates in each district, excepting the winners of the capital prizes in the said districts, one certificate each for $100.00 which will be redeemable in cash as a payment on any piano handled by them—the Everett, Harvard, Dayton or John Church Pianos. In addition to this they will give a certificate good for $25 to all other contestants in the race, and will make special arrangements with anyone to take care of their paper on all purchases of instruments at the cash price.

The Gainesville Section Will embrace the city and suburbs and be confined to a radius of four miles in each direction. The winner in this district will be awarded a HANDSOME DIAMOND RING.

Eastern and Southern Section Will comprise territory from Fairbanks all points east and from Rochelle all points south—Waldo, Hawthorn, Island Grove, Campville, Micanopy, Lake View, Tacoma and all points along line of T. & J. Ry. ONE PIANO.

Western and Northern Section Will comprise all stations from Hague to High Springs, Trenton, Wannee, Wilcox, Bell, Newberry, Jonesville, Archer and all settlements covered by this area. ONE PIANO.

How and Where to Get Votes

The following merchants will give one vote for every cent paid into their establishments for goods which they handle:

Gainesville Furniture Company, Furniture.
Phifer & Morris Co., Clothing and Furnishings.
Gainesville Hardware Co., Plumbing and Hardware.
Mrs. F. T. McCormick, Millinery.
W. M. Johnson, Drugs and Medicines.

N. Francisco, Banana House, Fruits, Etc.
Eddins Mfg. Co., Lumber and Building Material.
Standard Fertilizer Co., Fertilizers.

Where Votes May Be Cast

Ballot boxes will be found in the establishments of the merchants giving votes and at The Sun office. Votes sent by mail must be directed to the Voting Contest Department of The Sun, Gainesville, Florida.

Rules and Regulations

1. The contest is open to anyone living in Alachua county who is known by the conductors of the contest or vouched for by some reputable person, to them well known.
2. No employee, attaché or relative of the proprietors of the above-named firms are eligible to participate in this contest, and will participate in no manner.
3. In the event of a misunderstanding between candidates or others interested in this contest, such controversy may be referred to the conductors of contest, who alone are the persons qualified to render decisions.
4. In the event a candidate decides to withdraw from the race, such candidate will not be allowed to transfer votes to the credit of another candidate in the contest.

ONE DOLLAR A YEAR

GRADUATING EXERCISES OF STATE UNIVERSITY

Dr. Jas. H. Dillard the Speaker of Occasion---Degrees and Medals Awarded.

The final exercises of the University commencement began at 10 a. m. Tuesday in the High School Auditorium. This hall had been tastefully decorated with bunting in the college colors and with palms from the Experiment Station.

At the rear of the stage sat the members of the Board of Control, President Sledd, President-elect Murphree, Dr. Conrad, Dr. Curry and Dr. Dillard. To their right were the members of the University faculty, and to their left the graduates of the year.

After the invocation by Dr. Curry, the president stated that the two men in the graduating class whose grades were the best were awarded first and second honors, respectively, and that the salutatory would be delivered by the second honor, the valedictory by the first honor man. He then introduced Mr. F. T. Wilson as the second honor man.

Mr. Wilson expressed very gracefully the appreciation of the graduating class of the many courtesies and kindnesses that had been extended to them by the citizens of Gainesville. He thanked the large audience for the interest they were taking in the graduating exercises, and hoped that the spirit of joy and of gladness permeating the young men who had reached the first mile-post in their career would extend to all present.

Dr. Dillard's Address.

The president, at the conclusion of this address, in a few well-chosen words introduced the speaker of the occasion, Dr. James Hardy Dillard, formerly a very distinguished professor of Tulane University, New Orleans, today the representative of the Jeanes Fund.

Dr. Dillard began with some well-phrased compliments to the beautiful city of Gainesville. Coming to the city had recalled his first trip to Southern California. He had been crossing the dreary wastes of the desert, when suddenly the beautiful scenery rose before him. It was because of the contrast almost celestial. So the night before he was delighted with the magnificent trees and fine residences of Gainesville after the ride on the fast express from Sampson City.

The future of the commonwealth, he continued, nay of the whole republic, depended upon the young men like those before him now being graduated at the colleges throughout the land. Since the beginning of democratic government there has been a tremendous need of men who would take an interest in politics without seeking preferment. A man must value his cause more highly than his personal gain.

No one can look twenty-five years ahead and feel sure of the continuance of democratic government. As we of the South once attempted to destroy the Union, it may fall to our lot in future to preserve the Union by maintaining the principles upon which it was founded.

Concentration of wealth has always caused political disturbance, and in restoring order there may be a destruction of personal liberty and of the political hopes of centuries.

He then gave a masterly sketch of the conditions existing in Rome during the last hundred years of the republic. He told of the several martyrs who had been slain because of their efforts in behalf of the common people. He showed how tragically the one man who fully understood the conditions had been instrumental in bringing about the establishment of an absolute government; how Julius Caesar, an aristocrat by birth, a populist in principle, had in the defense of the liberty and rights of the people found it necessary to use methods which finally led to absolutism. Had he lived fifty years he might have saved the republic; as it was he helped on its decline.

In the same way insidious enemies were attacking our republican institutions. Attacked in time it was possible to overcome them. But if these enemies be allowed full sway for a period of years, the very friends of the people might by their efforts advance aristocratic rule. We should count the cost of every gain for the people.

In particular he besought his hearers to study the questions arising from the conflict between aristocratic and democratic views. Let them oppose themselves to all attempts of individuals to gain special privileges. And above all at present let them study the workings of protective tariffs, which he believed was productive of many of the evils now existing in the land.

A second principle that ought to be manfully sustained was that of Home Rule--home rule for the community, for the county, for the State. In special privileges, home rule, these would help to preserve our democratic government.

In conclusion he urged the importance of one sentiment, idealism. Let the young men form high ideals in politics, and, regardless of consequences, strive valiantly to enforce the workings of these ideals. Thus would democratic principles be maintained. Let us rise above party, let us frown upon all schemes of graft, of political corruption; let us strive for the interests of the common people, of the whole country. In doing so, let us count the cost and use means that will not ultimately bring in a train of evil results. Let us profit by the last hundred years of Rome.

President Sledd Awards Degrees. Woltz's Orchestra then gave a pleasing selection. After this President Sledd awarded the following degrees: B. A. upon W. B. Martin and Raymond Kay; B. S. in civil engineering upon W. W. Gibbs; B. Sc. in electrical engineering upon Geo. B. Ames, Ralph Chapin, Charles Larsen, Hadley Taylor; B. Sc. in agriculture upon F. T. Wilson.

The highest degree conferred by the University was then awarded: M. Sc. in chemistry upon R. N. Wilson; M. Sc. in agriculture upon R. Y. Winters.

Dr. Sledd feelingly addressed the graduates, the first class to take a four-years' course in the University of the State of Florida. He prayed that it might be said of each of them, as it has been said of Gordon, "God above knows where he is, but wherever he may be, he is doing his duty."

Vice-President Farr.

Vice-President Farr then arose and at the close of a graceful tribute to Dr. Sledd, announced that the University had conferred upon him the honorary degree of D. D. This was the first honor degree conferred in the history of the institution, and this was conferred although both the Board of Control and the faculty are on record as being opposed to granting honorary degrees except in the most rare and exceptional circumstances. Dr. Sledd, although greatly surprised, made a very fitting response.

Awarding of Medals.

The awarding of medals followed: The Freshman-Sophomore medal for Declamation to H. G. Glazier, of the Sophomore Class; the Junior medal for oratory to W. D. Rader; the Senior medal for Oratory to W. B. Martin. The Buckman medal, which is conferred upon the student making the best average in any class of the Engineering Department, was awarded to W. W. Gibbs, of the Senior Class, with honorable mention of students Felton and Hadley Taylor.

Three medals were awarded by the Military Department: for the best-drilled man to J. H. Vidal, for the best marksman to W. W. Gibbs, second marksman, Charles Larsen. There was only point difference in the scores made by Messrs. Gibbs and Larsen.

The medal offered by the Mildred Lee Chapter, U. D. C., to the student writing the best essay on an assigned subject was won by B. G. Langston with an essay on "The Causes of the Civil War."

The medal offered by the U. D. C. of the State was won by P. S. May. This medal is open to all colleges in the State, and has been awarded five times. The University has competed for it four times and has won it three times.

Tokens of Affection.

Mr. Bryan then happily presented a gold-headed cane, the gift of the faculty as a token of affection and esteem, to Dr. Sledd. The recipient was much moved and thanked the donors most fittingly.

Dr. Crow, as the spokesman of the faculty, presented a set of books to Dr. Yocum as an expression of their admiration and affection and regret at his retiring from the University. Dr. Yocum's response was gracefully made.

With a well-written valedictory, the first honor man, A. Hadley Taylor, Jr., then, on behalf of the graduating class, took formal farewell of the citizens of Gainesville, of the Board of Control, of Dr. Sledd, of the faculty, of the student body, and finally of the members of the class of 1908-09.

Dr. Murphree was then introduced as the President-Elect of the University, and expressed his regard and affection for the outgoing President, Dr. Sledd.

The audience was dismissed with the benediction by Dr. A. B. Curry, of Memphis.

HOUSE PASSED COUNTY UNIFORMITY 36 TO 26

Bill Had Been Previously Killed, But Was Reconsidered---Senate's Long Session.

TALLAHASSEE, May 26.—Things happened in the House yesterday, when, following a change in sentiment, the Duke county uniformity of school text-books bill was taken up on reconsideration of the vote by which it was recently killed and was passed by a vote of 36 to 26.

The next important action came with the passage to third reading of the Cash primary bill, which provides among other things for disfranchisement for an extended time of persons guilty of bribery in elections.

The House devoted the afternoon and night to the consideration of the general revenue bill. This was taken up informally in the committee of the whole and much discussion was evoked.

Representative Davis offered an amendment prohibiting the sale of liquors by licensed dealers in amounts of less than half a pint at a time. This was killed, but not until it had been warmly fought.

THE SENATE.

Consideration of the Broome bill relating to the liability of railway companies having relief departments occupied nearly the entire time of the Senate. Some very lively discussions were aroused at times. The consideration of the bill will be resumed today.

The Stokes loan shark bill was passed to third reading.

Following several days of most strained conditions the Senate last night, under the leadership of the so-called anti-corporation element, held the alleged corporationists down to what proved almost an all-night session.

For several days it has been noted about that the so-called corporationists are endeavoring to block all legislation by dilatory tactics in order to prevent certain measures coming to a vote. This caused resentment and last night a caucus was held, when it was decided to apply the water cure.

A night session was held and when a motion to adjourn was made at 10 o'clock it was promptly voted down. Repeated motions were turned down and the minority then discovered that they were up against something.

The chair then ruled that motions could not be in order until business has been transacted.

Following this the Senate settled down to the calendar and after a measure was acted upon a motion to adjourn was made, the roll call was demanded and the motion to adjourn voted down.

Senate Bill No. 316 by Mr. McCrary, prescribing method of serving process upon non-resident copartners having an office or conducting a business in Florida, was advanced to third reading, as was also House Bill No. 492, by Mr. Duke of Alachua, to encourage establishment and maintenance of unenclosed game preserves for certain birds and other game.

MELROSE NOTES.

MELROSE, May 26.—Mrs. M. J. Barnett entertained quite a party of Hawthorn friends on Saturday, consisting of Mrs. W. S. Moore, Mrs. M. Hulme, Mrs. D. Hulme, Mrs. Harry Barnett, Miss M. Burkstresser and Leo Johnson.

W. H. Lee and Mrs. Lee have gone to Lake City to attend the commencement exercises at Columbia College. Their son, Stetson Lee, will return with them.

Miss E. Ricks of Highland was the guest of Miss L. Mack for the weekend.

The many friends of H. Barnett extend their regrets at the loss by fire of his store on Sunday night at Hawthorn.

The Eddy Bros. of Green Cove Springs are at work repainting the school house. They expect to finish the job this week.

Mrs. R. E. Storrs of Macon, Ga., and Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Cameron of Atlanta, arrived yesterday for a few weeks' stay at the Darlington cottage.

Situation in Georgia Railroad Strike Unchanged

ATLANTA, May 26.—A settlement by arbitration should not be difficult so far as the Georgia Railroad strikers' demands are concerned, Vice-President Ball of the firemen's organization said yesterday, because the firemen are not trying to exact a hard and fast settlement. They struck because ten white firemen were replaced by negro firemen. The railroad officials declare that the negroes were put in these positions as rewards for faithful service, and that they are within their legal rights in such action. Upon this one crucial point of the controversy there has as yet been no sign of agreement. The directors of the road, the general manager and other officials were in almost continual conference yesterday, and it was reported that some of the directors strongly favored Governor Smith's proposition for each side to select three Georgians as arbiters.

Mr. Scott would not say whether this offer would be accepted. The directors include men with local business interests, which are liable to be affected unfavorably by a long tie-up.

Hand cars, automobiles and interurban cars made little impression upon the 3,000 pounds of delayed mails in the Atlanta postoffice. Here and there in the strike districts a rural postmaster shouldered a sack of outgoing mail, and after hours of hard work riding and walking managed to reach a railroad station not affected by the strike. Reports were current that the Federal courts might interfere and place guards on trains in order to get the mails through. No such action, however, developed locally. The strikers have announced that they are willing to fire engines to carry mails, but that such engines must carry mails only and not passengers.

Jordan Named as Next Mayor of Jacksonville

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., May 26.—William S. Jordan was yesterday named Mayor of Jacksonville, winning out over W. H. Schring, the present holder of the office, by a majority of 324 votes.

It was an unusually quiet election and but little activity was seen around the polling places. The friends of the two candidates worked quietly and the result is no surprise, it being conceded during the day that Jordan would win the office.

J. B. Dodge was defeated for controller by L. T. Gregory, and E. P. Douglass, the present city marshal, was defeated by E. H. Haddock. A. O. Wright was named to succeed himself as judge of the municipal court.

DR. CURRY'S SPLENDID SERMON AT TABERNACLE

LARGE CONGREGATIONS PRESENT AT BOTH SERVICES.

"Wisdom Hath Builded Her House, She Has Hewn Out Seven Pillars," Was Subject.

Vast audiences were present Sunday morning and evening to hear the opening exercises of the University commencement. The faculty had invited Dr. Curry, of Memphis, to preach the Baccalaureate Sermon, and the members of the Student Y. M. C. A., learning that Dr. Curry was one of the most popular clergymen that had ever officiated in Gainesville, also extended to him an invitation to deliver the annual address before them. The enormous congregations proved how delighted the people of Gainesville were to have an opportunity of hearing Dr. Curry again.

Both services were held in the Tabernacle. In the morning the enormous auditorium was packed; in the evening there were but few vacant seats.

The exercises of the morning began with a chorus, "Come Into Our Hearts and Abide," well rendered by the young ladies of the Gainesville High School. This chorus did credit to the teaching of Miss Titman, of the High School. The violin obligato was by Prof. Woltz. The invocation was by Dr. Sledd, after which the quartet and chorus choir, with Miss Fennell at the piano, led the congregation in singing "Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God Almighty." Dr. Curry then read selections from the eleventh chapter of the Epistle to the Hebrews, and from the third chapter of Proverbs. After the prayer which followed the reading of the Scripture, the High School chorus sang an exquisite response. This was followed by a tenor solo well rendered by Mr. Maddox. After this the congregation and choir sang "Come, Thou Almighty King!" Announcements of the other commencement exercises were then made by Dr. Sledd, after which he introduced Dr. A. B. Curry.

Dr. Curry, after expressing his pleasure at seeing so many of his old friends, took as his text the first verse from the ninth chapter of Proverbs: "Wisdom hath builded her house, she has hewn out her seven pillars." He drew a clear and epigrammatic distinction between wisdom and knowledge. A man may be full of knowledge and yet have no wisdom; he may be learned, and yet unwise. Knowledge is of man, wisdom comes from God. Knowledge is but the acquisition of facts, wisdom is the ability to apply facts. Wisdom is the power to discern the best ends and apply the best means to attain them. It is one of the most precious and valuable gifts of God; its force is above riches, and its gain above silver and gold. If men rightly understood the value of wisdom, they would make greater efforts to attain it than to acquire the wealth of this world.

Then the speaker gave a vivid description of the structure of an Oriental house with its supporting pillars and interior court. This building to be perfect and fit for the use of mankind must be strong and beautiful. In the figurative language of the East, seven is a perfect number, and the seven pillars of the building show that it is perfect.

Then, with apt scriptural quotations, he drew a likeness between men and a building: "Know ye not ye are the temple of God." "When man is right, when his character is rightly constructed, he is the noblest building in creation, far surpassing Solomon's temple and the Temple of Dana of Ephesus. And it is true of some men that wisdom has built in them. I want you to study the characters of the good man, the seven-pillar man.

"The first of these pillars is Physical Perfection. No man is independent of his body and although many great men have been weak physically, their greatness was in spite of this." With many illustrations the preacher showed what influence an engaging physical appearance had had in the careers of many of the world's leaders. Strong, comely, graceful, beautiful bodies are a God-given source of power. This is warrant enough for college athletics. As far as athletics develops a man, it is not only allowable but necessary.

"The second pillar is Intelligence. A man may be physically perfect and yet nothing more than a powerful brute. One may be great in spite of a weak body, but one cannot be great with weak intelligence, and although a man without education may accomplish much, with education he will accomplish more. Of the men mentioned in "Who's Who?" only two-fifths of one per cent were absolutely self-made; only ten per cent had merely a common school education; sixteen per cent had a high school course; seventy-four per cent were college-bred. According to this a college education increases a high school boy's chance of success nine times, the chances of a boy with a common school training two hundred and nineteen times, of an illiterate boy eight hundred times. This shows the value of a college training in increasing the efficiency and happiness of its students. I charge you to recognize one of wisdom's necessary pillars.

"The third pillar is Virtue. The first two pillars increase a man's power, but they may increase it for evil, they may make him a curse to society." The lives of Joseph, of Solomon, of Asaph, of Aaron Burr, of Charles S. Parnell, were alluded to in order to show how necessary this pillar is in building the house. To be truly successful, to accomplish good, to build a house strong and beautiful, the pillar of virtue is essential; otherwise the building will go down in shame.

"The fourth pillar is Resolution or Will-power. Without this a man is like a rudderless boat; with it he is like a great Atlantic liner safely making the destined port. The greatest trouble with many young men is that they lack a clear-cut purpose, and have no aim in life but the pursuit of pleasure. They build houses without a plan, they sail vessels without a chart or course. Form a purpose, then bring in your will-power.

"The fifth pillar is Hope. This is one of the greatest factors in a man's success; without it continued effort is impossible. A man can fight for a forlorn hope, but there must be hope of some kind. Hell is Hell, because over its main portal is written, 'Let him who enters here leave Hope behind.' Lack of hope paralyzes all human effort; all great achievements have hope as their guiding-star. Do not be pessimistic, do not lose hope; be optimistic. Do not look at the hole in the doughnut—look at the encircling ring.

The sixth pillar is Love for our Fellow-Men. Without this no character is strong or beautiful. The greatest of African explorers was David Livingstone. His purpose was not to increase British territory, not to exploit the resources of the country, not to hurt or seek adventure; his motive was love, he was seeking to heal the open sore of the world."

Dr. Curry here introduced a striking contrast between George Washington and Napoleon Bonaparte: the one prompted by selfish ambition, the other moved by tender, unselfish patriotism and disinterested love for the American people. We cannot rise to the greatest heights without this love. The human greatness of Jesus of Nazareth was due to his love for the common people.

"The seventh pillar is Faith in God. This brings man into contact with the source of all good. This

CLOSING EXERCISES OF THE NEWBERRY SCHOOL

WAS AN OLD-FASHIONED "SCHOOL EXHIBITION."

Institution Has Accomplished Good Work, and Prof. Kean Will Be Asked to Remain.

The closing exercises of the Newberry High School took place on Thursday and Friday of last week. It was an old-fashioned "school exhibition." The school auditorium could not hold the audience, and a large brush arbor and stage was built on the outside. The pupils all acquitted themselves in a creditable manner.

Both evenings were taken up with drills, pantomimes and comedies. The last number on Friday evening was "From Pumpkin Swamp," which, in all of its thirty years' presentation at school entertainments, has never been better presented than by the school pupils of Newberry.

This has been one of the most successful years in the history of the Newberry school. The school has been raised from a rural graded school to a junior high school, the enrollment has made a gain of twenty-five per cent and the average attendance has increased proportionately. A large petition has been circulated, with not only the names of the patrons but a number of the most influential citizens of the town, requesting Prof. A. D. Kean, the principal of the school, to remain another year.

will regulate all his other good qualities; this will bring him into harmony with God. No creature can ignore his creator and success—in the end he must fail. No man is truly great until linked through faith to the eternal God. What have men of no faith accomplished? Nothing! There is not one single government founded on atheism; it takes men of faith to found a government. Moses, Isaiah, David, Augustine, Columbanus, Calvin, Knox, Luther, Cromwell, Lee, Jackson—all these were men of faith. Faith alone makes men able to bring things to pass.

Then the speaker introduced a sharp contrast of the great Duke of Marlborough with John Wesley. Today the latter has 13,000,000 followers, and many millions more are ready to do him reverence.

"Emerson wrote 'Hitch your wagon to a star.' I say 'Hitch your wagon to the throne of God through a living faith. May Wisdom's house be your house, perfect in strength and beauty."

The congregation then sang "Nearer, My God, to Thee," and was dismissed by Dr. Curry with the benediction.

PEACH MOVEMENT.

Orchards from This County Now Shipping Fancy Fruit.

From Tuesday's Daily Sun:

The Gainesville Peach Orchard Company is now shipping peaches from their grove located only a few miles west of Gainesville and will in a few days more be shipping in car lots.

Besides the movement of peaches from this handsome and extensive farm there are a number of orchards located near Newberry that are also picking fruit and forwarding to the Northern markets.

THE GOVERNOR'S MESSAGE.

On Friday last Governor Gilchrist sent a special message to the Legislature on the Wallis claim. In the opinion of The Index, there was no special reason for sending in a message on this subject at this time, as both branches of the Legislature had previously declined to favorably consider the Wallis claim.

But the Governor's message, which covered fifteen pages of closely typewritten legal-cap sheets, offered little if anything new in regard to the history or merits of the claim. An explanation as to why he thought the $25,000 appropriated six years ago, and a suggestion as to a division between Wallis and Beard, were included in the message; but these, too, are intangible.

In another message to the Senate on Monday, the Governor, in referring to the Wallis claim message, stated that certain newspapers of the State had intimated, directly or indirectly, that the Legislature had repudiated the State's solemn obligation and that, in order to have the people know that the honor of the State is protected, he had sent copies of the message to these newspapers for publication, but so far they had refused to do so.

The Governor, in the opinion of The Index, cannot consistently feel aggrieved because this message has not been printed. Its contents would fill the columns of the average weekly paper, to the utter exclusion of all other matter, and the larger papers, with sufficient space to carry the message, might easily be forgiven for devoting their columns to real, live news matter. Besides, those newspapers that have taken the time and trouble to examine into the merits of the Wallis claim, may be pardoned for entertaining views different from those expressed in the Governor's message, especially after considering the able and exhaustive report submitted by the Senate Committee of 1902, and reported to the Senate over the signature of "W. A. Blount, Acting Chairman."

So far as The Index knows, the present Legislature has not been charged with repudiating the obligations of the State, but it cannot be denied that as long as Colonel Wallis is denied the right to have his claim adjudicated by the courts of the State the conclusion is inevitably forced upon The Index, and other newspapers of the State, and the people of Florida generally, that the Legislature, though not repudiating the claim, is creating a condition with similar results.

No better argument has been offered in support of the effort of Colonel Wallis' friends to get this claim into the courts of the State than is contained in the Governor's message itself. This document, from the beginning to end, is a mass of acts, contracts, resolutions, accounts, opinions, guesses, conclusions and other more mystifying and confusing matter that positively and forever precludes the average legislator—for no other reason than lack of time to study law and history—from mastering the details of the claim, that a reasonable and just conclusion might be reached.

The Index having been one of the Governor's most ardent supporters in the last campaign, and feeling that its editor can still claim the right to be his friend, writes this in explanation and defense of the country press of Florida, those papers which were his strongest supporters when he needed them, and which do not deserve his censure.—Lake City Index, May 21.

LEGISLATURE DISPOSED OF MUCH BUSINESS

TALLAHASSEE, May 25.—With the starting on foot of a mild investigation, the killing of the Bynum State printing plant bill and the passage of the Taylor State guaranty of bank deposits measure, the House put in a busy session yesterday. A number of other measures were acted upon.

Representative Kelley of Baker defended the State guaranty of bank deposits measure. It was passed by a vote of 21 to 25.

Mr. Hardee introduced resolution to send a committee of three to the Western Union office to see if any of the members of the House have been sending "deadhead" messages, and to make report of same to the House. Adopted.

Resolution by Mr. Mahaffey—To allow no member to speak more than five minutes except the introducer of the bill or resolution. Amendment adopted, striking out "except the introducer." Resolution was adopted.

Bills on Third Reading.

House Bill No. 608, by Mr. Newton—Regulating the list of pension receivers and creating a State Board of Pensions.

Amendment by Mr. Wells: "Any person, who enlisted in this State and served actively for six months, shall receive the benefits of this act." Lost.

Amendment adopted by Mr. Blanton, to include the value of pensioner's wife's property for assessment. Many amendments lost and ruled out of order.

Amendment adopted to employ a clerk instead of having the work of the board performed by Comptroller's clerks. The bill passed by a vote of 41 to 15.

Mr. Kelly moved for reconsideration today.

In the vote on the pension bill, Hon. James E. Alexander asked that an explanation of his vote be recorded as follows:

"I vote no and in explanation of my vote will say, as a son of a Confederate soldier, I will never vote for any bill or measure that will deny

a liberal and just pension to an old Confederate soldier or his widow—or for any bill or measure that will require an old Confederate soldier to make an affidavit that he is a pauper before receiving said pension. As I consider this bill unjust to the old Confederate soldiers and their widows, I vote no, and wish to go on record as favoring a liberal and just pension law for the old Confederate soldiers and their widows. The present bill is neither liberal or just, in my opinion."

THE SENATE.

Sixty-one bills passed to third reading, killed or withdrawn was the record made by the Senate Monday. It was the hardest grind of the session and strict business made things hustle over the calendar.

Among the most important measures killed was the House bill by Mr. Wall of Bradford, which provides for the reimbursing of parties losing property or cash by theft.

An important measure introduced was the Flournoy bill providing for coeducation in all the schools, colleges and universities of the State.

Among other bills passed to third reading were: The Cook joint resolution calling for a revision of the constitution; the Hosford bill creating a State forestry commission, and providing for the conservation of the forest resources of the State; and the Humphries bill allowing the Board of Commissioners of State Institutions to sell or lease phosphate beds lying in the waters owned by the State.

The Senate passed to third reading a bill which was amended to allow sheriffs to accept passes, but it killed an amendment offered by Senator Humphries to include newspaper men. Senator Humphries held that it is a reflection upon the newspaper men of the State to say that they would be influenced by free transportation.

Senate Bill No. 368, by Mr. McCreary, relating to the division of counties into road districts, was advanced to third reading.

Live Oak Man Nabbed as He Set Building Ablaze

LIVE OAK, May 24.—Early yesterday morning a man named Goff was arrested in his meat market which it is charged he set afire. The store is in a building on Ohio avenue. Late Saturday evening he was found by officers at the building, and told them he was watching his building in the fear that a negro boy who was in his employ intended to set it afire. The officers sent him toward home, telling him that they would watch. Later, they assert, Goff returned, and the night marshal and two other men say they saw him as he went into his store, and hiding outside watched him when he poured kerosene about in the building, and struck a match to it.

As he came out of the building he was arrested and placed in jail. Goff begged the officers to shoot him. The building was saved from total destruction by the fire department.

Lynchers Hang Man as Warning to Negroes

LINCOLNTON, Ga., May 25.—Early yesterday Albert Aiken, a negro, was taken from the Lincoln county jail here and swung to a tree at Dry Fork creek, three miles from Lincolnton. The body was filled with bullets. Upon the body was pinned this placard:

"Notice—This is what will happen to all negroes in Lincoln county under similar circumstances.

(Signed) "REGULATORS." Aiken cut John Spires, a white

farmer, Thursday morning. Spires' condition grew worse and he is now reported dying. The white people in Lincoln say that negro secret societies are being formed for illegal acts and the inference is that by the lynching it is hoped to awe the negroes.

BRYAN'S TRIBUTE.

Apogee of the recent observance of Mother's Day, says The Tampa Tribune, we recall an eloquent tribute which was delivered by William J. Bryan at Fredericksburg, Va., during the famous campaign of 1896 to the mother of Washington. Said the noted orator:

"Fredericksburg is not a large city and yet it is rich in incidents of great historic value. Here the women of America have reared a monument to Mary, the mother of Washington. I am glad to stand on this spot; I am glad to feel the influences which surround her grave. In a campaign, especially in a campaign like this, there is much of bitterness, and sometimes of abuse, spoken against the candidates for public office, but, my friends, there is one character, the mother—a candidate for the affections of all mankind—against whom no true man ever uttered a word of abuse. There is one name, mother, which is never found upon the tongue of the slanderer—in her presence all criticism is silenced. The painter has, with his brush, transferred the landscape to the canvas with such fidelity that the trees and grasses seem almost real; he has even made the face of a maiden seem instinct with life, but there is one picture so beautiful that no painter has ever been able to perfectly reproduce it, and that is the picture of the mother holding in her arms her babe. Within the shadow of this monument, reared to the memory of each one of us, I bow in humble reverence to motherhood."

FINISHING WELL.

This is the time when in most places schools are closing for the summer vacation, and the "commencements" of schools and colleges are a reminder that thousands of young people are being graduated to enter upon their life work.

To many young people there comes the temptation in the last year of school to let up a little on their studies because of the feeling that as the end is so near it does not matter. For more than one reason this is a mistaken idea. The last year's work should be the fitting crown of the work of previous years. Then, too, the last year in school is to be considered in its relation to the future. In most cases a young man passes directly from school to his life work.

As the word "commencement" indicates, his life is not closing when he leaves school. It is really opening before him with all its possibilities, and if fullest success is to attend that life he must be adequately equipped. This means that the young person must finish well at school in order to commence well and continue well in the business or profession which he enters. It is not slipshod but thorough work that wins.

STATE PRESS COMMENT.

The Tampa Tribune says: "Mr. Bryan says Frank Clark ought to have sense enough to quit; but Frank would have a hard time borrowing any of that particular brand of sense from W. J."

The Southern Argus says: "The refusal of the Legislature to re-appportion the State in obedience to the constitution and in compliance with their oaths is a blot upon the records of that body."

The Pensacola News says: "The White Springs Herald does not believe that a man who is going to another world would like to go by Jacksonville on his way, but it is a fact that people have been known to go to Joyous Jacksonville and get away sober."

The Pensacola Journal says: "There were three arrests and convictions in Gainesville last week for cruelty to dumb animals. A good work. It should be kept up until every human brute gains at least the faithfulness and patience of the poor beast he delights in torturing."

The Times-Union "Short Talks" says: "The wicked Florida editors are making much of the story that a burglar who ransacked a Tampa residence left only a lady's bathing suit. But burglars can't be expected to think of every little thing.—Tampa Tribune. Of course not; and burglars are not expected to carry microscopes around with them as if they were bugologists."

MEMORIAL SERVICE OF G. A. R. SUNDAY

SERMON TO BE DELIVERED AT FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH.

In compliance with the annual custom of the association, on next Sunday morning, May 30th, there will be a memorial service held at the First Baptist church at 10:30 o'clock. The sermon will be delivered by the celebrated divine, Rev. Dr. Jno. E. Barnard of Carterville, Ga., assisted in the pulpit by Rev. S. B. Rogers.

Dr. Barnard, who has accepted the invitation to deliver this sermon, is one of the most talented and finest orators of the Southern Baptist Church, one whom it will be a treat to hear, and this fact alone will serve to call out many.

Invitations of the most cordial nature have been extended the local Camp of Confederate Veterans, the two chapters of the Daughters of the Confederacy, the Blue and the Gray, the Spanish-American War veterans, the Patriotic Order Sons of America, and the general public to attend this service.

The battalion of the various organizations will assemble at the Post Headquarters in the Dutton building and headed by the Gainesville Brass Band, who have generously offered their services, with Company "H" of the Second Regiment, Florida State Troops, acting as an escort of honor, will proceed to the church, returning in the same order. The usual choir of the church will be augmented by special music arranged by Col. I. E. Webster.

On the following day, Monday, May 31st, services will be held at the cemetery and the graves of all the departed veterans of both the Blue and the Gray will be decorated with flowers. In addition to the usual ritualistic service on this occasion, there will be an address delivered by the talented young lawyer, Col. W. E. Baker, the reading of President Lincoln's address at Gettysburg and special music by selected singers under the leadership of Col. I. E. Webster.

Carriages will be in waiting on the north side of the square at 9 o'clock for any Confederate Veterans, Daughters of Confederacy and any others who desire to attend the ceremonies and hear the address of Col. Baker. Those fortunate enough to have flowers are requested to make a donation for the decoration of the soldiers' graves.

The Grand Army of Florida, at the present time, under Department Commander General James Skinner of Archer and his able staff, are in a flourishing condition and doing much to inculcate the principles of fraternity, charity and loyalty among the Blue and Gray veterans who are still with us.

Attention, Stonewall Camp.

The Stonewall Camp of Confederate Veterans is invited by the Lew Wallace Post, G. A. R., to join it in its memorial service to be held at the First Baptist church in this city at 10:30 o'clock on next Sunday morning; and also invited to accompany such Post on the next day to the cemetery to decorate the graves of all the soldiers buried there. Carriages will be in waiting on the north side of the square for the members of Stonewall Camp who will go to the cemetery.

As many as can should accept the invitation.

Commander.

A Birthday Greeting.

On Saturday, the 23rd, a host of friends and relatives enjoyed a delightful dinner at the home of I. C. Manning given by the Manning brothers in honor of their aged mother's seventy-ninth birthday. Three sons and one daughter, friends and relatives, sixty in number, were present to partake of the toothsome dinner and delicious ice cream that was spread under the shade trees in the yard, where it was more pleasant for the crowd.

Elder J. T. Johnson preached a very interesting sermon for the occasion, concluding with the hymn, "Jesus, Lover of My Soul." May God bless the sons and daughters with the presence of their devoted mother many more birthdays. They show by their kind deeds that they have not forgotten the kind care of a mother.
A FRIEND.

AN AKRON MAN.

MR. WILLIAM F. STEESE.
Mr. William F. Steese, 701 Coburn St., Akron, Ohio, writes:

"I have been troubled for several years with catarrh of the stomach. I have used different patent medicines to no effect whatever, and have doctored considerably with family doctor. 'Sometimes his treatment would relieve me for a few weeks, but would eventually have to go back to him, and that had kept up for several years.

"I was advised to use Peruna, and have taken three bottles. Never felt so good in my life. Am going to continue using it. Wouldn't be without it in the house. I will gladly recommend it to any one afflicted with catarrh of stomach, or stomach trouble of any kind."

The above is an oft-repeated story. Troubled for years with chronic catarrh. Tried different remedies and doctors to no avail. Peruna was advised by friends. Instant relief experienced. Great gratitude to Peruna expressed. This, in brief, is a story that is repeated to us a great many times every year.

No one could be in touch with our vast correspondence for one month without being impressed with the sincerity and truthfulness of these kind of testimonials.

Peruna promptly produces an appetite, corrects digestion and relieves stomach difficulties that have resisted other treatment.

MAULTSBY AGAIN LOST HEAVILY BY FIRE

LARGE AND COMMODIOUS BARN
DESTROYED MONDAY NIGHT.

News was received here yesterday of another destructive fire at Campville which totally destroyed the barn and all contents of the Campville Brick Company.

It has been only a few weeks since the immense brick plant of this concern was destroyed by fire, and it seems as if luck has struck them in rather a hard way, for the total loss on the two fires will reach into several thousand dollars.

The loss of the barn, which was a large and commodious two-story building, will probably be about $2,000, with no insurance. The building contained all of the harness and wagons used by the company and had just been stocked with all of the oat yield made by Mr. Maultsby, besides a solid carload of hay had just been placed in the building.

The first known of the blaze was about 10 o'clock on Monday night when a darkey who lives only a short distance from the place was awakened by the cracking noise of the fire and upon investigation it was found that the entire top of the building was in a blaze.

He at once went to the place and by hard work and with some assistance managed to drive the seventeen head of mules from the pen in the building and save them, but within a short while it would have been impossible to enter the place at all.

How the fire originated could not be learned. There was no insurance on the building, and the loss is a total one to Mr. Maultsby.

UNIVERSITY WORK COMMENCES MONDAY

EDDINS MFG. COMPANY SECURE
CONTRACT FOR FINISHING.

Work of remodeling and completing the University buildings will commence at once, the contract for the needed improvements having already been awarded.

The successful bidders on this work was the Eddins Manufacturing Company of this city, and they will put a force of men upon the buildings by the first of the coming week and complete those already erected at the University grounds.

This contract provides for the completion of Buckman Hall and it will require a number of weeks to complete the contract. Besides the carpenter work, the entire building is to be painted and stained on the inside, which will add very materially to the attractiveness of the present quarters.

Thomas Hall is also to be repaired and finished up in first-class style. Cement floors are to be placed in the bath rooms, the walls are to be replastered and in all the entire building will be overhauled where it is found necessary.

This is only the first step taken by the Board of Control in better equipping and arranging for the comfort of the students that attend the University, and it is believed that work will commence on the other large buildings before the end of the summer.

With this work started, the Federal building now in progress and a score or more residences being worked upon, shows that business is good in Gainesville even during the dull season, of which the merchants and people generally are very thankful.

SOME CHANGES IN REALTY AT WALDO

DR. BORING WILL BUILD NEW RESIDENCE SOON.

Invitations Issued to Marriage of Popular Young People—Other Notes of Interest.

WALDO, May 25.—Dr. J. M. Boring has purchased the Jos. Jones lot and the corner lot adjoining, which is diagonally across from the Waldo House, and expects to build a residence on them in the near future.

Mrs. L. D. Seigler is visiting relatives in Meridian, Miss., and will accompany her son, Harry, home from school there. Miss Seigler is in charge of the store meantime.

Relatives here of Mrs. A. Jolly of Orange Heights have been visiting her, as she has been quite ill.

Mr. Wm. Agin and Mrs. Dixie Harris were recently married in Jacksonville. The groom has been in the employ of the S. A. L. railway here for several years and is a brother of our townsman, H. M. Agin.

Mrs. I. N. Morris visited her son, Geo. P. Morris, in Gainesville and returned Saturday.

L. B. Fletcher, the baker, is out again after a severe illness.

James Case, the oldest man of our town, is on a visit to relatives in Hartford, Conn.

Mrs. Walter Wills returned to Tampa Monday after a visit to her parents, Rev. and Mrs. D. L. Branning, and to relatives at Starke.

Invitations have been sent out to the many friends of Miss Gracie Belle Geiger and Mr. Edward William Donegan to their marriage at the Methodist church on June 1st, 3:30 p. m. Miss Geiger is one of our most accomplished and popular young ladies.

Mrs. M. A. Redd has returned from a visit to her relatives in Jacksonville.

Dr. P. D. Hicks returned to Hawkinsville, Ga., Sunday, after a visit to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. Hicks, and family.

Mrs. J. W. Morgan of Starke spent Sunday with her parents here.

Engineer Redgrave returned from Atlanta and resumed his duties on the S. A. L.

Rev. Wm. Pugh married Mr. Morris and Miss Ponds of Hatchet Creek last week.

J. B. Kennard, J. L. Neal and R. C. White went on a fishing expedition on Lake Santa Fe a few days ago.

Waldo is peculiar in some respects.

We have here a black Dove, a black man who is Green, a white man who is Green, also, a young lady who likes Coffee, a married woman who loves Porter, a sedate man who is always Jolly, a man who gets thirsty though always Atwater, a wife who, when she gets impatient with her husband, says O. Shaw, Winter all summer, an English negro, a young lady who is a Belle and a married man a Bell also, and every piece of mail matter has one man's name on it—Waldo.

WRITING OF LETTERS COST THEM POSITIONS

Doings of Secret Sessions of Senate Made Known. Williams' Oyster Bill Passed.

TALLAHASSEE, May 24.—With the discharge of L. Algee, one of the two Senate stenographers, and the request for the resignation of Assistant State Chemist B. K. Bridges, which has been received, the Senate Saturday afternoon, after a long executive session, unbottled the sensation which it had been keeping to itself.

While it is expected to prove a lesson to Senate attaches, it really was not such a terrible sensation as had been expected. Hours have been spent in executive session over the matter during the past few days.

From what information was given out, the two young men wrote to a brewing company in St. Louis in regard to the Humphries bill defining intoxicating beverages as those having over two per cent of alcohol in them. The letter, it is stated, made certain offers if a named amount was deposited in a bank—at any rate the transaction looked shady to the Senate.

The letter was sent to the Jacksonville representative of the brewing company, who in turn sent it to a representative of the corporation interested in Tallahassee. It was turned over to Senator Dayton then, and the trouble was on. Mr. Bridges was in Jacksonville a few days ago on business and was brought up by a deputy sheriff on an attachment issued by the Senate for him as a witness.

The young men were perfectly frank when questioned by the executive session and the Senators do not believe that they fully realized just what they were doing amounted to.

It was stated by a Senator that the action taken was the least that the Senate could do in the matter, but that it was believed that under the circumstances it was punishment enough. Both young men are highly regarded by all who know them and the whole affair is regarded as unfortunate.

Sensors state that no further action will be taken.

Oyster Bill Passed.

After nearly three days of the most vigilant work by Senator Williams of Cedar Key, and a discussion before the Senate for that time, that body finally passed his general oyster bill on the third reading.

The bill is most sweeping and in its amended form is expected to prove most beneficial to the industry as well as a producer of revenue for the State, if it is agreed to by the House.

Aside from making public the executive business, the chief sensation Saturday lay in the fact that not a single new bill was introduced in the body.

Child Labor Discussed.

Following an eloquent address in behalf of the Farris child labor bill by the speaker, its author, the House spent the entire afternoon upon the consideration of that measure but no conclusion had been reached by the time adjournment was taken.

Saturday morning an important bill was introduced by Cash of Taylor, relating to primary elections and intended to purify them.

The House also reconsidered and then passed the bill appropriating

Many Bills Will Die.

Confronted by over six hundred bills, the Florida Legislature has only eleven more days. The session of 1909 will then pass into history and it now looks very much as if a person will be able to count on his fingers the number of general bills enacted during the sixty days. Strictly speaking this week will be the last so far as ordinary legislation is concerned. The last week is always taken up almost entirely with the discussion of the general revenue and the general appropriation bills. Members are already anxiously grasping every opportunity to get their pet measures down on the list of special orders so that they will at least die an honorable death in preference to an ignominious decease on the calendars.

Committees Return.

The various investigating committees have nearly all returned now. The one that visited the State Reform School at Marianna has reported and the others will in a few days. The one that went to the State Reform School wasn't overly pleased in every particular. So far as those in charge were concerned, the management isn't so bad, but the school is very poorly equipped and is costing the State far more than it ought to, considering what there is to show for it. The committee even suggested that if the school cannot be run under less exorbitant amounts than in the past that it would really be advisable to abolish the institution.

The Everglades drainage joint committee comes back the best pleased of the bunch. Chairman Thorp West of Marianna has always been an opponent of drainage, but he came back convinced, and the same was true of the others. By their request they were accompanied by former Governor Broward, who is perhaps more thoroughly familiar with every phase of the drainage work than any other one man. They went to Lauderdale on the East Coast canal. They went next down to Fort Myers to the Caloosahatchee.

The committee appointed to investigate the Insane Asylum at Chattahoochee has nearly completed its work. It is understood that there is really little that will be in the least sensational in the report, as conditions are understood to have been found very good.

KRAFT PAPER COMPANY NAME OF ORGANIZERS

NEW PAPER MILL NOW ASSUMING BUSINESS SHAPE.

Only a Few Weeks Before Active Steps Will Be Taken on Building.

From Wednesday's Daily:

As will be seen by the announcement in Tuesday's Sun, the Kraft Paper Company will be the title of the immense paper plant to be erected in this city, the organizers having been compelled to change the name owing to a wholesale concern in another Florida city having already adopted the name of the Florida Paper Company.

The promoters of the plan, with B. F. Williamson as manager, are now advertising for letters patent and as soon as it has been advertised a sufficient length of time, they will get busy on the complete organization. The name of "Kraft" was selected for strength, which was suggested by the very favorable report made by the United States Bureau of Standards, which stated that it was very much stronger than other makes of similar grades submitted from other material.

All of the drawings are now complete and cuts from the same are in the hands of the engraver, so within a very short while The Sun will issue a special Promoters' Edition, showing the grades of paper and also advertising Gainesville in a very substantial manner.

The matter for this publication is now being prepared and it will give in detail the reports and experiments of the Government concerning the manufacture of paper from the pine. Besides the paper, there are by-products that will be obtained from the manufacture, such as tar, oil and turpentine.

Much advertising space has already been spoken for in this special edition of The Sun, and it is proposed to make it one of the very best editions ever turned out of this office, printing sufficient extra copies to give it wide circulation throughout the country.

HAD LOCK ARRESTED.

Henson Has Warrant Issued for Attempted Murder.

From Wednesday's Daily Sun:

W. J. Lock of Wilcox, postmaster and merchant of that place, is among the visitors to the city, having come to answer to a warrant which was issued for his arrest.

Henson, the express messenger who shot him in the hand and arm a few weeks since and who was only recently released from custody in Jacksonville and afterwards released under bond for his appearance here at the next term of court, is the man that had the warrant issued charging him with attempted murder.

This case will doubtless prove a very interesting one, and will be watched with much interest.

BOARD OF CONTROL HAD MONDAY SESSION

AUDIT AND APPROVE BILLS OF THE STATE UNIVERSITY.

Believe That Work Is Soon to Commence on the Administration and Science Buildings.

The State Board of Control held a business session here Monday at which the regular auditing of bills and other matters came up for attention.

The members present on this occasion were N. P. Bryan, Jacksonville chairman; E. L. Wartmann, Citra; P. K. Yonge, Pensacola, and Secretary Pro Tem G. E. Campbell of Tallahassee, who is acting for Secretary Kellum while he is attending to his duties at the session of the Legislature.

Besides attending the regular routine business of the board the members are here for the purpose of being present at the commencement exercises and to look over the grounds and buildings with a view to commencing operations at some time in the near future.

While the board is non-committal, it is generally believed that they will commence operations as soon as funds are available, and judging from a remark made by one of them to a Sun reporter Monday it is thought that among the first buildings constructed will be the administration and science buildings, both of which are very badly needed at the present time. This member of the committee stated that the main building of the Deaf and Dumb Institute at St. Augustine is well under way and everything is favorable for its early completion.

Following the exercises here the board will leave for Tallahassee to be present at the College for Women for the next few days.

If you want to feel well, look well and be well, take Foley's Kidney Remedy. It tones up the kidneys and bladder, purifies the blood and restores health and strength. Pleasant to take and contains no harmful drugs. Why not commence today? J. W. McCollum & Co.

ALL WHEELS STOPPED ON GEORGIA RAILROAD

Complete Tie-Up Sunday and the Striking Firemen Wait for Railroad Company to Act.

AUGUSTA, Ga., May 24.—The Georgia Railroad was completely tied up last night. The management did not try to move trains, simply announcing that it has the men, the means and the equipment to proceed and will do so when the State announces ready to protect its property and employees. The strikers are standing pat. They assert that they have not been and will not be parties to any violence. Sympathizers with the strikers, it is set out, have done all the hurt that has been done.

General Manager Thomas K. Scott last night made the announcement that "no trains are moving." Governor Hoke Smith wired the sheriff of McDuffie county to co-operate with the municipal authorities and to summon all deputies necessary to protect life and property. It is in this county that Thomson is located and it is at Thomson that the crowd issued their ultimatum Friday night that no trains should pass carrying either non-union or negro firemen. Governor Smith has also asked the sheriff there to keep him fully advised of the situation.

Freight Shipments Hunted.

The Governor has also wired the sheriffs of Rockdale and DeKalb counties, giving them information that engineers claim to have been rocked at Conyers and Lithonia and urging upon them prompt action for the protection of the railroad's employees and property.

From the offices of the Georgia Railroad here last night it was announced that all freight accumulated at Atlanta for Augusta and points beyond will be moved by the Central and Seaboard. The Georgia road freight station here will be open today for delivery of freight to consignees, but shippers are requested to withhold all shipments until further notice. After thus admitting how complete is the tie-up the road says: "The Georgia road is omitting nothing that offers promise of early resumption."

The Georgia Railroad is 171 miles long from Atlanta to Augusta, and branches at Camak to Macon, at Barnett to Washington, at Union Point to White Plains and also at Union Point to Athens. It is owned by a stock company and is being operated by the Louisville and Nashville, lessee. The Atlantic Coast Line is joint lessee. It employs 2,400 to 2,500 men, 400 of whom are in the train service. Its last monthly pay roll was $50,000.

Firemen Stand Pat.

AUGUSTA, Ga., May 24.—The striking firemen have entered into no negotiations. Vice-President Kelley stated last night that so far as he was held yesterday, but it was the situation from Saturday night.

A meeting of the local organization was held yesterday, but it was the regular monthly communication of the lodge, and the strike was discussed only incidentally.

The firemen are simply awaiting developments.

Their instructions are to keep away from any gathering of strike sympathizers, and to take no part in any demonstration.

"We mean to make the railroad realize our value, that is all," declared Vice-President Kelley.

A fireman is reported to have been taken from a switch engine in the Georgia Railroad yards yesterday. Straggling crowds gathered at the Union Station every time a Georgia train was due to arrive or depart, but as there was nothing moving on the line they soon disappeared.

Detectives Serve As Firemen.

ATHENS, Ga., May 24.—After Saturday night's experience in which several men were hurt by the throwing of rocks at Will Williamson, a white fireman on a Georgia train, everything is quiet now.

A Georgia train made the trip to Union Point Sunday morning and returned but did not go out in the afternoon, the engineer deeming it unsafe. Williamson quit his job and two detectives fired the engine.

One Georgia Train Reaches Macon.

MACON, Ga., May 24.—Only one train over the Georgia road entered Macon yesterday and no train was operated out. The incoming train due shortly after eleven reached here after four in the afternoon.

Strikers at this point remain in absolute quiet and there is no apparent inclination to raise a disturbance.

RICH RED BLOOD

Means Rosy Cheeks, Clear Complexion, Bright Eyes and Plenty of Energy.

What does rich, red blood mean? It means brains, vitality, ambition, hopefulness, persistency, and everything worth living for.

But you can't have rich, red blood, if your digestion is imperfect; and your digestion is certainly imperfect if you have sour stomach, bad taste in mouth, lump of lead after eating, belching of gas and nervous unrest. So far-reaching is the effect of indigestion, that many times the eyesight is affected.

If you have indigestion or any symptom of stomach distress or agony J. W. McCollum & Co. will sell you a mighty good remedy for 50 cents, and guarantee it to cure or money back.

The remedy is called Mi-o-na. Its powerful, reconstructive action on the stomach is little short of marvelous. It tones up, strengthens and puts new life and energy into the worn out stomach in a few days. It cures by removing the cause. If you are suffering, try a large 50-cent box. It's a small price to pay for banishing indigestion.

Mi-o-na is sold by leading druggists in every town in America, and by J. W. McCollum & Co. in Gainesville, for 50 cents a box.

HYOMEI

Cures catarrh or money back. Just breathe it in. Complete outfit, including inhaler, $1.00. Bottles 50c. Druggists.

FAMILY CURED OF SKIN TROUBLES

Two Little Girls had Eczema Very Badly—In One Case Child's Hair Came Out and Left Bare Patches—Father's Head Sore from Childhood—In All Three Cases

CUTICURA MET WITH ITS USUAL SUCCESS

"I have two little girls who have been troubled very badly with eczema. One of them had it on her lower limbs. I did everything that I could hear of for her, but it did not give in until warm weather when it seemingly subsided. The next winter when it became cold weather the eczema started again and also in her head where it would take the hair out and leave bare patches as large as a quarter of a dollar. At the same time her arms were sore and the whole length of them. I took her to a physician and he said that she had two distinct types of eczema. I continued with him for several weeks and the child grew worse all of the time. Her sister's arms were also affected in the same way. My husband came home one day with a box of Cuticura Ointment and a cake of Cuticura Soap. I began using them and also the Cuticura Pills and by the time the second lot was used their skin was soft and smooth as it had not been before for the winter. We kept the Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment constantly by us and when any little roughness or irritation appears on their skin I quickly dispel it with the Cuticura Remedies. My husband has used them with most satisfactory results for a sore head which has troubled him from childhood. Mrs. Charles Baker, Albion, Me., Sept. 21, 1908."

Cuticura Ointment is one of the most successful remedies for torturing, disfiguring humors of the skin and scalp, including loss of hair, of infants, children and adults, ever compounded, in proof of which a single anointing with it, preceded by a hot bath with Cuticura Soap, and followed by mild doses of Cuticura Pills, is often sufficient to afford immediate relief in the most distressing forms of itching, burning and scaly humors, eczemas, irritations and inflammations, permit rest and sleep and point to a speedy cure when all else fails.

MICANOPY SCHOOL CLOSED FOR SEASON

FIVE PUPILS AWARDED DIPLOMAS FOR COMPLETING COURSE.

Performance by Gainesville Vaudeville Co. Good—New Business Enterprises to Be Started.

MICANOPY, May 24.—The Micanopy Junior High School closed last Thursday after an eight-months' term.

The following pupils were awarded diplomas for having completed the Junior course: Grace Holloway, Anita Thrasher, Leon Thrasher, Clarence Watkins and John Barr Watkins. The principal, Miss Collins, left for Waycross, Ga., on Friday. Miss Grace Fogg, the first assistant, will spend the summer in the East.

The children all seem glad to be out of school again.

The Gainesville Vaudeville Company gave a performance at Feaster's Hall on Thursday night. Quite a crowd was out to see the boys, and all seemed to enjoy themselves. We hope they will come again.

Dr. Edwin Schlater was in town Saturday.

The Micanopy "Sprouts" went up to play the Gainesville "Buds" Friday. We hear the "Sprouts" showed the "Buds" how to play ball.

Mrs. Carlton's brick building is showing up pretty well. It will be ready for occupancy by July 1st. When completed it will be one of the nicest buildings in town.

With electric lights a certainty, a bottling works nearly ready for business, an ice plant coming, we are beginning to feel like we can put on a few city airs a little later on.

A committee waited upon the officials of the Atlantic Coast Line in Jacksonville last week to see if the trains known as No. 9 and 10 couldn't be run into Micanopy. The officials seem willing to do this if things can be arranged satisfactory to the transportation department.

The Standard Oil Company is preparing to build a tank here near the Coast Line depot.

J. P. O'Dell is home again after a few days on the road.

OLD LAUNDRY BUILDING SET ON FIRE SUNDAY.

Blaze Was Discovered in Time and Extinguished With the Chemical Engines.

The City Council should take some action regarding the old laundry building which was partially burned and have it torn away, as it seems to be bothering someone a great deal in its present state.

Sunday morning at about 4 o'clock it was discovered to be on fire near the center of the building and there is no doubt that this was the work of incendiaries, for there was no occasion to have any fire about the building at all since it was first burned.

In its present shape it is an eyesore and the owner of the fragments should be required to tear it away and stop this action of the party who is evidently determined to have it placed out of the way.

This is not the only building that has been fired in this vicinity, and some steps should also be taken to watch out for the culprits and arrest them for this offense, which is a serious one. A disastrous fire in this immediate territory would entail a great loss to a large number of people.

Only the two chemical engines were required to extinguish the fire, for luckily it was discovered by the night policeman in time to awaken the firemen, who are located only a few feet distant.

W. R. Abstein has moved into his new home just opposite the Tusculum Hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Chamberlin of Tacoma were in town Saturday.

The best of the good ones.

All the experiments of the Government food experts and the athletic trainers of Yale University prove that cereal eaters are the strongest and healthiest. Quaker Oats stands at the head of the list of cereal foods. It is not only the best food, but it's the cheapest food on earth. Packed in tins it will keep sweet and fresh anywhere indefinitely.

The Alternative.

"If the window had been eight feet from the ground," pouted the young wife, "instead of eight stories, I'd have thrown myself out when you quarreled with me. Then you'd have had to be sweet to me when you picked me up. A lot of wives attempt suicide, they say, just to be petted when they come to."
"Yes," said he, "but sometimes they don't come to, remember."—New York Press.

Everybody's friend—Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil. Cures toothache, earache, sore throat. Heals cuts, bruises, scalds. Stops any pain.

The Best Advice.

If you are about to do something which may cause trouble, ask the advice of a man who has tried it. His advice will be stronger than that of a marshall, and it will be backed by experience.—Atchison Globe.

Keep an eye on your enemies, but keep a microscope to one eye and a telescope to the other when watching your "friends."—P. P. Sherville.

AFTER SUFFERING ONE YEAR

Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Milwaukee, Wis. — "Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has made me a well woman, and I would like to tell the whole world of it. I suffered from female trouble and fearful pains in my back. I had the best doctors and they all decided that I had a tumor in addition to my female trouble, and advised an operation. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound made me a well woman and I have no more backache. I hope I can help others by telling them what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me." — Mrs. EMMA INSE, 833 First St., Milwaukee, Wis.

The above is only one of the thousands of grateful letters which are constantly being received by the Pinkham Medicine Company of Lynn, Mass., which prove beyond a doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, actually does cure these obstinate diseases of women after all other means have failed, and that every such suffering woman owes it to herself to at least give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial before submitting to an operation, or giving up hope of recovery.

Mrs. Pinkham, of Lynn, Mass., invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health and her advice is free.

MISS HATTIE LUDWIG FIRST IN WESTERN

WHILE MISS HATTIE ENGLISH LEADS IN THE EASTERN.

All Sections of the County Are Active and It Will Pay Contestants to Work.

As will be seen by reference to the list, Miss Ludwig leads in the Western section, and Miss English in the Eastern, but all precincts of the county are now showing up fine and each day the result changes in these sections.

By special arrangement, we have been enabled to increase the prizes, and now every candidate in the race will get a prize—a certificate good for $25 as a cash payment on any piano bought from the A. R. Harper Piano Company, of Jacksonville. In addition to this, they will give to the first five following the leader in each section of the county a certificate good for $100, and this can be applied as a payment in the same manner. This means that you can purchase any piano you want and use this as a cash payment and make arrangements for deferred payments. The same instrument that is now being given away can be purchased for the certificate and $225, so it will pay you to be among the first five following the leader.

Weekly clubs are still coming, but we urge the candidates to work among their friends while their time is unoccupied—it will prove profitable for them.

Following is the standing of the candidates as a result of the count yesterday:

GRADUATING EXERCISES OF STATE UNIVERSITY

Dr. Jas. H. Dillard the Speaker of Occasion---Degrees and Medals Awarded.

The final exercises of the University commencement began at 10 a. m. Tuesday in the High School Auditorium. This hall had been tastefully decorated with bunting in the college colors and with palms from the Experiment Station.

At the rear of the stage sat the members of the Board of Control, President Sledd, President-elect Murphree, Dr. Conrad, Dr. Curry and Dr. Dillard. To their right were the members of the University faculty, and to their left the graduates of the year.

After the invocation by Dr. Curry, the president stated that the two men in the graduating class whose grades were the best were awarded first and second honors, respectively, and that the salutatory would be delivered by the second honor, the valedictory by the first honor man. He then introduced Mr. F. T. Wilson as the second honor man.

Mr. Wilson expressed very gracefully the appreciation of the graduating class of the many courtesies and kindnesses that had been extended to them by the citizens of Gainesville. He thanked the large audience for the interest they were taking in the graduating exercises, and hoped that the spirit of joy and of gladness permeating the young men who had reached the first mile-post in their career would extend to all present.

Dr. Dillard's Address.

The president, at the conclusion of this address, in a few well-chosen words introduced the speaker of the occasion, Dr. James Hardy Dillard, formerly a very distinguished professor of Tulane University, New Orleans, today the representative of the Jeanes Fund.

Dr. Dillard began with some well-phrased compliments to the beautiful city of Gainesville. Coming to the city had recalled his first trip to Southern California. He had been crossing the dreary wastes of the desert, when suddenly the beautiful scenery rose before him. It was because of the contrast almost celestial. So the night before he was delighted with the magnificent trees and fine residences of Gainesville after the ride on the fast express from Sampson City.

The future of the commonwealth, he continued, nay of the whole republic, depended upon the young men like those before him now being graduated at the colleges throughout the land. Since the beginning of democratic government there has been a tremendous need of men who would take an interest in politics without seeking preferment. A man must value his cause more highly than his personal gain.

No one can look twenty-five years ahead and feel sure of the continuance of democratic government. As we of the South once attempted to destroy the Union, it may fall to our lot in future to preserve the Union by maintaining the principles upon which it was founded.

Concentration of wealth has always caused political disturbance, and in restoring order there may be a destruction of personal liberty and of the political hopes of centuries.

He then gave a masterly sketch of the conditions existing in Rome during the last hundred years of the republic. He told of the several martyrs who had been slain because of their efforts in behalf of the common people. He showed how tragically the one man who fully understood the conditions had been instrumental in bringing about the establishment of an absolute government; how Julius Caesar, an aristocrat by birth, a populist in principle, had in the defense of the liberty and rights of the people found it necessary to use methods which finally led to absolutism. Had he lived fifty years he might have saved the republic; as it was he helped on its decline.

In the same way insidious enemies were attacking our republican institutions. Attacked in time it was possible to overcome them. But if these enemies be allowed full sway for a period of years, the very friends of the people might by their efforts advance aristocratic rule. We should count the cost of every gain for the people.

In particular he besought his hearers to study the questions arising from the conflict between aristocratic and democratic views. Let them oppose themselves to all attempts of individuals to gain special privileges. And above all at present let them study the workings of protective tariffs, which he believed was productive of many of the evils now existing in the land.

A second principle that ought to be manfully sustained was that of Home Rule--home rule for the community, for the county, for the State. In special privileges, home rule, these would help to preserve our democratic government.

In conclusion he urged the importance of one sentiment, idealism. Let the young men form high ideals in politics, and, regardless of consequences, strive valiantly to enforce the workings of these ideals. Thus would democratic principles be maintained. Let us rise above party, let us frown upon all schemes of graft, of political corruption; let us strive for the interests of the common people, of the whole country. In doing so, let us count the cost and use means that will not ultimately bring in a train of evil results. Let us profit by the last hundred years of Rome.

President Sledd Awards Degrees.

Wolfe's Orchestra then gave a pleasing selection. After this President Sledd awarded the following degrees: B. A. upon W. B. Martin and Raymond Kay; B. Sc. in civil engineering upon W. W. Gibbs; B. Sc. in electrical engineering upon Geo. B. Ames, Ralph Chapin, Charles Larsen, Hadley Taylor; B. Sc. in agriculture upon F. T. Wilson.

The highest degree conferred by the University was then awarded: M. Sc. in chemistry upon R. N. Wilson; M. Sc. in agriculture upon R. Y. Winters.

Dr. Sledd feelingly addressed the graduates, the first class to take a four-years' course in the University of the State of Florida. He prayed that it might be said of each of them, as it has been said of Gordon, "God above knows where he is, but wherever he may be, he is doing his duty."

Vice-President Farr.

Vice-President Farr then arose and at the close of a graceful tribute to Dr. Sledd, announced that the University had conferred upon him the honorary degree of D. D. This was the first honor degree conferred in the history of the institution, and this was conferred although both the Board of Control and the faculty are on record as being opposed to granting honorary degrees except in the most rare and exceptional circumstances. Dr. Sledd, although greatly surprised, made a very fitting response.

Awarding of Medals.

The awarding of medals followed: The Freshman-Sophomore medal for Declamation to H. G. Glazier, of the Sophomore Class; the Junior medal for oratory to W. D. Rader; the Senior medal for Oratory to W. B. Martin. The Buckman medal, which is conferred upon the student making the best average in any class of the Engineering Department, was awarded to W. W. Gibbs, of the Senior Class, with honorable mention of students Felton and Hadley Taylor.

Three medals were awarded by the Military Department: for the best drilled man to J. H. Vidal, for the best marksman to W. W. Gibbs, second marksman, Charles Larsen. There was only point difference in the scores made by Messrs. Gibbs and Larsen.

The medal offered by the Mildred Lee Chapter, U. D. C., to the student writing the best essay on an assigned subject was won by B. G. Langston with an essay on "The Causes of the Civil War."

The medal offered by the U. D. C. of the State was won by P. S. May. This medal is open to all colleges in the State, and has been awarded five times. The University has competed for it four times and has won it three times.

Tokens of Affection.

Mr. Bryan then happily presented a gold-headed cane, the gift of the faculty as a token of affection and esteem, to Dr. Sledd. The recipient was much moved and thanked the donors most fittingly.

Dr. Crow, as the spokesman of the faculty, presented a set of books to Dr. Yocum as an expression of their admiration and affection and regret at his retiring from the University. Dr. Yocum's response was gracefully made.

With a well-written valedictory, the first honor man, A. Hadley Taylor, Jr., then, on behalf of the graduating class, took formal farewell of the citizens of Gainesville, of the Board of Control, of Dr. Sledd, of the faculty, of the student body, and finally of the members of the class of 1908-09.

Dr. Murphree was then introduced as the President-Elect of the University, and expressed his regard and affection for the out-going President, Dr. Sledd.

The audience was dismissed with the benediction by Dr. A. B. Curry, of Memphis.

HOUSE PASSED COUNTY UNIFORMITY 36 TO 26

Bill Had Been Previously Killed, But Was Reconsidered---Senate's Long Session.

TALLAHASSEE, May 26.--Things happened in the House yesterday, when, following a change in sentiment, the Duke county uniformity of school text-books bill was taken up on reconsideration of the vote by which it was recently killed and was passed by a vote of 36 to 26.

The next important action came with the passage to third reading of the Cash primary bill, which provides among other things for disfranchisement for an extended time of persons guilty of bribery in elections.

The House devoted the afternoon and night to the consideration of the general revenue bill. This was taken up informally in the committee of the whole and much discussion was evoked.

Representative Davis offered an amendment prohibiting the sale of liquors by licensed dealers in amounts of less than half a pint at a time. This was killed, but not until it had been warmly fought.

THE SENATE.

Consideration of the Broome bill relating to the liability of railway companies having relief departments occupied nearly the entire time of the Senate. Some very lively discussions were aroused at times. The consideration of the bill will be resumed today.

The Stokes loan shark bill was passed to third reading.

Following several days of most strained conditions the Senate last night, under the leadership of the so-called anti-corporation element, held the alleged corporationists down to what proved almost an all-night session.

For several days it has been noised about that the so-called corporationists are endeavoring to block all legislation by dilatory tactics in order to prevent certain measures coming to a vote. This caused resentment and last night a caucus was held, when it was decided to apply the water cure.

A night session was held and when a motion to adjourn was made at 10 o'clock it was promptly voted down. Repeated motions were turned down and the minority then discovered that they were up against something.

The chair then ruled that motions could not be in order until business has been transacted.

Following this the Senate settled down to the calendar and after a measure was acted upon a motion to adjourn was made, the roll call was demanded and the motion to adjourn voted down.

Senate Bill No. 316 by Mr. McCreary, prescribing method of serving process upon non-resident copartners having an office or conducting a business in Florida, was advanced to third reading, as was also House Bill No. 403, by Mr. Duke of Alachua, to encourage establishment and maintenance of unenclosed game preserves for certain birds and other game.

MELROSE NOTES.

MELROSE, May 26.--Mrs. M. J. Barnett entertained quite a party of Hawthorn friends on Saturday, consisting of Mrs. W. S. Moore, Mrs. M. Hulme, Mrs. D. Hulme, Mrs. Harry Barnett, Miss M. Burkstresser and Leo Johnson.

W. H. Lee and Mrs. Lee have gone to Lake City to attend the commencement exercises at Columbia College. Their son, Stetson Lee, will return with them.

Miss E. Ricks of Highland was the guest of Miss L. Mack for the week-end.

The many friends of H. Barnett extend their regrets at the loss by fire of his store on Sunday night at Hawthorn.

Situation in Georgia Railroad Strike Unchanged

ATLANTA, May 26.--A settlement by arbitration should not be difficult so far as the Georgia Railroad strikers' demands are concerned, Vice-President Ball of the firemen's organization said yesterday, because the firemen are not trying to exact a hard and fast settlement. They struck because ten white firemen were replaced by negro firemen. The railroad officials declare that the negroes were put in these positions as rewards for faithful service, and that they are within their legal rights in such action. Upon this one crucial point of the controversy there has as yet been no sign of agreement. The directors of the road, the general manager and other officials were in almost continual conference yesterday, and it was reported that some of the directors strongly favored Governor Smith's proposition for each side to select three Georgians as arbiters.

Mr. Scott would not say whether this offer would be accepted. The directors include men with local business interests, which are liable to be affected unfavorably by a long tie-up.

Hand cars, automobiles and inter-urban cars made little impression upon the 3,000 pounds of delayed mails in the Atlanta postoffice. Here and there in the strike districts a rural postmaster shouldered a sack of outgoing mail, and after hours of hard work riding and walking managed to reach a railroad station not affected by the strike. Reports were current that the Federal courts might interfere and place guards on trains in order to get the mails through. No such action, however, developed locally. The strikers have announced that they are willing to fire engines to carry mails, but that such engines must carry mails only and not passengers.

Jordan Named as Next Mayor of Jacksonville

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., May 26.--William S. Jordan was yesterday named Mayor of Jacksonville, winning out over W. H. Sebring, the present holder of the office, by a majority of 334 votes.

It was an unusually quiet election and but little activity was seen around the polling places. The friends of the two candidates worked quietly and the result is no surprise, it being conceded during the day that Jordan would win the office.

J. B. Dodge was defeated for controller by L. T. Gregory, and E. P. Douglass, the present city marshal, was defeated by E. H. Haddock. A. O. Wright was named to succeed himself as judge of the municipal court.

There is more catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address, F. J. Caused Much Excitement.

An explosion of an old empty barrel caused a great deal of excitement Monday afternoon at 2:30 in the rear of the drug store of W. M. Johnson. He had emptied an old alcohol barrel some two weeks since, and his delivery boy, just to amuse himself, dropped a lighted match in the "bung hole" of the barrel. And explosion followed which bursted the head out and sent it flying to the roof, besides shaking things around the store considerably. It is supposed that gas had formed from the alcohol and caused the combustion.

WORKING FOR MAIN LINE A. C. L. RAILWAY

MICANOPY CITIZENS IN TALLAHASSEE AGITATING MATTER.

From Tuesday's Daily Sun:

Micanopy citizens want to be placed on the main line of the A. C. L. railway and with this end in view have sent a delegation to Tallahassee to work up the matter and thoroughly agitate it before the Legislature and the Railroad Commission.

The committee sent to the State capital comprises Dr. H. L. Montgomery, Dr. J. D. Watkins, C. E. Melton and Mr. Hyde. It is understood that they will furnish the right-of-way for this proposed new route and will also assist the railway people otherwise in making the changes which will give them a new and improved service.

It is also claimed that the new route will shorten the distance to the south over five miles, which would be another advantage to the railroad.

The amount of money that would be required to construct the new roadway is not mentioned and just what they propose to do along this line is not known, but for the good of a fast-growing place we trust that they will receive the consideration that they deserve and a much better service than they are at present enjoying.

STATE HORTICULTURAL SOCIETY

Officers for Ensuing Year Elected at the Daytona Meeting.

The Florida Horticultural Society, which was in session at Daytona last week, elected its officers as follows: Prof. H. Harold Hume of Glen St. Mary was placed in nomination for president, and being the only nominee, the unanimous vote of the house was cast for him as president.

Nominations then being in order, successively, for first, second and third vice-presidents, the following nominees were elected by a unanimous vote: First Vice-President, W. C. Temper, Winter Park; Second Vice-President, H. B. Stevens, DeLand; Third Vice-President, B. F. Chilton, New Smyrna, all of whom expressed surprise at their election, but pledged their best efforts for the society.

E. O. Painter of Jacksonville was unanimously re-elected secretary.

W. S. Hart of Hawks Park was re-elected to the office of treasurer.

The following executive committee was elected by ballot: Prof. P. H. Rolfs of Gainesville, G. L. Taber of Glen St. Mary, and E. S. Hubbard of Federal Point.

Quite a delegation from Gainesville attended the meeting.

Orlando was chosen as the next meeting place.

A Half-Holiday.

The big store of the G. W. Hyde Co. comes boldly to the front and makes the initiative move again this season, following the custom they inaugurated two years ago, of giving to their employees a half day's holiday each Thursday afternoon during the summer months. This is now being done by all of the largest and best concerns throughout the entire country, as they feel that a half-day's rest in the middle of the week tends to better fit their employees for the rest of the week's business.

This move is considered highly commendable by the patrons of the big store and they, too, rejoice with the employees for the benefits they will derive from it.

After a heavy meal, take a couple of Doan's Regulets, and give your stomach, liver and bowels the help they will need. Regulets bring easy, regular passages of the bowels.

DR. CURRY'S SPLENDID SERMON AT TABERNACLE

LARGE CONGREGATIONS PRESENT AT BOTH SERVICES.

"Wisdom Hath Builded Her House,
She Has Hewn Out Seven Pillars," Was Subject.

Vast audiences were present Sunday morning and evening to hear the opening exercises of the University commencement. The faculty had invited Dr. Curry, of Memphis, to preach the Baccalaureate Sermon, and the members of the Student Y. M. C. A., learning that Dr. Curry was one of the most popular clergymen that had ever officiated in Gainesville, also extended to him an invitation to deliver the annual address before them. The enormous congregations proved how delighted the people of Gainesville were to have an opportunity of hearing Dr. Curry again.

Both services were held in the Tabernacle. In the morning the enormous auditorium was packed; in the evening there were but few vacant seats.

The exercises of the morning began with a chorus, "Come Into Our Hearts and Abide," well rendered by the young ladies of the Gainesville High School. This chorus did credit to the teaching of Miss Titman, of the High School. The violin obligato was by Prof. Voltz. The invocation was by Dr. Sledd, after which the quartet and chorus choir, with Miss Fennell at the piano, led the congregation in singing "Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God Almighty." Dr. Curry then read selections from the eleventh chapter of the Epistle to the Hebrews, and from the third chapter of Proverbs. After the prayer which followed the reading of the Scripture, the High School chorus sang an exquisite response. This was followed by a tenor solo well rendered by Mr. Maddox. After this the congregation and choir sang "Come, Thou Almighty King." Announcements of the other commencement exercises were then made by Dr. Sledd, after which he introduced Dr. A. B. Curry.

Dr. Curry, after expressing his pleasure at seeing so many of his old friends, took as his text the first verse from the ninth chapter of Proverbs: "Wisdom hath builded her house, she has hewn out her seven pillars." He drew a clear and epigrammatic distinction between wisdom and knowledge. A man may be full of knowledge and yet have no wisdom; he may be learned, and yet unwise. Knowledge is of man, wisdom comes from God. Knowledge is but the acquisition of facts, wisdom is the ability to apply facts. Wisdom is the power to discern the best ends and apply the best means to attain them. It is one of the most precious and valuable gifts of God; its force is above riches, and its gain above silver and gold. If men rightly understood the value of wisdom, they would make greater efforts to attain it than to acquire the wealth of this world.

Then the speaker gave a vivid description of the structure of an Oriental house with its supporting pillars and interior court. This building to be perfect and fit for the use of mankind must be strong and beautiful. In the figurative language of the East, seven is a perfect number, and the seven pillars of the building show that it is perfect.

Then, with apt scriptural quotations, he drew a likeness between men and a building: "Know ye not ye are the temple of God." "When man is right, when his character is rightly constructed, he is the noblest building in creation, far surpassing Solomon's temple and the Temple of Dana of Ephesus. And it is true of some men that wisdom has built in them. I want you to study the characters of the good man, the seven-pillar man.

"The first of these pillars is Physical Perfection. No man is independent of his body and although many great men have been weak physically, their greatness was in spite of this." With many illustrations the preacher showed what influence an engaging physical appearance had had in the careers of many of the world's leaders. Strong, comely, graceful, beautiful bodies are a God-given source of power. This is warrant enough for college athletics. As far as athletics develops a man, it is not only allowable but necessary.

"The second pillar is Intelligence. A man may be physically perfect and yet nothing more than a powerful brute. One may be great in spite of a weak body, but one cannot be great with weak intelligence, and although a man without education may accomplish much, with education he will accomplish more. Of the men mentioned in "Who's Who?" only two-fifths of one per cent were absolutely self-made; only ten per cent had merely a common school education; sixteen per cent had a high school course; seventy-four per cent were college-bred. According to this a college education increases a high school boy's chance of success nine times, the chances of a boy with a common school training two hundred and nineteen times, of an illiterate boy eight hundred times. This shows the value of a college training in increasing the efficiency and happiness of its students. I charge you to recognize one of wisdom's necessary pillars.

"The third pillar is Virtue. The first two pillars increase a man's power, but they may increase it for evil, they may make him a curse to society." The lives of Joseph, of Solomon, of Asaph, of Aaron Burr, of Charles S. Parnell, were alluded to in order to show how necessary this pillar is in building the house. To be truly successful, to accomplish good, to build a house strong and beautiful, the pillar of virtue is essential; otherwise the building will go down in shame.

"The fourth pillar is Resolution or Will-power. Without this a man is like a rudderless boat; with it he is like a great Atlantic liner safely making the destined port. The greatest trouble with many young men is that they lack a clear-cut purpose, and have no aim in life but the pursuit of pleasure. They build houses without a plan, they sail vessels without a chart or course. Form a purpose, then bring in your will-power.

"The fifth pillar is Hope. This is one of the greatest factors in a man's success; without it continued effort is impossible. A man can fight for a forlorn hope, but there must be hope of some kind. Hell is Hell, because over its main portal is written, 'Let him who enters here leave Hope behind.' Lack of hope paralyzes all human effort; all great achievements have hope as their guiding star. Do not be pessimistic, do not lose hope; be optimistic. Do not look at the hole in the doughnut—look at the encircling ring.

The sixth pillar is Love for our Fellow-Men. Without this no character is strong or beautiful. The greatest of African explorers was David Livingstone. His purpose was not to increase British territory, not to exploit the resources of the country, not to hurt or seek adventure; his motive was love, he was seeking to heal the open sore of the world."

Dr. Curry here introduced a striking contrast between George Washington and Napoleon Bonaparte: the one prompted by selfish ambition, the other moved by tender, unselfish patriotism and disinterested love for the American people. We cannot rise to the greatest heights without this love. The human greatness of Jesus of Nazareth was due to his love for the common people.

"The seventh pillar is Faith in God. This brings man into contact with the source of all good. This

CLOSING EXERCISES OF THE NEWBERRY SCHOOL

Institution Has Accomplished Good Work, and Prof. Kean Will Be Asked to Remain.

The closing exercises of the Newberry High School took place on Thursday and Friday of last week. It was an old-fashioned "school exhibition." The school auditorium could not hold the audience, and a large brush arbor and stage was built on the outside. The pupils all acquitted themselves in a creditable manner.

Both evenings were taken up with drills, pantomimes and comedies. The last number on Friday evening was "From Pumpkin Swamp," which, in all of its thirty years' presentation at school entertainments, has never been better presented than by the school pupils of Newberry.

This has been one of the most successful years in the history of the Newberry school. The school has been raised from a rural graded school to a junior high school, the enrollment has made a gain of twenty-five per cent and the average attendance has increased proportionately. A large petition has been circulated, with not only the names of the patrons but a number of the most influential citizens of the town, requesting Prof. A. D. Kean, the principal of the school, to remain another year.

will regulate all his other good qualities; this will bring him into harmony with God. No creature can ignore his creator and success—in the end he must fail. No man is truly great until linked through faith to the eternal God. What have men of no faith accomplished? Nothing! There is not one single government founded on atheism; it takes men of faith to found a government. Moses, Isaiah, David, Augustine, Columbanus, Calvin, Knox, Luther, Cromwell, Lee, Jackson—all these were men of faith. Faith alone makes men able to bring things to pass.

Then the speaker introduced a sharp contrast of the great Duke of Marlborough with John Wesley. Today the latter has 13,000,000 followers, and many millions more are ready to do him reverence.

"Emerson wrote 'Hitch your wagon to a star.' I say 'Hitch your wagon to the throne of God through a living faith. May Wisdom's house be your house, perfect in strength and beauty."

The congregation then sang "Nearer, My God, to Thee," and was dismissed by Dr. Curry with the benediction.

PEACH MOVEMENT.

Orchards from This County Now Shipping Fancy Fruit.

From Tuesday's Daily Sun: The Gainesville Peach Orchard Company is now shipping peaches from their grove located only a few miles west of Gainesville and will in a few days more be shipping in car lots.

Besides the movement of peaches from this handsome and extensive farm there are a number of orchards located near Newberry that are also picking fruit and forwarding to the Northern markets.

A Living Skeleton

Is the final condition of any child that has worms—if it lives. Think of having something in your stomach that eats all you take as nourishment. Nine-tenths of the babies have worms—maybe yours has. Be certain that it has not by giving it White's Cream Vermifuge—it expels all worms and is a tonic for the baby. Price 25 cents. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

Positive Reasons.

BRYAN'S TRIBUTE.

Apropos of the recent observance of Mother's Day, says The Tampa Tribune, we recall an eloquent tribute which was delivered by William J. Bryan at Fredericksburg, Va., during the famous campaign of 1896 to the mother of Washington. Said the noted orator:

"Fredericksburg is not a large city and yet it is rich in incidents of great historic value. Here the women of America have reared a monument to Mary, the mother of Washington. I am glad to stand on this spot; I am glad to feel the influences which surround her grave. In a campaign, especially in a campaign like this, there is much of bitterness, and sometimes of abuse, spoken against the candidates for public office, but, my friends, there is one character, the mother—a candidate for the affections of all mankind—against whom no true man ever uttered a word of abuse. There is one name, mother, which is never found upon the tongue of the slanderer—in her presence all criticism is silenced. The painter has, with his brush, transferred the landscape to the canvas with such fidelity that the trees and grasses seem almost real; he has even made the face of a maiden seem instinct with life, but there is one picture so beautiful that no painter has ever been able to perfectly reproduce it, and that is the picture of the mother holding in her arms her babe. Within the shadow of this monument, reared to the memory of each one of us, I bow in humble reverence to motherhood."

FINISHING WELL.

This is the time when in most places schools are closing for the summer vacation, and the "commencements" of schools and colleges are a reminder that thousands of young people are being graduated to enter upon their life work.

To many young people there comes the temptation in the last year of school to let up a little on their studies because of the feeling that as the end is so near it does not matter. For more than one reason this is a mistaken idea. The last year's work should be the fitting crown of the work of previous years. Then, too, the last year in school is to be considered in its relation to the future. In most cases a young man passes directly from school to his life work.

As the word "commencement" indicates, his life is not closing when he leaves school. It is really opening before him with all its possibilities, and if fullest success is to attend that life he must be adequately equipped. This means that the young person must finish well at school in order to commence well and continue well in the business or profession which he enters. It is not slipshod but thorough work that wins.

STATE PRESS COMMENT.

The Tampa Tribune says: "Mr. Bryan says Frank Clark ought to have sense enough to quit; but Frank would have a hard time borrowing any of that particular brand of sense from W. J."

The Southern Argus says: "The refusal of the Legislature to re-appportion the State in obedience to the constitution and in compliance with their oaths is a blot upon the records of that body."

The Pensacola News says: "The White Springs Herald does not believe that a man who is going to another world would like to go by Jacksonville on his way, but it is a fact that people have been known to go to Joyous Jacksonville and get away sober."

The Pensacola Journal says: "There were three arrests and convictions in Gainesville last week for cruelty to dumb animals. A good work. It should be kept up until every human brute gains at least the faithfulness and patience of the poor beast he delights in torturing."

The Times-Union "Short Talks" says: "The wicked Florida editors are making much of the story that a burglar who ransacked a Tampa residence left only a lady's bathing suit. But burglars can't be expected to think of every little thing.—Tampa Tribune." Of course not; and burglars are not expected to carry microscopes around with them as if they were bugologists."

One Dose for Coughs

Children cough at night? Give them Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Often a single dose at bedtime will completely control the cough. Good for any one with a cold or cough. Good for easy cases, hard cases; good for acute cases, chronic cases. Ask your doctor to tell you, honestly and frankly, just what he thinks of this old standard remedy. LEGISLATURE DISPOSED OF MUCH BUSINESS

TALLAHASSEE, May 25.—With the starting on foot of a mild investigation, the killing of the Bynum State printing plant bill and the passage of the Taylor State guaranty of bank deposits measure, the House put in a busy session yesterday. A number of other measures were acted upon.

Representative Kelley of Baker defended the State guaranty of bank deposits measure. It was passed by a vote of 21 to 28.

Mr. Hardee introduced resolution to send a committee of three to the Western Union office to see if any of the members of the House have been sending "deadhead" messages, and to make report of same to the House. Adopted.

Resolution by Mr. Mahaffey—to allow no member to speak more than five minutes except the introducer of the bill or resolution. Amendment adopted, striking out "except the introducer." Resolution was adopted.

Bills on Third Reading. House Bill No. 608, by Mr. Newton—Regulating the list of pension receivers and creating a State Board of Pensions.

Amendment by Mr. Wells: "Any person, who enlisted in this State and served actively for six months, shall receive the benefits of this act." Lost.

Amendment adopted by Mr. Blanton to include the value of pensioner's wife's property for assessment. Many amendments lost and ruled out of order.

Amendment adopted to employ a clerk instead of having the work of the board performed by Comptroller's clerks. The bill passed by a vote of 41 to 16.

Mr. Kelly moved for reconsideration today. In the vote on the pension bill, Hon. James E. Alexander asked that an explanation of his vote be recorded as follows:

"I vote no and in explanation of my vote will say, as a son of a Confederate soldier, I will never vote for any bill or measure that will deny a liberal and just pension to an old Confederate soldier or his widow—or for any bill or measure that will require an old Confederate soldier to make an affidavit that he is a pauper before receiving said pension. As I consider this bill unjust to the old Confederate soldiers and their widows, I vote no, and wish to go on record as favoring a liberal and just pension law for the old Confederate soldiers and their widows. The present bill is neither liberal or just, in my opinion."

THE SENATE.

Sixty-one bills passed to third reading, killed or withdrawn was the record made by the Senate Monday. It was the hardest grind of the session and strict business made things hustle over the calendar.

Among the most important measures killed was the House bill by Mr. Wall of Bradford, which provides for the reimbursing of parties losing property or cash by theft.

An important measure introduced was the Flournoy bill providing for coeducation in all the schools, colleges and universities of the State.

Among other bills passed to third reading were: The Cook joint resolution calling for a revision of the constitution; the Hosford bill creating a State forestry commission, and providing for the conservation of the forest resources of the State; and the Humphries bill allowing the Board of Commissioners of State Institutions to sell or lease phosphate beds lying in the waters owned by the State.

The Senate passed to third reading a bill which was amended to allow sheriffs to accept passes, but it killed an amendment offered by Senator Humphries to include newspaper men. Senator Humphries held that it is a reflection upon the newspaper men of the State to say that they would be influenced by free transportation.

Senate Bill No. 368, by Mr. McCreary, relating to the division of counties into road districts, was advanced to third reading.

Live Oak Man Nabbed as He Set Building Ablaze

LIVE OAK, May 24.—Early yesterday morning a man named Goff was arrested in his meat market which is charged he set afire. The store is in a building on Ohio avenue. Late Saturday evening he was found by officers at the building, and told them he was watching his building in the fear that a negro boy who was in his employ intended to set it afire. The officers sent him toward home, telling him that they would watch. Later, they assert, Goff returned, and the night marshal and two other men say they saw him as he went into his store, and hiding outside watched him when he poured kerosene about in the building, and struck a match to it.

As he came out of the building he was arrested and placed in jail. Goff begged the officers to shoot him. The building was saved from total destruction by the fire department.

Lynchers Hang Man as Warning to Negroes

LINCOLNTON, Ga., May 25.—Early yesterday Albert Aiken, a negro, was taken from the Lincoln county jail here and swung to a tree at Dry Fork creek, three miles from Lincoln. The body was filled with bullets. Upon the body was pinned this placard:

"Notice—This is what will happen to all negroes in Lincoln county under similar circumstances.

(Signed) "REGULATORS." Aiken cut John Spires, a white

farmer, Thursday morning. Spires' condition grew worse and he is now reported dying. The white people in Lincoln say that negro secret societies are being formed for illegal acts and the inference is that by the lynching it is hoped to awe the negroes.

THE GOVERNOR'S MESSAGE.

On Friday last Governor Gilchrist sent a special message to the Legislature on the Wallis claim. In the opinion of The Index, there was no special reason for sending in a message on this subject at this time, as both branches of the Legislature had previously declined to favorably consider the Wallis claim.

But the Governor's message, which covered fifteen pages of closely typewritten legal-cap sheets, offered little if anything new in regard to the history or merits of the claim. An explanation as to why he thought the $25,000 appropriated six years ago, and a suggestion as to a division between Wallis and Beard, were included in the message; but these, too, are intangible.

In another message to the Senate on Monday, the Governor, in referring to the Wallis claim message, stated that certain newspapers of the State had intimated, directly or indirectly, that the Legislature had repudiated the State's solemn obligation and that, in order to have the people know that the honor of the State is protected, he had sent copies of the message to these newspapers for publication, but so far they had refused to do so.

The Governor, in the opinion of The Index, cannot consistently feel aggrieved because this message has not been printed. Its contents would fill the columns of the average weekly paper, to the utter exclusion of all other matter, and the larger papers, with sufficient space to carry the message, might easily be forgiven for devoting their columns to real, live news matter. Besides, those newspapers that have taken the time and trouble to examine into the merits of the Wallis claim, may be pardoned for entertaining views different from those expressed in the Governor's message, especially after considering the able and exhaustive report submitted by the Senate Committee of 1902, and reported to the Senate over the signature of "W. A. Blount, Acting Chairman."

So far as The Index knows, the present Legislature has not been charged with repudiating the obligations of the State, but it cannot be denied that as long as Colonel Wallis is denied the right to have his claim adjudicated by the courts of the State the conclusion is inevitably forced upon The Index, and other newspapers of the State, and the people of Florida generally, that the Legislature, though not repudiating the claim, is creating a condition with similar results.

No better argument has been offered in support of the effort of Colonel Wallis' friends to get this claim into the courts of the State than is contained in the Governor's message itself. This document, from the beginning to end, is a mass of acts, contracts, resolutions, accounts, opinions, guesses, conclusions and other more mystifying and confusing matter that positively and forever precludes the average legislator—for no other reason than lack of time to study law and history—from mastering the details of the claim, that a reasonable and just conclusion might be reached.

The Index having been one of the Governor's most ardent supporters in the last campaign, and feeling that its editor can still claim the right to be his friend, writes this in explanation and defense of the country press of Florida, those papers which were his strongest supporters when he needed them, and which do not deserve his censure.—Lake City Index, May 21.

The Kissimmee Valley Gazette makes the following suggestion: "The time draws near when the few remaining heroes of the Lost Cause will once more assemble in annual reunion, this time in Memphis, Tenn. The railroads could do no more generous an act than to grant them rates of one dollar for the round trip from any part of the United States. There are few left to take advantage of the railroads' generosity, and it will be but a short time until they are only sacred memories. Let us make the time yet allotted them as peaceful and happy as possible—not wait until they are dead and then build monuments extolling their bravery and virtues."

The Georgia papers announce that Senators Bacon and Clay are together on all tariff items except lumber. Surely there must be some way to bridge over this difference, or gang plank it over, or something.

MEMORIAL SERVICE OF G. A. R. SUNDAY

SERMON TO BE DELIVERED AT FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH.

In compliance with the annual custom of the association, on next Sunday morning, May 30th, there will be a memorial service held at the First Baptist church at 10:30 o'clock. The sermon will be delivered by the celebrated divine, Rev. I. Jno. E. Barnard of Cartersville, Ga., assisted in the pulpit by Rev. S. B. Rogers.

Dr. Barnard, who has accepted the invitation to deliver this sermon, is one of the most talented and finest orators of the Southern Baptist Church, one whom it will be a treat to hear, and this fact alone will serve to call out many.

Invitations of the most cordial nature have been extended the local Camp of Confederate Veterans, the two chapters of the Daughters of the Confederacy, the Blue and the Gray, the Spanish-American War veterans, the Patriotic Order Sons of America, and the general public to attend this service.

The battalion of the various organizations will assemble at the Post Headquarters in the Dutton building and headed by the Gainesville Brass Band, who have generously offered their services, with Company "H" of the Second Regiment, Florida State Troops, acting as an escort of honor, will proceed to the church, returning in the same order. The usual choir of the church will be augmented by special music arranged by Col. I. E. Webster.

On the following day, Monday, May 31st, services will be held at the cemetery and the graves of all the departed veterans of both the Blue and the Gray will be decorated with flowers. In addition to the usual ritualistic service on this occasion, there will be an address delivered by the talented young lawyer, Col. W. E. Baker, the reading of President Lincoln's address at Gettysburg and special music by selected singers under the leadership of Col. I. E. Webster.

Carriages will be in waiting on the north side of the square at 9 o'clock for any Confederate Veterans, Daughters of Confederacy and any others who desire to attend the ceremonies and hear the address of Col. Baker. Those fortunate enough to have flowers are requested to make a donation for the decoration of the soldiers' graves.

The Grand Army of Florida, at the present time, under Department Commander General James Skinner of Archer and his able staff, are in a flourishing condition and doing much to inculcate the principles of fraternity, charity and loyalty among the Blue and Gray veterans who are still with us.

Attention, Stonewall Camp.

The Stonewall Camp of Confederate Veterans is invited by the Lew Wallace Post, G. A. R., to join it in its memorial service to be held at the First Baptist church in this city at 10:30 o'clock on next Sunday morning; and also invited to accompany such Post on the next day to the cemetery to decorate the graves of all the soldiers buried there. Carriages will be in waiting on the north side of the square for the members of Stonewall Camp who will go to the cemetery.

As many as can should accept the invitation.

Commander.

A Birthday Greeting.

On Saturday, the 23rd, a host of friends and relatives enjoyed a delightful dinner at the home of I. C. Manning given by the Manning brothers in honor of their aged mother's seventy-ninth birthday. Three sons and one daughter, friends and relatives, sixty in number, were present to partake of the toothsome dinner and delicious ice cream that was spread under the shade trees in the yard, where it was more pleasant for the crowd.

Elder J. T. Johnson preached a very interesting sermon for the occasion, concluding with the hymn, "Jesus, Lover of My Soul." May God bless the sons and daughters with the presence of their devoted mother many more birthdays. They show by their kind deeds that they have not forgotten the kind care of a mother.

A FRIEND.

AN AKRON MAN.

MR. WILLIAM F. STEESE.

Mr. William F. Steese, 701 Coburn St., Akron, Ohio, writes:

"I have been troubled for several years with catarrh of the stomach. I have used different patent medicines to no effect whatever, and have doctored considerable with family doctor.

"Sometimes his treatment would relieve me for a few weeks, but would eventually have to go back to him, and that had kept up for several years.

"I was advised to use Peruna, and have taken three bottles. Never felt so good in my life. Am going to continue using it. Wouldn't be without it in the house. I will gladly recommend it to any one afflicted with catarrh of stomach, or stomach trouble of any kind."

The above is an oft-repeated story. Troubled for years with chronic catarrh. Tried different remedies and doctors to no avail. Peruna was advised by friends. Instant relief experienced. Great gratitude to Peruna expressed. This, in brief, is a story that is repeated to us a great many times every year.

No one could be in touch with our vast correspondence for one month without being impressed with the sincerity and truthfulness of these kind of testimonials.

Peruna promptly produces an appetite, corrects digestion and relieves stomach difficulties that have resisted other treatment.

MAULTSBY AGAIN LOST HEAVILY BY FIRE

LARGE AND COMMODIOUS BARN
DESTROYED MONDAY NIGHT.

News was received here yesterday of another destructive fire at Campville which totally destroyed the barn and all contents of the Campville Brick Company.

It has been only a few weeks since the immense brick plant of this concern was destroyed by fire, and it seems as if luck has struck them in rather a hard way, for the total loss on the two fires will reach into several thousand dollars.

The loss of the barn, which was a large and commodious two-story building, will probably be about $2,000, with no insurance. The building contained all of the harness and wagons used by the company and had just been stocked with all of the oat yield made by Mr. Maultsby, besides a solid carload of hay had just been placed in the building.

The first known of the blaze was about 10 o'clock on Monday night when a darkey who lives only a short distance from the place was awakened by the cracking noise of the fire and upon investigation it was found that the entire top of the building was in a blaze.

He at once went to the place and by hard work and with some assistance managed to drive the seventeen head of mules from the pen in the building and save them, but within a short while it would have been impossible to enter the place at all.

How the fire originated could not be learned. There was no insurance on the building, and the loss is a total one to Mr. Maultsby.

UNIVERSITY WORK COMMENCES MONDAY

EDDINS MFG. COMPANY SECURE
CONTRACT FOR FINISHING.

Work of remodeling and completing the University buildings will commence at once, the contract for the needed improvements having already been awarded.

The successful bidders on this work was the Eddins Manufacturing Company of this city, and they will put a force of men upon the buildings by the first of the coming week and complete those already erected at the University grounds.

This contract provides for the completion of Buckman Hall and it will require a number of weeks to complete the contract. Besides the carpenter work, the entire building is to be painted and stained on the inside, which will add very materially to the attractiveness of the present quarters.

Thomas Hall is also to be repaired and finished up in first-class style. Cement floors are to be placed in the bath rooms, the walls are to be replastered and in all the entire building will be overhauled where it is found necessary.

This is only the first step taken by the Board of Control in better equipping and arranging for the comfort of the students that attend the University, and it is believed that work will commence on the other large buildings before the end of the summer.

With this work started, the Federal building now in progress and a score or more residences being worked upon, shows that business is good in Gainesville even during the dull season, of which the merchants and people generally are very thankful.

Doings of Secret Sessions of Senate Made Known.
Williams' Oyster Bill Passed.

TALLAHASSEE, May 26.—With the discharge of L. Allen, one of the two Senate stenographers, and the request for the resignation of Assistant State Chemist R. K. Bridges, which has been received, the Senate yesterday afternoon, after a long session, adjourned, and the session which it had been keeping to itself.

While it is expected to serve a lesson to Senate members, it really was not such a terrible session as had been expected. Hours have been spent in executive session over the matter during the past few days.

From what information was given out, the two young men wrote to a brewing company in St. Louis in regard to the Houghlin bill defining intoxicating beverages as those having over two per cent of alcohol in them. The letter, it is stated, made certain offers if a named amount was deposited in a bank—at any rate the transaction looked shady to the Senate.

The letter was sent to the Jacksonville representative of the brewing company, who in turn sent it to a representative of the corporation in Tallahassee. It was turned over to Senator Dayton then, and the trouble was on. Mr. Bridges was in Jacksonville a few days ago on business and was brought up by a deputy sheriff on an attachment issued by the Senate for him as a witness.

The young men were perfectly frank when questioned by the executive session and the Senators do not believe that they fully realized just what they were doing amounted to.

It was stated by a Senator that the action taken was the least that the Senate could do in the matter, but that it was believed that under the circumstances it was punishment enough. Both young men are highly regarded by all who know them and the whole affair is regarded as unfortunate.

Senators state that no further action will be taken.

Oyster Bill Passed.

After nearly three days of the most vigilant work by Senator Williams of Cedar Key, and a discussion before the Senate for that time, that body finally passed his general oyster bill on the third reading.

The bill is most sweeping and in its amended form is expected to prove most beneficial to the industry as well as a producer of revenue for the State, if it is agreed to by the House.

Aside from making public the executive business, the chief sensation Saturday lay in the fact that not a single new bill was introduced in the body.

Child Labor Discussed.

Following an eloquent address in behalf of the Farris child labor bill by the speaker, its author, the House spent the entire afternoon upon the consideration of that measure but no conclusion had been reached by the time adjournment was taken.

Saturday morning an important bill was introduced by Cash of Taylor, relating to primary elections and intended to purify them.

The House also reconsidered and then passed the bill appropriating

$1,000 for a silver service for the late Dorothy Florida.

Many Bills Will Die.

Confronted by over six hundred bills, the Florida Legislature has only eleven more days. The session of 1939 will then pass into history and it now looks very much as if a person will be able to count on his fingers the number of general bills enacted during the stay days. Strictly speaking this week will be the last so far as ordinary legislation is concerned. The last week is always taken up almost entirely with the discussion of the general revenue and the general appropriation bills. Members are already anxiously grasping every opportunity to get their pet measures down on the list of special orders so that they will at least die an honorable death in preference to an ignominious decrease on the calendar.

Committee Return.

The various investigating committees have nearly all returned now. The one that visited the State Reform School at Marianna has reported and the others will in a few days. The one that went to the State Reform School wasn't overly pleased in every particular. So far as those in charge were concerned, the management isn't so bad, but the school is very poorly equipped and is costing the State far more than it ought to, considering what there is to show for it. The committee even suggested that if the school cannot be run under less exorbitant amounts than in the past that it would really be advisable to abolish the institution.

The Everglades drainage joint committee comes back the best pleased of the bunch. Chairman Thorp West of Marianna has always been an opponent of drainage, but he came back convinced, and the same was true of the others. By their request they were accompanied by former Governor Broward, who is perhaps more thoroughly familiar with every phase of the drainage work than any other one man. They went to Lauderdale on the East Coast canal. They went next down to Fort Myers to the Caloosahatchee.

The committee appointed to investigate the Insane Asylum at Chattahoochee has nearly completed its work. It is understood that there is really little that will be in the least sensational in the report, as conditions are understood to have been found very good.

KRAFT PAPER COMPANY NAME OF ORGANIZERS

NEW PAPER MILL NOW ASSUMING BUSINESS SHAPE.

Only a Few Weeks Before Active Steps Will Be Taken on Building.

From Wednesday's Daily:

As will be seen by the announcement in Tuesday's Sun, the Kraft Paper Company will be the title of the immense paper plant to be erected in this city, the organizers having been compelled to change the name owing to a wholesale concern in another Florida city having already adopted the name of the Florida Paper Company.

The promoters of the plan, with B. F. Williamson as manager, are now advertising for letters patent and as soon as it has been advertised a sufficient length of time, they will get busy on the complete organization. The name of "Kraft" was selected for strength, which was suggested by the very favorable report made by the United States Bureau of Standards, which stated that it was very much stronger than other makes of similar grades submitted from other material.

All of the drawings are now complete and cuts from the same are in the hands of the engraver, so within a very short while The Sun will issue a special Promoters' Edition, showing the grades of paper and also advertising Gainesville in a very substantial manner.

The matter for this publication is now being prepared and it will give in detail the reports and experiments of the Government concerning the manufacture of paper from the pine.

Besides the paper, there are by-products that will be obtained from the manufacture, such as tar, oil and turpentine.

Much advertising space has already been spoken for in this special edition of The Sun, and it is proposed to make it one of the very best editions ever turned out of this office, printing sufficient extra copies to give it wide circulation throughout the country.

HAD LOCK ARRESTED.

Henson Has Warrant Issued for Attempted Murder.

From Wednesday's Daily Sun:

W. J. Lock of Wilcox, postmaster and merchant of that place, is among the visitors to the city, having come to answer to a warrant which was issued for his arrest.

Henson, the express messenger who shot him in the hand and arm a few weeks since and who was only recently released from custody in Jacksonville and afterwards released under bond for his appearance here at the next term of court, is the man that had the warrant issued charging him with attempted murder.

This case will doubtless prove a very interesting one, and will be watched with much interest.

BOARD OF CONTROL HAD MONDAY SESSION

AUDIT AND APPROVE BILLS OF THE STATE UNIVERSITY.

Believe That Work Is Soon to Commence on the Administration and Science Buildings.

The State Board of Control held a business session here Monday at which the regular auditing of bills and other matters came up for attention.

The members present on this occasion were N. P. Bryan, Jacksonville chairman; E. L. Wartmann, Citra; P. K. Yonge, Pensacola, and Secretary Pro Tem G. E. Campbell of Tallahassee, who is acting for Secretary Kellum while he is attending to his duties at the session of the Legislature.

Besides attending the regular routine business of the board the members are here for the purpose of being present at the commencement exercises and to look over the grounds and buildings with a view to commencing operations at some time in the near future.

While the board is non-committal, it is generally believed that they will commence operations as soon as funds are available, and judging from a remark made by one of them to a Sun reporter Monday it is thought that among the first buildings constructed will be the administration and science buildings, both of which are very badly needed at the present time. This member of the committee stated that the main building of the Deaf and Dumb Institute at St. Augustine is well under way and everything is favorable for its early completion.

Following the exercises here the board will leave for Tallahassee to be present at the College for Women for the next few days.

If you want to feel well, look well and be well, take Foley's Kidney Remedy. It tones up the kidneys and bladder, purifies the blood and restores health and strength. Pleasant to take and contains no harmful drugs. Why not commence today? J. W. McCollum & Co.

ALL WHEELS STOPPED ON GEORGIA RAILROAD

Complete Tie-Up Sunday and the Striking Firemen Wait for Railroad Company to Act.

AUGUSTA, Ga., May 24.—The Georgia Railroad was completely tied up last night. The management did not try to move trains, simply announcing that it has the men, the means and the equipment to proceed and will do so when the State announces ready to protect its property and employees.

The strikers are standing pat. They assert that they have not been and will not be parties to any violence. Sympathizers with the strikers, it is set out, have done all the hurt that has been done.

General Manager Thomas K. Scott last night made the announcement that "no trains are moving." Governor Hoke Smith wired the sheriff of McDuffie county to co-operate with the municipal authorities and to summon all deputies necessary to protect life and property. It is in this county that Thomson is located and it is at Thomson that the crowd issued their ultimatum Friday night that no trains should pass carrying either non-union or negro firemen. Governor Smith has also asked the sheriff there to keep him fully advised of the situation.

Freight Shipments Hunted.

The Governor has also wired the sheriffs of Rockdale and DeKalb counties, giving them information that engineers claim to have been rocked at Conyers and Lithonia and urging upon them prompt action for the protection of the railroad's employees and property.

From the offices of the Georgia Railroad here last night it was announced that all freight accumulated at Atlanta for Augusta and points beyond will be moved by the Central and Seaboard. The Georgia road freight station here will be open to-day for delivery of freight to consignees, but shippers are requested to withhold all shipments until further notice. After thus admitting how complete is the tie-up the road says: "The Georgia road is omitting nothing that offers promise of early resumption."

The Georgia Railroad is 171 miles long from Atlanta to Augusta, and branches at Camak to Macon, at Barnett to Washington, at Union Point to White Plains and also at Union Point to Athens. It is owned by a stock company and is being operated by the Louisville and Nashville, lessee. The Atlantic Coast Line is joint lessee. It employs 2,400 to 2,500 men, 400 of whom are in the train service. Its last monthly pay roll was $80,000.

Firemen Stand Pat.

AUGUSTA, Ga., May 24.—The striking firemen have entered into no negotiations. Vice-President Kelley stated last night that so far as he was held yesterday, but it was the situation from Saturday night.

A meeting of the local organization was held yesterday, but it was the regular monthly communication of the lodge, and the strike was discussed only incidentally.

The firemen are simply awaiting developments. Their instructions are to keep away from any gathering of strike sympathizers, and to take no part in any demonstration.

"We mean to make the railroad realize our value, that is all," declared Vice-President Kelley.

A fireman is reported to have been taken from a switch engine in the Georgia Railroad yards yesterday. Straggling crowds gathered at the Union Station every time a Georgia train was due to arrive or depart, but as there was nothing moving on the line they soon disappeared.

Detectives Serve As Firemen.

ATHENS, Ga., May 24.—After Saturday night's experience in which several men were hurt by the throwing of rocks at Will Williamson, a white fireman on a Georgia train, everything is quiet now.

A Georgia train made the trip to Union Point Sunday morning and returned but did not go out in the afternoon, the engineer deeming it unsafe. Williamson quit his job and two detectives fired the engine.

One Georgia Train Reaches Macon.

MACON, Ga., May 24.—Only one train over the Georgia road entered Macon yesterday and no train was operated out. The incoming train due shortly after eleven reached here after four in the afternoon.

Strikers at this point remain in absolute quiet and there is no apparent inclination to raise a disturbance.

A Smile

Is a pretty hard thing to accomplish when you're blue, bilious and out of sorts. There is a sure cure for all kinds of stomach and liver complaints—constipation and dyspepsia. Ballard's Herbina is mild, yet absolutely effective in all cases. Price 50 cents per bottle. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

RICH RED BLOOD

Means Rosy Cheeks, Clear Complexion, Bright Eyes and Plenty of Energy.

What does rich, red blood mean? It means brains, vitality, ambition, hopefulness, persistency, and everything worth living for.

But you can't have rich, red blood, if your digestion is imperfect; and your digestion is certainly imperfect if you have sour stomach, bad taste in mouth, lump of lead after eating, belching of gas and nervous unrest. So far-reaching is the effect of indigestion, that many times the eyesight is affected.

If you have indigestion or any symptom of stomach distress or agony J. W. McCollum & Co. will sell you a mighty good remedy for 50 cents, and guarantee it to cure or money back.

The remedy is called MI-ONA. Its powerful, reconstructive action on the stomach is little short of marvelous. It tones up, strengthens and puts new life and energy into the worn out stomach in a few days. It cures by removing the cause. If you are suffering, try a large 50-cent box. It's a small price to pay for banishing indigestion.

MI-ONA is sold by leading druggists in every town in America, and by J. W. McCollum & Co. in Gainesville, for 50 cents a box.

HYOMEI

(Pronounced High-O-Me)

Cures catarrh or money back. Just breathe it in. Complete outfit, including inhaler, $1.00. Bottles 50c. Druggists.

FAMILY CURED OF SKIN TROUBLES

Two Little Girls had Eczema Very Badly—In One Case Child's Hair Came Out and Left Bare Patches—Father's Head Sore from Childhood—In All Three Cases

CUTICURA MET WITH ITS USUAL SUCCESS

"I have two little girls who have been troubled very badly with eczema. One of them had it on her lower limbs. I did everything that I could hear of for her, but it did not give in until warm weather when it seemingly subsided. The next winter when it became cold weather the eczema started again and also in her head where it would take the hair out and leave bare patches as large as a quarter of a dollar. At the same time her arms were sore the whole length of them. I took her to a physician and he said that she had two distinct types of eczema. I continued with him for several weeks and the child grew worse all of the time. Her sister's arms were also affected in the same way. My husband came home one day with a box of Cuticura Ointment and a cake of Cuticura Soap. I began using them and also the Cuticura Pills and by the time the second lot was used their skin was soft and smooth as it had not been before for the winter. We keep the Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment constantly by us and when any little roughness or irritation appears on their skin I quickly dispel it with the Cuticura Remedies. My husband has used them with most satisfactory results for a sore head which has troubled him from childhood. Mrs. Charles Baker, Albion, Me., Sept. 21, 1908."

Cuticura Ointment is one of the most successful remedies for torturing, disfiguring humors of the skin and scalp, including loss of hair, of infants, children and adults, ever compounded, in proof of which a single anointing with it, preceded by a hot bath with Cuticura Soap, and followed by mild doses of Cuticura Pills, is often sufficient to afford immediate relief in the most distressing forms of itching, burning and scaly humors, eczemas, irritations and inflammations, permit rest and sleep and point to a speedy cure when all else fails.

Cuticura Soap (25c.), Ointment (50c.), Resolvent (50c.), and Chocolate Coated Pills (25c.), are sold throughout the world. Potter Drug & Chem. Corp., Sole Props., 137 Columbus Ave., Boston. ©Mailed Free. Cuticura Book on Skin Diseases.

MICANOPY SCHOOL CLOSED FOR SEASON

FIVE PUPILS AWARDED DIPLOMAS FOR COMPLETING COURSE.

Performance by Gainesville Vaudeville Co. Good—New Business Enterprises to Be Started.

MICANOPY, May 24.—The Micanopy Junior High School closed last Thursday after an eight-months' term.

The following pupils were awarded diplomas for having completed the Junior course: Grace Holloway, Anita Thrasher, Leon Thrasher, Clarence Watkins and John Barr Watkins. The principal, Miss Collins, left for Waycross, Ga., on Friday. Miss Grace Fogg, the first assistant, will spend the summer in the East.

The children all seem glad to be out of school again.

The Gainesville Vaudeville Company gave a performance at Feaster's Hall on Thursday night. Quite a crowd was out to see the boys, and all seemed to enjoy themselves. We hope they will come again.

Dr. Edwin Schlatter was in town Saturday.

The Micanopy "Sprouts" went up to play the Gainesville "Buds" Friday. We hear the "Sprouts" showed the "Buds" how to play ball.

Mrs. Carlton's brick building is showing up pretty well. It will be ready for occupancy by July 1st. When completed it will be one of the nicest buildings in town.

With electric lights a certainty, a bottling works nearly ready for business, an ice plant coming, we are beginning to feel like we can put on a few city airs a little later on.

A committee waited upon the officials of the Atlantic Coast Line in Jacksonville last week to see if the trains known as No. 9 and 19 couldn't be run into Micanopy. The officials seem willing to do this if things can be arranged satisfactory to the transportation department.

CITY COUNCIL SHOULD TAKE SOME ACTION

Blaze Was Discovered in Time and Extinguished With the Chemical Engines.

The City Council should take some action regarding the old laundry building which was partially burned and have it torn away, as it seems to be bothering someone a great deal in its present state.

Sunday morning at about 4 o'clock it was discovered to be on fire near the center of the building and there is no doubt that this was the work of incendiaries, for there was no occasion to have any fire about the building at all since it was first burned.

In its present shape it is an eyesore and the owner of the fragments should be required to tear it away and stop this action of the party who is evidently determined to have it placed out of the way.

This is not the only building that has been fired in this vicinity, and some steps should also be taken to watch out for the culprits and arrest them for this offense, which is a serious one. A disastrous fire in this immediate territory would entail a great loss to a large number of people.

W. R. Abstein has moved into his new home just opposite the Tusculum Hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Chamberlin of Tacoma were in town Saturday.

The best of the good ones.

All the experiments of the Government food experts and the athletic trainers of Yale University prove that cereal eaters are the strongest and healthiest. Quaker Oats stands at the head of the list of cereal foods. It is not only the best food, but it's the cheapest food on earth. Packed in tins it will keep sweet and fresh anywhere indefinitely.

The Alternative.

"If the window had been eight feet from the ground," pouted the young wife, "instead of eight stories, I'd have thrown myself out when you quarreled with me. Then you'd have had to be sweet to me when you picked me up. A lot of wives attempt suicide, they say, just to be petted when they come home." "Yes," said he, "but sometimes they don't come to, remember." —New York Press.

Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Milwaukee, Wis. — "Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has made me a well woman, and I would like to tell the whole world of it. I suffered from female trouble and fearful pains in my back. I had the best doctors and they all decided that I had a tumor in addition to my female trouble, and advised an operation. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound made me a well woman and I have no more backache. I hope I can help others by telling them what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me." —Mrs. EMMA IMSE, 833 First St., Milwaukee, Wis.

The above is only one of the thousands of grateful letters which are constantly being received by the Pinkham Medicine Company of Lynn, Mass., which prove beyond a doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, actually does cure these obstinate diseases of women after all other means have failed, and that every such suffering woman owes it to herself to at least give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial before submitting to an operation, or giving up hope of recovery.

Mrs. Pinkham, of Lynn, Mass., invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health and her advice is free.

Mrs. J. C. Evans left yesterday for Chester, Conn., having been called there on account of the illness of her mother. She received the information by wire, leaving on the afternoon train, and it is to be hoped that she will find the condition of the patient greatly improved upon her arrival.

MISS HATTIE LUDWIG FIRST IN WESTERN

WHILE MISS HATTIE ENGLISH LEADS IN THE EASTERN.

All Sections of the County Are Active and It Will Pay Contestants to Work.

As will be seen by reference to the list, Miss Ludwig leads in the Western section, and Miss English in the Eastern, but all precincts of the county are now showing up fine and each day the result changes in these sections.

By special arrangement, we have been enabled to increase the prizes, and now every candidate in the race will get a prize—a certificate good for $25 as a cash payment on any piano bought from the A. R. Harper Piano Company, of Jacksonville. In addition to this, they will give to the first five following the leader in each section of the county a certificate good for $100, and this can be applied as a payment in the same manner. This means that you can purchase any piano you want and use this as a cash payment and make arrangements for deferred payments. The same instrument that is now being given away can be purchased for the certificate and $225, so it will pay you to be among the first five following the leader.

Weekly clubs are still coming, but we urge the candidates to work among their friends while their time is unoccupied—it will prove profitable for them.

Following is the standing of the candidates as a result of the count yesterday:

ONE DOLLAR A YEAR

GRADUATING EXERCISES OF STATE UNIVERSITY

Dr. Jas. H. Dillard the Speaker of Occasion---Degrees and Medals Awarded.

The final exercises of the University commencement began at 10 a. m. Tuesday in the High School Auditorium. This hall had been tastefully decorated with bunting in the college colors and with palms from the Experiment Station.

At the rear of the stage sat the members of the Board of Control, President Sledd, President-elect Murphree, Dr. Conradi, Dr. Curry and Dr. Dillard. To their right were the members of the University faculty, and to their left the graduates of the year.

After the invocation by Dr. Curry, the president stated that the two men in the graduating class whose grades were the best were awarded first and second honors, respectively, and that the salutatory would be delivered by the second honor, the valedictory by the first honor man. He then introduced Mr. F. T. Wilson as the second honor man.

Mr. Wilson expressed very gracefully the appreciation of the graduating class of the many courtesies and kindnesses that had been extended to them by the citizens of Gainesville. He thanked the large audience for the interest they were taking in the graduating exercises, and hoped that the spirit of joy and of gladness permeating the young men who had reached the first mile-post in their career would extend to all present.

Dr. Dillard's Address.

The president, at the conclusion of this address, in a few well-chosen words introduced the speaker of the occasion, Dr. James Hardy Dillard, formerly a very distinguished professor of Tulane University, New Orleans, today the representative of the Jeanes Fund.

Dr. Dillard began with some well-phrased compliments to the beautiful city of Gainesville. Coming to the city had recalled his first trip to Southern California. He had been crossing the dreary wastes of the desert, when suddenly the beautiful scenery rose before him. It was because of the contrast almost celestial. So the night before he was delighted with the magnificent trees and fine residences of Gainesville after the ride on the fast express from Sampson City.

The future of the commonwealth, he continued, nay of the whole republic, depended upon the young men like those before him now being graduated at the colleges throughout the land. Since the beginning of democratic government there has been a tremendous need of men who would take an interest in politics without seeking preferment. A man must value his cause more highly than his personal gain.

No one can look twenty-five years ahead and feel sure of the continuance of democratic government. As we of the South once attempted to destroy the Union, it may fall to our lot in future to preserve the Union by maintaining the principles upon which it was founded.

Concentration of wealth has always caused political disturbance, and in restoring order there may be a destruction of personal liberty and of the political hopes of centuries.

He then gave a masterly sketch of the conditions existing in Rome during the last hundred years of the republic. He told of the several martyrs who had been slain because of their efforts in behalf of the common people. He showed how tragically the one man who fully understood the conditions had been instrumental in bringing about the establishment of an absolute government; how Julius Caesar, an aristocrat by birth, a populist in principle, had in the defense of the liberty and rights of the people found it necessary to use methods which finally led to absolutism. Had he lived fifty years he might have saved the republic; as it was he helped on its decline.

In the same way insidious enemies were attacking our republican institutions. Attacked in time it was possible to overcome them. But if these enemies be allowed full sway for a period of years, the very friends of the people might by their efforts advance aristocratic rule. We should count the cost of every gain for the people.

In particular he besought his hearers to study the questions arising from the conflict between aristocratic and democratic views. Let them oppose themselves to all attempts of individuals to gain special privileges. And above all at present let them study the workings of protective tariffs, which he believed was productive of many of the evils now existing in the land.

A second principle that ought to be manfully sustained was that of Home Rule--home rule for the community, for the county, for the State. In special privileges, home rule, these would help to preserve our democratic government.

In conclusion he urged the importance of one sentiment, idealism. Let the young men form high ideals in politics, and, regardless of consequences, strive valiantly to enforce the workings of these ideals. Thus would democratic principles be maintained. Let us rise above party, let us frown upon all schemes of graft, of political corruption; let us strive for the interests of the common people, of the whole country. In doing so, let us count the cost and use means that will not ultimately bring in a train of evil results. Let us profit by the last hundred years of Rome.

President Sledd Awards Degrees. Woltz's Orchestra then gave a pleasing selection. After this President Sledd awarded the following degrees: B. A. upon W. B. Martin and Raymond Kay; B. Sc. in civil engineering upon W. W. Gibbs; B. Sc. in electrical engineering upon Geo. B. Ames, Ralph Chapin, Charles Larsen, Hadley Taylor; B. Sc. in agriculture upon F. T. Wilson.

The highest degree conferred by the University was then awarded: M. Sc. in chemistry upon R. N. Wilson; M. Sc. in agriculture upon R. Y. Winters.

Dr. Sledd feelingly addressed the graduates, the first class to take a four-years' course in the University of the State of Florida. He prayed that it might be said of each of them, as it has been said of Gordon, "God above knows where he is, but wherever he may be, he is doing his duty."

Vice-President Farr.

Vice-President Farr then arose and at the close of a graceful tribute to Dr. Sledd, announced that the University had conferred upon him the honorary degree of D. D. This was the first honor degree conferred in the history of the institution, and this was conferred although both the Board of Control and the faculty are on record as being opposed to granting honorary degrees except in the most rare and exceptional circumstances. Dr. Sledd, although greatly surprised, made a very fitting response.

Awarding of Medals.

The awarding of medals followed: The Freshman-Sophomore medal for Declamation to H. G. Glazier, of the Sophomore Class; the Junior medal for oratory to W. D. Rader; the Senior medal for Oratory to W. B. Martin. The Buckman medal, which is conferred upon the student making the best average in any class of the Engineering Department, was awarded to W. W. Gibbs, of the Senior Class, with honorable mention of students Felton and Hadley Taylor.

Three medals were awarded by the Military Department: for the best drilled man to J. H. Vidal, for the best marksman to W. W. Gibbs, second marksman, Charles Larsen. There was only point difference in the scores made by Messrs. Gibbs and Larsen.

The medal offered by the Mildred Lee Chapter, U. D. C., to the student writing the best essay on an assigned subject was won by B. G. Langston with an essay on "The Causes of the Civil War."

The medal offered by the U. D. C. of the State was won by P. S. May. This medal is open to all colleges in the State, and has been awarded five times. The University has competed for it four times and has won it three times.

Tokens of Affection.

Mr. Bryan then happily presented a gold-headed cane, the gift of the faculty as a token of affection and esteem, to Dr. Sledd. The recipient was much moved and thanked the donors most fittingly.

Dr. Crow, as the spokesman of the faculty, presented a set of books to Dr. Yocum as an expression of their admiration and affection and regret at his retiring from the University. Dr. Yocum's response was gracefully made.

With a well-written valedictory, the first honor man, A. Hadley Taylor, Jr., then, on behalf of the graduating class, took formal farewell of the citizens of Gainesville, of the Board of Control, of Dr. Sledd, of the faculty, of the student body, and finally of the members of the class of 1908-09.

Dr. Murphree was then introduced as the President-Elect of the University, and expressed his regard and affection for the outgoing President, Dr. Sledd.

The audience was dismissed with the benediction by Dr. A. B. Curry, of Memphis.

Some article that is simply "in the way" at your house might, if advertised, be sold to someone who is anxiously looking for it.

HOUSE PASSED COUNTY UNIFORMITY 36 TO 26

Bill Had Been Previously Killed, But Was Reconsidered---Senate's Long Session.

TALLAHASSEE, May 26.--Things happened in the House yesterday, when, following a change in sentiment, the Duke county uniformity of school text-books bill was taken up on reconsideration of the vote by which it was recently killed and was passed by a vote of 36 to 26.

The next important action came with the passage to third reading of the Cash primary bill, which provides among other things for disfranchisement for an extended time of persons guilty of bribery in elections.

The House devoted the afternoon and night to the consideration of the general revenue bill. This was taken up informally in the committee of the whole and much discussion was evoked.

Representative Davis offered an amendment prohibiting the sale of liquors by licensed dealers in amounts of less than half a pint at a time. This was killed, but not until it had been warmly fought.

THE SENATE.

Consideration of the Broome bill relating to the liability of railway companies having relief departments occupied nearly the entire time of the Senate. Some very lively discussions were aroused at times. The consideration of the bill will be resumed today.

The Stokes loan shark bill was passed to third reading.

Following several days of most strained conditions the Senate last night, under the leadership of the so-called anti-corporation element, held the alleged corporationists down to what proved almost an all-night session.

For several days it has been noised about that the so-called corporationists are endeavoring to block all legislation by dilatory tactics in order to prevent certain measures coming to a vote. This caused resentment and last night a caucus was held, when it was decided to apply the water cure.

A night session was held and when a motion to adjourn was made at 10 o'clock it was promptly voted down. Repeated motions were turned down and the minority then discovered that they were up against something.

The chair then ruled that motions could not be in order until business has been transacted.

Following this the Senate settled down to the calendar and after a measure was acted upon a motion to adjourn was made, the roll call was demanded and the motion to adjourn voted down.

Senate Bill No. 316 by Mr. McCreary, prescribing method of serving process upon non-resident copartners having an office or conducting a business in Florida, was advanced to third reading, as was also House Bill No. 403, by Mr. Duke of Alachua, to encourage establishment and maintenance of unenclosed game preserves for certain birds and other game.

MELROSE NOYES.

MELROSE, May 26.--Mrs. M. J. Barnett entertained quite a party of Hawthorn friends on Saturday, consisting of Mrs. W. S. Moore, Mrs. M. Hulme, Mrs. D. Hulme, Mrs. Harry Barnett, Miss M. Burckstresser and Leo Johnson.

W. H. Lee and Mrs. Lee have gone to Lake City to attend the commencement exercises at Columbia College. Their son, Stetson Lee, will return with them.

Miss E. Ricks of Highland was the guest of Miss L. Mack for the weekend.

The many friends of H. Barnett extend their regrets at the loss by fire of his store on Sunday night at Hawthorn.

The Eddy Bros. of Green Cove Springs are at work repainting the school house. They expect to finish the job this week.

Mrs. R. E. Storrs of Macon, Ga., and Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Cameron of Atlanta, arrived yesterday for a few weeks' stay at the Darlington cottage.

Situation in Georgia Railroad Strike Unchanged

ATLANTA, May 26.--A settlement by arbitration should not be difficult so far as the Georgia Railroad strikers' demands are concerned, Vice-President Ball of the firemen's organization said yesterday, because the firemen are not trying to exact a hard and fast settlement. They struck because ten white firemen were replaced by negro firemen. The railroad officials declare that the negroes were put in these positions as rewards for faithful service, and that they are within their legal rights in such action. Upon this one crucial point of the controversy there has as yet been no sign of agreement. The directors of the road, the general manager and other officials were in almost continual conference yesterday, and it was reported that some of the directors strongly favored Governor Smith's proposition for each side to select three Georgians as arbiters.

Mr. Scott would not say whether this offer would be accepted. The directors include men with local business interests, which are liable to be affected unfavorably by a long tie-up.

Hand cars, automobiles and inter-urban cars made little impression upon the 3,000 pounds of delayed mails in the Atlanta postoffice. Here and there in the strike districts a rural postmaster shouldered a sack of outgoing mail, and after hours of hard work riding and walking managed to reach a railroad station not affected by the strike. Reports were current that the Federal courts might interfere and place guards on trains in order to get the mails through. No such action, however, developed locally. The strikers have announced that they are willing to fire engines to carry mails, but that such engines must carry mails only and not passengers.

Jordan Named as Next Mayor of Jacksonville

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., May 26.--William S. Jordan was yesterday named Mayor of Jacksonville, winning out over W. H. Sebring, the present holder of the office, by a majority of 234 votes.

It was an unusually quiet election and but little activity was seen around the polling places. The friends of the two candidates worked quietly and the result is no surprise, it being conceded during the day that Jordan would win the office.

J. B. Dodge was defeated for controller by L. T. Gregory, and E. P. Douglas, the present city marshal, was defeated by E. H. Haddock. A. O. Wright was named to succeed him as judge of the municipal court.

There is more catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address, F. J. Caused Much Excitement.

An explosion of an old empty barrel caused a great deal of excitement Monday afternoon at 2:30 in the rear of the drug store of W. M. Johnson. He had emptied an old alcohol barrel some two weeks since, and his delivery boy, just to amuse himself, dropped a lighted match in the "bung hole" of the barrel. And explosion followed which burst the head out and sent it flying to the roof, besides shaking things around the store considerably. It is supposed that gas had formed from the alcohol and caused the combustion.

WORKING FOR MAIN LINE A. C. L. RAILWAY

From Tuesday's Daily Sun:

Micanopy citizens want to be placed on the main line of the A. C. L. railway and with this end in view have sent a delegation to Tallahassee to work up the matter and thoroughly agitate it before the Legislature and the Railroad Commission.

The committee sent to the State capital comprises Dr. H. L. Montgomery, Dr. J. D. Watkins, C. E. Melton and Mr. Hyde. It is understood that they will furnish the right-of-way for this proposed new route and will also assist the railway people otherwise in making the changes which will give them a new and improved service.

It is also claimed that the new route will shorten the distance to the south over five miles, which would be another advantage to the railroad.

The amount of money that would be required to construct the new roadway is not mentioned and just what they propose to do along this line is not known, but for the good of a fast-growing place we trust that they will receive the consideration that they deserve and a much better service than they are at present enjoying.

STATE HORTICULTURAL SOCIETY

Officers for Ensuing Year Elected at the Daytona Meeting.

The Florida Horticultural Society, which was in session at Daytona last week, elected its officers as follows: Prof. H. Harold Hume of Glen St. Mary was placed in nomination for president, and being the only nominee, the unanimous vote of the house was cast for him as president.

Nominations then being in order, successively, for first, second and third vice-presidents, the following nominees were elected by a unanimous vote: First Vice-President, W. C. Temper, Winter Park; Second Vice-President, H. B. Stevens, DeLand; Third Vice-President, B. F. Chilton, New Smyrna, all of whom expressed surprise at their election, but pledged their best efforts for the society.

E. O. Painter of Jacksonville was unanimously re-elected secretary.

W. S. Hart of Hawks Park was re-elected to the office of treasurer.

The following executive committee was elected by ballot: Prof. P. H. Rolfs of Gainesville, G. L. Taber of Glen St. Mary, and E. S. Hubbard of Federal Point.

Quite a delegation from Gainesville attended the meeting.

A Half-Holiday.

The big store of the G. W. Hyde Co. comes boldly to the front and makes the initiative move again this season, following the custom they inaugurated two years ago, of giving to their employees a half day's holiday each Thursday afternoon during the summer months. This is now being done by all of the largest and best concerns throughout the entire country, as they feel that a half-day's rest in the middle of the week tends to better fit their employees for the rest of the week's business.

This move is considered highly commendable by the patrons of the big store and they, too, rejoice with the employees for the benefits they will derive from it.

After a heavy meal, take a couple of Doan's Regulets, and give your stomach, liver and bowels the help they will need. Regulets bring easy, regular passages of the bowels.

DR. CURRY'S SPLENDID SERMON AT TABERNACLE

LARGE CONGREGATIONS PRESENT AT BOTH SERVICES.

"Wisdom Hath Builded Her House, She Has Hewn Out Seven Pillars," Was Subject.

Vast audiences were present Sunday morning and evening to hear the opening exercises of the University commencement. The faculty had invited Dr. Curry, of Memphis, to preach the Baccalaureate Sermon, and the members of the Student Y. M. C. A., learning that Dr. Curry was one of the most popular clergymen that had ever officiated in Gainesville, also extended to him an invitation to deliver the annual address before them. The enormous congregations proved how delighted the people of Gainesville were to have an opportunity of hearing Dr. Curry again.

Both services were held in the Tabernacle. In the morning the enormous auditorium was packed; in the evening there were but few vacant seats.

The exercises of the morning began with a chorus, "Come Into Our Hearts and Abide," well rendered by the young ladies of the Gainesville High School. This chorus did credit to the teaching of Miss Titman, of the High School. The violin obligato was by Prof. Woltz. The invocation was by Dr. Sledd, after which the quartet and chorus choir, with Miss Fennell at the piano, led the congregation in singing "Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God Almighty." Dr. Curry then read selections from the eleventh chapter of the Epistle to the Hebrews, and from the third chapter of Proverbs. After the prayer which followed the reading of the Scripture, the High School chorus sang an exquisite response. This was followed by a tenor solo well rendered by Mr. Maddox. After this the congregation and choir sang "Come, Thou Almighty King!" Announcements of the other commencement exercises were then made by Dr. Sledd, after which he introduced Dr. A. B. Curry.

Dr. Curry, after expressing his pleasure at seeing so many of his old friends, took as his text the first verse from the ninth chapter of Proverbs: "Wisdom hath builded her house, she has hewn out her seven pillars." He drew a clear and epigrammatic distinction between wisdom and knowledge. A man may be full of knowledge and yet have no wisdom; he may be learned, and yet unwise. Knowledge is of man, wisdom comes from God. Knowledge is but the acquisition of facts, wisdom is the ability to apply facts. Wisdom is the power to discern the best ends and apply the best means to attain them. It is one of the most precious and valuable gifts of God; its force is above riches, and its gain above silver and gold. If men rightly understood the value of wisdom, they would make greater efforts to attain it than to acquire the wealth of this world.

Then the speaker gave a vivid description of the structure of an Oriental house with its supporting pillars and interior court. This building to be perfect and fit for the use of mankind must be strong and beautiful. In the figurative language of the East, seven is a perfect number, and the seven pillars of the building show that it is perfect.

Then, with apt scriptural quotations, he drew a likeness between men and a building: "Know ye not ye are the temple of God." "When man is right, when his character is rightly constructed, he is the noblest building in creation, far surpassing Solomon's temple and the Temple of Dana of Ephesus. And it is true of some men that wisdom has built in them. I want you to study the characters of the good man, the seven-pillar man.

"The first of these pillars is Physical Perfection. No man is independent of his body and although many great men have been weak physically, their greatness was in spite of this." With many illustrations the preacher showed what influence an engaging physical appearance had had in the careers of many of the world's leaders. Strong, comely, graceful, beautiful bodies are a God-given source of power. This is warrant enough for college athletics. As far as athletics develops a man, it is not only allowable but necessary.

"The second pillar is Intelligence. A man may be physically perfect and yet nothing more than a powerful brute. One may be great in spite of a weak body, but one cannot be great with weak intelligence, and although a man without education may accomplish much, with education he will accomplish more. Of the men mentioned in "Who's Who?" only two-fifths of one per cent were absolutely self-made; only ten per cent had merely a common school education; sixteen per cent had a high school course; seventy-four per cent were college-bred. According to this a college education increases a high school boy's chance of success nine times, the chances of a boy with a common school training two hundred and nineteen times, of an illiterate boy eight hundred times. This shows the value of a college training in increasing the efficiency and happiness of its students. I charge you to recognize one of wisdom's necessary pillars.

"The third pillar is Virtue. The first two pillars increase a man's power, but they may increase it for evil, they may make him a curse to society." The lives of Joseph, of Solomon, of Asaph, of Aaron Burr, of Charles S. Parnell, were alluded to in order to show how necessary this pillar is in building the house. To be truly successful, to accomplish good, to build a house strong and beautiful, the pillar of virtue is essential; otherwise the building will go down in shame.

"The fourth pillar is Resolution or Willpower. Without this a man is like a rudderless boat; with it he is like a great Atlantic liner safely making the destined port. The greatest trouble with many young men is that they lack a clear-cut purpose, and have no aim in life but the pursuit of pleasure. They build houses without a plan, they sail vessels without a chart or course. Form a purpose, then bring in your willpower.

"The fifth pillar is Hope. This is one of the greatest factors in a man's success; without it continued effort is impossible. A man can fight for a forlorn hope, but there must be hope of some kind. Hell is Hell, because over its main portal is written, 'Let him who enters here leave Hope behind.' Lack of hope paralyzes all human effort; all great achievements have hope as their guiding star. Do not be pessimistic, do not lose hope; be optimistic. Do not look at the hole in the doughnut—look at the encircling ring.

The sixth pillar is Love for our Fellow-Men. Without this no character is strong or beautiful. The greatest of African explorers was David Livingstone. His purpose was not to increase British territory, not to exploit the resources of the country, not to hurt or seek adventure; his motive was love, he was seeking to heal the open sore of the world."

Dr. Curry here introduced a striking contrast between George Washington and Napoleon Bonaparte: the one prompted by selfish ambition, the other moved by tender, unselfish patriotism and disinterested love for the American people. We cannot rise to the greatest heights without this love. The human greatness of Jesus of Nazareth was due to his love for the common people.

"The seventh pillar is Faith in God. This brings man into contact with the source of all good. This

CLOSING EXERCISES OF THE NEWBERRY SCHOOL

Institution Has Accomplished Good Work, and Prof. Kean Will Be Asked to Remain.

The closing exercises of the Newberry High School took place on Thursday and Friday of last week. It was an old-fashioned "school exhibition." The school auditorium could not hold the audience, and a large brush arbor and stage was built on the outside. The pupils all acquitted themselves in a creditable manner.

Both evenings were taken up with drills, pantomimes and comedies. The last number on Friday evening was "From Pumpkin Swamp," which, in all of its thirty years' presentation at school entertainments, has never been better presented than by the school pupils of Newberry.

This has been one of the most successful years in the history of the Newberry school. The school has been raised from a rural graded school to a junior high school, the enrollment has made a gain of twenty-five per cent and the average attendance has increased proportionately. A large petition has been circulated, with not only the names of the patrons but a number of the most influential citizens of the town, requesting Prof. A. D. Kean, the principal of the school, to remain another year.

will regulate all his other good qualities; this will bring him into harmony with God. No creature can ignore his creator and succeed—in the end he must fail. No man is truly great until linked through faith to the eternal God. What have men of no faith accomplished? Nothing! There is not one single government founded on atheism; it takes men of faith to found a government. Moses, Isaiah, David, Augustine, Columbanus, Calvin, Knox, Luther, Cromwell, Lee, Jackson—all these were men of faith. Faith alone makes men able to bring things to pass."

Then the speaker introduced a sharp contrast of the great Duke of Marlborough with John Wesley. Today the latter has 12,000,000 followers, and many millions more are ready to do him reverence.

"Emerson wrote 'Hitch your wagon to a star.' I say 'Hitch your wagon to the throne of God through a living faith. May Wisdom's house be your house, perfect in strength and beauty."

The congregation then sang "Nearer, My God, to Thee," and was dismissed by Dr. Curry with the benediction.

THE GOVERNOR'S MESSAGE.

On Friday last Governor Gilchrist sent a special message to the Legislature on the Wales claim. In the opinion of The Index, there was no special reason for sending in a message on this subject at this time, as both branches of the Legislature had previously declined to favorably consider the Wales claim.

But the Governor's message, which covered fifteen pages of closely typewritten legal-cap sheets, offered little if anything new in regard to the history or merits of the claim. An explanation as to why he thought the $25,000 appropriated six years ago, and a suggestion as to a division between Wales and Beard, were included in the message; but these, too, are intangible.

In another message to the Senate on Monday, the Governor, in referring to the Wales claim message, stated that certain newspapers of the State had intimated, directly or indirectly, that the Legislature had repudiated the State's solemn obligation and that, in order to have the people know that the honor of the State is protected, he had sent copies of the message to these newspapers for publication, but so far they had refused to do so.

The Governor, in the opinion of The Index, cannot consistently feel aggrieved because this message has not been printed. Its contents would fill the columns of the average weekly paper, to the utter exclusion of all other matter, and the larger papers, with sufficient space to carry the message, might easily be forgiven for devoting their columns to real, live news matter. Besides, those newspapers that have taken the time and trouble to examine into the merits of the Wales claim, may be pardoned for entertaining views different from those expressed in the Governor's message, especially after considering the able and exhaustive report submitted by the Senate Committee of 1903, and reported to the Senate over the signature of "W. A. Blount, Acting Chairman."

So far as The Index knows, the present Legislature has not been charged with repudiating the obligations of the State, but it cannot be denied that as long as Colonel Wales is denied the right to have his claim adjudicated by the courts of the State the conclusion is inevitably forced upon The Index, and other newspapers of the State, and the people of Florida generally, that the Legislature, though not repudiating the claim, is creating a condition with similar results.

No better argument has been offered in support of the effort of Colonel Wales' friends to get this claim into the courts of the State than is contained in the Governor's message itself. This document, from the beginning to end, is a mass of acts, contracts, resolutions, accounts, opinions, guesses, conclusions and other more mystifying and confusing matter that positively and forever precludes the average legislator—for no other reason than lack of time to study law and history—from mastering the details of the claim, that a reasonable and just conclusion might be reached.

The Index having been one of the Governor's most ardent supporters in the last campaign, and feeling that its editor can still claim the right to be his friend, writes this in explanation and defense of the country press of Florida, those papers which were his strongest supporters when he needed them, and which do not deserve his censure.—Lake City Index, May 21.

The Kissimmee Valley Gazette makes the following suggestion: "The time, draws near when the few remaining heroes of the Lost Cause will once more assemble in annual reunion, this time in Memphis, Tenn. The railroads could do no more generous an act than to grant them rates of one dollar for the round trip from any part of the United States. There are few left to take advantage of the railroads' generosity, and it will be but a short time until they are only sacred memories. Let us make the time yet allotted them as peaceful and happy as possible—not wait until they are dead and then build monuments extolling their bravery and virtues."

The Georgia papers announce that Senators Bacon and Clay are together on all tariff items except lumber. Surely there must be some way to bridge over this difference, or gang plank it over, or something.

One Dose for Coughs

Children cough at night? Give them Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Often a single dose at bedtime will completely control the cough. Good for any one with a cold or cough. Good for easy cases, hard cases; good for acute cases, chronic cases. Ask your doctor to tell you, honestly and frankly, just what he thinks of this old standard remedy. No alcohol in this cough medicine. J.C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass.

A lazy liver makes a lazy boy. An active brain demands an active liver. No better laxative for boys and girls than Ayer's Pills. Ask your doctor about them. He knows.

LEGISLATURE DISPOSED OF MUCH BUSINESS

TALLAHASSEE, May 25.—With the starting on foot of a mild investigation, the killing of the Bynum State printing plant bill and the passage of the Taylor State guaranty of bank deposits measure, the House put in a busy session yesterday. A number of other measures were acted upon.

Representative Kelley of Baker defended the State guaranty of bank deposits measure. It was passed by a vote of 31 to 28.

Mr. Hardee introduced resolution to send a committee of three to the Western Union office to see if any of the members of the House have been sending "deadhead" messages, and to make report of same to the House. Adopted.

Resolution by Mr. Mahaffey—To allow no member to speak more than five minutes except the introducer of the bill or resolution. Amendment adopted, striking out "except the introducer." Resolution was adopted.

Bills on Third Reading.

House Bill No. 608, by Mr. Newton—Regulating the list of pension receivers and creating a State Board of Pensions.

Amendment by Mr. Wells: "Any person, who enlisted in this State and served actively for six months, shall receive the benefits of this act." Lost.

Amendment adopted by Mr. Blanton to include the value of pensioner's wife's property for assessment.

Many amendments lost and ruled out of order.

Amendment adopted to employ a clerk instead of having the work of the board performed by Comptroller's clerks. The bill passed by a vote of 41 to 16.

Mr. Kelly moved for reconsideration today.

In the vote on the pension bill, Hon. James E. Alexander asked that an explanation of his vote be recorded as follows:

"I vote no and in explanation of my vote will say, as a son of a Confederate soldier, I will never vote for any bill or measure that will deny

a liberal and just pension to an old Confederate soldier or his widow—or for any bill or measure that will require an old Confederate soldier to make an affidavit that he is a pauper before receiving said pension. As I consider this bill unjust to the old Confederate soldiers and their widows, I vote no, and wish to go on record as favoring a liberal and just pension law for the old Confederate soldiers and their widows. The present bill is neither liberal or just, in my opinion."

THE SENATE.

Sixty-one bills passed to third reading, killed or withdrawn was the record made by the Senate Monday. It was the hardest grind of the session and strict business made things hustle over the calendar.

Among the most important measures killed was the House bill by Mr. Wall of Bradford, which provides for the reimbursing of parties losing property or cash by theft.

An important measure introduced was the Flournoy bill providing for coeducation in all the schools, colleges and universities of the State.

Among other bills passed to third reading were: The Cook joint resolution calling for a revision of the constitution; the Hosford bill creating a State forestry commission, and providing for the conservation of the forest resources of the State; and the Humphries bill allowing the Board of Commissioners of State Institutions to sell or lease phosphate beds lying in the waters owned by the State.

The Senate passed to third reading a bill which was amended to allow sheriffs to accept passes, but it killed an amendment offered by Senator Humphries to include newspaper men. Senator Humphries held that it is a reflection upon the newspaper men of the State to say that they would be influenced by free transportation.

Senate Bill No. 268, by Mr. McCreary, relating to the division of counties into road districts, was advanced to third reading.

Live Oak Man Nabbed as He Set Building Ablaze

LIVE OAK, May 24.—Early yesterday morning a man named Goff was arrested in his meat market which it is charged he set afire. The store is in a building on Ohio avenue. Late Saturday evening he was found by officers at the building, and told them he was watching his building in the fear that a negro boy who was in his employ intended to set it afire. The officers sent him toward home, telling him that they would watch. Later, they assert, Goff returned, and the night marshal and two other men say they saw him as he went into his store, and hiding outside watched him when he poured kerosene about in the building, and struck a match to it.

As he came out of the building he was arrested and placed in jail. Goff begged the officers to shoot him. The building was saved from total destruction by the fire department.

Lynchers Hang Man as Warning to Negroes

LINCOLNTON, Ga., May 25.—Early yesterday Albert Aiken, a negro, was taken from the Lincoln county jail here and swung to a tree at Dry Fork creek, three miles from Lincoln. The body was filled with bullets. Upon the body was pinned this placard:

"Notice—This is what will happen to all negroes in Lincoln county under similar circumstances.

(Signed) "REGULATORS."

Aiken cut John Spire, a white

farmer, Thursday morning. Spire's condition grew worse and he is now reported dying. The white people in Lincoln say that negro secret societies are being formed for illegal acts and the inference is that by the lynching it is hoped to awe the negroes.

BRYAN'S TRIBUTE.

Apropos of the recent observance of Mother's Day, says The Tampa Tribune, we recall an eloquent tribute which was delivered by William J. Bryan at Fredericksburg, Va., during the famous campaign of 1896 to the mother of Washington. Said the noted orator:

"Fredericksburg is not a large city and yet it is rich in incidents of great historic value. Here the women of America have reared a monument to Mary, the mother of Washington. I am glad to stand on this spot; I am glad to feel the influences which surround her grave. In a campaign, especially in a campaign like this, there is much of bitterness, and sometimes of abuse, spoken against the candidates for public office, but, my friends, there is one character, the mother—a candidate for the affections of all mankind—against whom no true man ever uttered a word of abuse. There is one name, mother, which is never found upon the tongue of the slanderer—in her presence all criticism is silenced. The painter has, with his brush, transferred the landscape to the canvas with such fidelity that the trees and grasses seem almost real; he has even made the face of a maiden seem instinct with life, but there is one picture so beautiful that no painter has ever been able to perfectly reproduce it, and that is the picture of the mother holding in her arms her babe. Within the shadow of this monument, reared to the memory of each one of us, I bow in humble reverence to motherhood."

FINISHING WELL.

This is the time when in most places schools are closing for the summer vacation, and the "commencements" of schools and colleges are a reminder that thousands of young people are being graduated to enter upon their life work.

To many young people there comes the temptation in the last year of school to let up a little on their studies because of the feeling that as the end is so near it does not matter. For more than one reason this is a mistaken idea. The last year's work should be the fitting crown of the work of previous years. Then, too, the last year in school is to be considered in its relation to the future. In most cases a young man passes directly from school to his life work.

As the word "commencement" indicates, his life is not closing when he leaves school. It is really opening before him with all its possibilities, and if fullest success is to attend that life he must be adequately equipped. This means that the young person must finish well at school in order to commence well and continue well in the business or profession which he enters. It is not slipshod but thorough work that wins.

STATE PRESS COMMENT.

The Tampa Tribune says: "Mr. Bryan says Frank Clark ought to have sense enough to quit; but Frank would have a hard time borrowing any of that particular brand of sense from W. J."

The Southern Argus says: "The refusal of the Legislature to re-apportion the State in obedience to the constitution and in compliance with their oaths is a blot upon the records of that body."

The Pensacola News says: "The White Springs Herald does not believe that a man who is going to another world would like to go by Jacksonville on his way, but it is a fact that people have been known to go to Joyous Jacksonville and get away sober."

The Pensacola Journal says: "There were three arrests and convictions in Gainesville last week for cruelty to dumb animals. A good work. It should be kept up until every human brute gains at least the faithfulness and patience of the poor beast he delights in torturing."

The Times-Union "Short Talks" says: "The wicked Florida editors are making much of the story that a burglar who ransacked a Tampa residence left only a lady's bathing suit. But burglars can't be expected to think of every little thing.—Tampa Tribune. Of course not; and burglars are not expected to carry microscopes around with them as if they were bugologists."

MEMORIAL SERVICE OF G. A. R. SUNDAY

SERMON TO BE DELIVERED AT FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH.

In compliance with the annual custom of the association, on next Sunday morning, May 30th, there will be a memorial service held at the First Baptist church at 10:30 o'clock. The sermon will be delivered by the celebrated divine, Rev. Dr. Jno. E. Barnard of Cartersville, Ga., assisted in the pulpit by Rev. S. B. Rogers.

Dr. Barnard, who has accepted the invitation to deliver this sermon, is one of the most talented and finest orators of the Southern Baptist Church, one whom it will be a treat to hear, and this fact alone will serve to call out many.

Invitations of the most cordial nature have been extended the local Camp of Confederate Veterans, the two chapters of the Daughters of the Confederacy, the Blue and the Gray, the Spanish-American War veterans, the Patriotic Order Sons of America, and the general public to attend this service.

The battalion of the various organizations will assemble at the Post Headquarters in the Dutton building and headed by the Gainesville Brass Band, who have generously offered their services, with Company "H" of the Second Regiment, Florida State Troops, acting as an escort of honor, will proceed to the church, returning in the same order. The usual choir of the church will be augmented by special music arranged by Col. I. E. Webster.

On the following day, Monday, May 31st, services will be held at the cemetery and the graves of all the departed veterans of both the Blue and the Gray will be decorated with flowers. In addition to the usual ritualistic service on this occasion, there will be an address delivered by the talented young lawyer, Col. W. E. Baker, the reading of President Lincoln's address at Gettysburg and special music by selected singers under the leadership of Col. I. E. Webster.

Carriages will be in waiting on the north side of the square at 9 o'clock for any Confederate Veterans, Daughters of the Confederacy and any others who desire to attend the ceremonies and hear the address of Col. Baker. Those fortunate enough to have flowers are requested to make a donation for the decoration of the soldiers' graves.

The Grand Army of Florida, at the present time, under Department Commander General James Skinner of Archer and his able staff, are in a flourishing condition and doing much to inculcate the principles of fraternity, charity and loyalty among the Blue and Gray veterans who are still with us.

Attention, Stonewall Camp.

The Stonewall Camp of Confederate Veterans is invited by the Lew Wallace Post, G. A. R., to join it in its memorial service to be held at the First Baptist church in this city at 10:30 o'clock on next Sunday morning; and also invited to accompany such Post on the next day to the cemetery to decorate the graves of all the soldiers buried there. Carriages will be in waiting on the north side of the square for the members of Stonewall Camp who will go to the cemetery.

As many as can should accept the invitation.
HORATIO DAVIS,
Commander.

A Birthday Greeting.

On Saturday, the 23rd, a host of friends and relatives enjoyed a delightful dinner at the home of I. C. Manning given by the Manning brothers in honor of their aged mother's seventy-ninth birthday. Three sons and one daughter, friends and relatives, sixty in number, were present to partake of the toothsome dinner and delicious ice cream that was spread under the shade trees in the yard, where it was more pleasant for the crowd.

Elder J. T. Johnson preached a very interesting sermon for the occasion, concluding with the hymn, "Jesus, Lover of My Soul." May God bless the sons and daughters with the presence of their devoted mother many more birthdays. They show by their kind deeds that they have not forgotten the kind care of a mother.
A FRIEND.

AN AKRON MAN.

MR. WILLIAM F. STEESE.

Mr. William F. Steese, 701 Coburn St., Akron, Ohio, writes:

"I have been troubled for several years with catarrh of the stomach. I have used different patent medicines to no effect whatever, and have doctored considerably with family doctor.

"Sometimes his treatment would relieve me for a few weeks, but would eventually have to go back to him, and that had kept up for several years.

"I was advised to use Peruna, and have taken three bottles. Never felt so good in my life. Am going to continue using it. Wouldn't be without it in the house. I will gladly recommend it to any one afflicted with catarrh of stomach, or stomach trouble of any kind."

The above is an oft-repeated story. Troubled for years with chronic catarrh. Tried different remedies and doctors to no avail. Peruna was advised by friends. Instant relief experienced. Great gratitude to Peruna expressed. This, in brief, is a story that is repeated to us a great many times every year.

No one could be in touch with our vast correspondence for one month without being impressed with the sincerity and truthfulness of these kind of testimonials.

Peruna promptly produces an appetite, corrects digestion and relieves stomach difficulties that have resisted other treatment.

MAULTSBY AGAIN LOST HEAVILY BY FIRE

LARGE AND COMMODIOUS BARN
DESTROYED MONDAY NIGHT.

News was received here yesterday of another destructive fire at Campville which totally destroyed the barn and all contents of the Campville Brick Company.

It has been only a few weeks since the immense brick plant of this concern was destroyed by fire, and it seems as if luck has struck them in rather a hard way, for the total loss on the two fires will reach into several thousand dollars.

The loss of the barn, which was a large and commodious two-story building, will probably be about $2,000, with no insurance. The building contained all of the harness and wagons used by the company and had just been stocked with all of the out yield made by Mr. Maultsby, besides a solid carload of hay had just been placed in the building.

The first known of the blaze was about 10 o'clock on Monday night when a darkey who lives only a short distance from the place was awakened by the cracking noise of the fire and upon investigation it was found that the entire top of the building was in a blaze.

He at once went to the place and by hard work and with some assistance managed to drive the seventeen head of mules from the pen in the building and save them, but within a short while it would have been impossible to enter the place at all.

How the fire originated could not be learned. There was no insurance on the building, and the loss is a total one to Mr. Maultsby.

Act Quickly

and you will save yourself a lot of suffering and trouble. If you have a sudden chill—or take cold—if you have colic, cramp or diarrhoea, don't wait a minute. Take at once a teaspoonful of Perry Davis' Painkiller in a half a glass of hot water or milk. You'll be safe and on the right road to quick recovery. Then you'll escape serious illness. But you ought to have this tried and proven remedy on hand for immediate use. Being prepared is half the battle when there's pain to subdue. New size bottles 25c. also in 50-cent sizes.

UNIVERSITY WORK COMMENCES MONDAY

EDDINS MFG. COMPANY SECURE
CONTRACT FOR FINISHING.

Work of remodeling and completing the University buildings will commence at once, the contract for the needed improvements having already been awarded.

The successful bidders on this work was the Eddins Manufacturing Company of this city, and they will put a force of men upon the buildings by the first of the coming week and complete those already erected at the University grounds.

This contract provides for the completion of Buckman Hall and it will require a number of weeks to complete the contract. Besides the carpenter work, the entire building is to be painted and stained on the inside, which will add very materially to the attractiveness of the present quarters.

Thomas Hall is also to be repaired and finished up in first-class style. Cement floors are to be placed in the bath rooms, the walls are to be replastered and in all the entire building will be overhauled where it is found necessary.

This is only the first step taken by the Board of Control in better equipping and arranging for the comfort of the students that attend the University, and it is believed that work will commence on the other large buildings before the end of the summer.

With this work started, the Federal building now in progress and a score or more residences being worked upon, shows that business is good in Gainesville even during the dull season, of which the merchants and people generally are very thankful.

Doings of Secret Sessions of Senate Made Known.
Williams' Oyster Bill Passed.

TALLAHASSEE, May 24.—With the discharge of L. Alger, one of the two Senate stenographers, and the request for the resignation of Assistant State Chemist B. K. Bridges, which has been received, the Senate Saturday afternoon, after a long executive session, unbottled the sensation which it had been keeping to itself. While it is expected to prove a lesson to Senate attaches, it really was not such a terrible sensation as had been expected. Hours have been spent in executive session over the matter during the past few days.

From what information was given out, the two young men wrote to a brewing company in St. Louis in regard to the Humphries bill defining intoxicating beverages as those having over two per cent of alcohol in them. The letter, it is stated, made certain offers if a named amount was deposited in a bank—at any rate the transaction looked shady to the Senate.

The letter was sent to the Jacksonville representative of the brewing company, who in turn sent it to a representative of the corporation in Tallahassee. It was turned over to Senator Dayton then, and the trouble was on. Mr. Bridges was in Jacksonville a few days ago on business and was brought up by a deputy sheriff on an attachment issued by the Senate for him as a witness.

The young men were perfectly frank when questioned by the executive session and the Senators do not believe that they fully realized just what they were doing amounted to.

It was stated by a Senator that the action taken was the least that the Senate could do in the matter, but that it was believed that under the circumstances it was punishment enough. Both young men are highly regarded by all who know them and the whole affair is regarded as unfortunate.

Senators state that no further action will be taken.

Oyster Bill Passed.

After nearly three days of the most vigilant work by Senator Williams of Cedar Key, and a discussion before the Senate for that time, that body finally passed his general oyster bill on the third reading.

The bill is most sweeping and in its amended form is expected to prove most beneficial to the industry as well as a producer of revenue for the State, if it is agreed to by the House.

Avoid from making public the executive business, the chief sensation Saturday lay in the fact that not a single new bill was introduced in the body.

Child Labor Discussed.

Following an eloquent address in behalf of the Farris child labor bill by the speaker, its author, the House spent the entire afternoon upon the consideration of that measure but no conclusion had been reached by the time adjournment was taken.

Saturday morning an important bill was introduced by Cash of Taylor, relating to primary elections and intended to purify them.

The House also reconsidered and then passed the bill appropriating

Many Bills Will Die.

Confronted by over six hundred bills, the Florida Legislature has only eleven more days. The session of 1909 will then pass into history and it now looks very much as if a person will be able to count on his fingers the number of general bills enacted during the sixty days. Strictly speaking this week will be the last so far as ordinary legislation is concerned. The last week is always taken up almost entirely with the discussion of the general revenue and the general appropriation bills. Members are already anxiously grasping every opportunity to get their pet measures down on the list of special orders so that they will at least die an honorable death in preference to an ignominious decease on the calendars.

Committees Return.

The various investigating committees have nearly all returned now. The one that visited the State Reform School at Marianna has reported and the others will in a few days. The one that went to the State Reform School wasn't overly pleased in every particular. So far as those in charge were concerned, the management isn't so bad, but the school is very poorly equipped and is costing the State far more than it ought to, considering what there is to show for it. The committee even suggested that if the school cannot be run under less exorbitant amounts than in the past that it would really be advisable to abolish the institution.

The Everglades drainage joint committee comes back the best pleased of the bunch. Chairman Thorp West of Marianna has always been an opponent of drainage, but he came back convinced, and the same was true of the others. By their request they were accompanied by former Governor Broward, who is perhaps more thoroughly familiar with every phase of the drainage work than any other one man. They went to Lauderdale on the East Coast canal. They went next down to Fort Myers to the Caloosahatchee.

The committee appointed to investigate the Insane Asylum at Chattahoochee has nearly completed its work. It is understood that there is really little that will be in the least sensational in the report, as conditions are understood to have been found very good.

KRAFT PAPER COMPANY NAME OF ORGANIZERS

NEW PAPER MILL NOW ASSUMING BUSINESS SHAPE.

Only a Few Weeks Before Active Steps Will Be Taken on Building.

From Wednesday's Daily:

As will be seen by the announcement in Tuesday's Sun, the Kraft Paper Company will be the title of the immense paper plant to be erected in this city, the organizers having been compelled to change the name owing to a wholesale concern in another Florida city having already adopted the name of the Florida Paper Company.

The promoters of the plan, with B. F. Williamson as manager, are now advertising for letters patent and as soon as it has been advertised a sufficient length of time, they will get busy on the complete organization. The name of "Kraft" was selected for strength, which was suggested by the very favorable report made by the United States Bureau of Standards, which stated that it was very much stronger than other makes of similar grades submitted from other material.

All of the drawings are now complete and cuts from the same are in the hands of the engraver, so within a very short while The Sun will issue a special Promoters' Edition, showing the grades of paper and also advertising Gainesville in a very substantial manner.

The matter for this publication is now being prepared and it will give in detail the reports and experiments of the Government concerning the manufacture of paper from the pine.

Besides the paper, there are by-products that will be obtained from the manufacture, such as tar, oil and turpentine.

Much advertising space has already been spoken for in this special edition of The Sun, and it is proposed to make it one of the very best editions ever turned out of this office, printing sufficient extra copies to give it wide circulation throughout the country.

HAD LOCK ARRESTED.

Henson Has Warrant Issued for Attempted Murder.

From Wednesday's Daily Sun:

W. J. Lock of Wilcox, postmaster and merchant of that place, is among the visitors to the city, having come to answer to a warrant which was issued for his arrest.

Henson, the express messenger who shot him in the hand and arm a few weeks since and who was only recently released from custody in Jacksonville and afterwards released under bond for his appearance here at the next term of court, is the man that had the warrant issued charging him with attempted murder.

This case will doubtless prove a very interesting one, and will be watched with much interest.

BOARD OF CONTROL HAD MONDAY SESSION

AUDIT AND APPROVE BILLS OF THE STATE UNIVERSITY.

Believe That Work is Soon to Commence on the Administration and Science Buildings.

The State Board of Control held a business session here Monday at which the regular auditing of bills and other matters came up for attention.

The members present on this occasion were N. P. Bryan, Jacksonville chairman; E. L. Wartmann, Citra; P. K. Yonge, Pensacola, and Secretary Pro Tem G. E. Campbell of Tallahassee, who is acting for Secretary Kellum while he is attending to his duties at the session of the Legislature.

Besides attending the regular routine business of the board the members are here for the purpose of being present at the commencement exercises and to look over the grounds and buildings with a view to commencing operations at some time in the near future.

While the board is non-committal, it is generally believed that they will commence operations as soon as funds are available, and judging from a remark made by one of them to a Sun reporter Monday it is thought that among the first buildings constructed will be the administration and science buildings, both of which are very badly needed at the present time.

This member of the committee stated that the main building of the Deaf and Dumb Institute at St. Augustine is well under way and everything is favorable for its early completion.

Following the exercises here the board will leave for Tallahassee to be present at the College for Women for the next few days.

If you want to feel well, look well and be well, take Foley's Kidney Remedy. It tones up the kidneys and bladder, purifies the blood and restores health and strength. Pleasant to take and contains no harmful drugs. Why not commence today? J. W. McCollum & Co.

ALL WHEELS STOPPED ON GEORGIA RAILROAD

Complete Tie-Up Sunday and the Striking Firemen Wait for Railroad Company to Act.

AUGUSTA, Ga., May 24.—The Georgia Railroad was completely tied up last night. The management did not try to move trains, simply announcing that it has the men, the means and the equipment to proceed and will do so when the State announces ready to protect its property and employees. The strikers are standing pat. They assert that they have not been and will not be parties to any violence. Sympathizers with the strikers, it is set out, have done all the hurt that has been done.

General Manager Thomas K. Scott last night made the announcement that "no trains are moving." Governor Hoke Smith wired the sheriff of McDuffie county to co-operate with the municipal authorities and to summon all deputies necessary to protect life and property. It is in this county that Thomson is located and it is at Thomson that the crowd issued their ultimatum Friday night that no trains should pass carrying either non-union or negro firemen. Governor Smith has also asked the sheriff there to keep him fully advised of the situation.

Freight Shipments Halted.

The Governor has also wired the sheriffs of Rockdale and DeKalb counties, giving them information that engineers claim to have been rocked at Conyers and Lithonia and urging upon them prompt action for the protection of the railroad's employees and property.

From the offices of the Georgia Railroad here last night it was announced that all freight accumulated at Atlanta for Augusta and points beyond will be moved by the Central and Seaboard. The Georgia road freight station here will be open today for delivery of freight to consignees, but shippers are requested to withhold all shipments until further notice. After thus admitting how complete is the tie-up the road says: "The Georgia road is omitting nothing that offers promise of early resumption."

The Georgia Railroad is 171 miles long from Atlanta to Augusta, and branches at Camak to Macon, at Barnett to Washington, at Union Point to White Plains and also at Union Point to Athens. It is owned by a stock company and is being operated by the Louisville and Nashville, lessee. The Atlantic Coast Line is joint lessee. It employs 2,400 to 2,500 men, 400 of whom are in the train service. Its last monthly pay roll was $50,000.

Firemen Stand Pat.

AUGUSTA, Ga., May 24.—The striking firemen have entered into no negotiations. Vice-President Kelley stated last night that so far as he was held yesterday, but it was the situation from Saturday night.

A meeting of the local organization was held yesterday, but it was the regular monthly communication of the lodge, and the strike was discussed only incidentally.

The firemen are simply awaiting developments. Their instructions are to keep away from any gathering of strike sympathizers, and to take no part in any demonstration.

"We mean to make the railroad realize our value, that is all," declared Vice-President Kelley.

A fireman is reported to have been taken from a switch engine in the Georgia Railroad yards yesterday. Straggling crowds gathered at the Union Station every time a Georgia train was due to arrive or depart, but as there was nothing moving on the line they soon disappeared.

Detectives Serve As Firemen.

ATHENS, Ga., May 24.—After Saturday night's experience in which several men were hurt by the throwing of rocks at Will Williamson, a white fireman on a Georgia train, everything is quiet now.

A Georgia train made the trip to Union Point Sunday morning and returned but did not go out in the afternoon, the engineer deeming it unsafe. Williamson quit his job and two detectives fired the engine.

One Georgia Train Reaches Macon.

MACON, Ga., May 24.—Only one train over the Georgia road entered Macon yesterday and no train was operated out. The incoming train due shortly after eleven reached here after four in the afternoon.

Strikers at this point remain in absolute quiet and there is no apparent inclination to raise a disturbance.

A Smile

RICH RED BLOOD

Means Rosy Cheeks, Clear Complexion, Bright Eyes and Plenty of Energy.

What does rich, red blood mean? It means brains, vitality, ambition, hopefulness, persistency, and everything worth living for.

But you can't have rich, red blood, if your digestion is imperfect; and your digestion is certainly imperfect if you have sour stomach, bad taste in mouth, lump of lead after eating, belching of gas and nervous unrest. So far-reaching is the effect of indigestion, that many times the eyesight is affected.

If you have indigestion or any symptom of stomach distress or agony J. W. McCollum & Co. will sell you a mighty good remedy for 50 cents, and guarantee it to cure or money back.

The remedy is called Mi-o-na. Its powerful, reconstructive action on the stomach is little short of marvelous. It tones up, strengthens and puts new life and energy into the worn out stomach in a few days. It cures by removing the cause. If you are suffering, try a large 50-cent box. It's a small price to pay for banishing indigestion.

Mi-o-na is sold by leading druggists in every town in America, and by J. W. McCollum & Co. in Gainesville, for 50 cents a box.

HYOMEI

Cures catarrh or money back. Just breathe it in. Complete outfit, including inhaler #1, Extra bottles 50c. Druggists.

FAMILY CURED OF SKIN TROUBLES

CUTICURA MET WITH ITS USUAL SUCCESS

"I have two little girls who have been troubled very badly with eczema. One of them had it on her lower limbs. I did everything that I could hear of for her, but it did not give in until warm weather when it seemingly subsided. The next winter when it became cold weather the eczema started again and also in her head where it would take the hair out and leave bare patches as large as a quarter of a dollar. At the same time her arms were sore the whole length of them. I took her to a physician and he said that she had two distinct types of eczema. I continued with him for several weeks and the child grew worse all of the time. Her sister's arms were also affected in the same way. My husband came home one day with a box of Cuticura Ointment and a cake of Cuticura Soap. I began using them and also the Cuticura Pills and by the time the second lot was used their skin was soft and smooth as it had not been before for the winter. We keep the Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment constantly by us and when any little roughness or irritation appears on their skin I quickly dispel it with the Cuticura Remedies. My husband has used them with most satisfactory results for a sore head which has troubled him from childhood. Mrs. Charles Baker, Albion, Me., Sept. 21, 1908."

Cuticura Ointment is one of the most successful remedies for torturing, disfiguring humors of the skin and scalp, including loss of hair, of infants, children and adults, ever compounded, in proof of which a single anointing with it, preceded by a hot bath with Cuticura Soap, and followed by mild doses of Cuticura Pills, is often sufficient to afford immediate relief in the most distressing forms of itching, burning and scaly humors, eczemas, irritations and inflammations, permit rest and sleep and point to a speedy cure when all else fails.

Cuticura Soap (25c.), Ointment (50c.), Resolvent (50c.), and Chocolate Coated Pills (25c.) are sold throughout the world. Potter Drug & Chem. Corp., Sole Props., 157 Columbus Ave., Boston.

MICANOPY SCHOOL CLOSED FOR SEASON

FIVE PUPILS AWARDED DIPLOMAS FOR COMPLETING COURSE.

Performance by Gainesville Vaudeville Co. Good—New Business

Enterprises to Be Started.

MICANOPY, May 24.—The Micanopy Junior High School closed last Thursday after an eight-months' term.

The following pupils were awarded diplomas for having completed the Junior course: Grace Holloway, Anita Thrasher, Leon Thrasher, Clarence Watkins and John Barr Watkins. The principal, Miss Collins, left for Waycross, Ga., on Friday. Miss Grace Fogg, the first assistant, will spend the summer in the East.

The children all seem glad to be out of school again.

The Gainesville Vaudeville Company gave a performance at Feaster's Hall on Thursday night. Quite a crowd was out to see the boys, and all seemed to enjoy themselves. We hope they will come again.

Dr. Edwin Schlater was in town Saturday.

The Micanopy "Sprouts" went up to play the Gainesville "Buds" Friday. We hear the "Sprouts" showed the "Buds" how to play ball.

Mrs. Carlton's brick building is showing up pretty well. It will be ready for occupancy by July 1st. When completed it will be one of the nicest buildings in town.

With electric lights a certainty, a bottling works nearly ready for business, an ice plant coming, we are beginning to feel like we can put on a few city airs a little later on.

A committee waited upon the officials of the Atlantic Coast Line in Jacksonville last week to see if the trains known as No. 9 and 19 could not be run into Micanopy. The officials seem willing to do this if things can be arranged satisfactory to the transportation department.

CITY COUNCIL SHOULD TAKE SOME ACTION

Blaze Was Discovered in Time and Extinguished With the Chemical Engines.

The City Council should take some action regarding the old laundry building which was partially burned and have it torn away, as it seems to be bothering someone a great deal in its present state.

Sunday morning at about 4 o'clock it was discovered to be on fire near the center of the building and there is no doubt that this was the work of incendiaries, for there was no occasion to have any fire about the building at all since it was first burned.

In its present shape it is an eyesore and the owner of the fragments should be required to tear it away and stop this action of the party who is evidently determined to have it placed out of the way.

This is not the only building that has been fired in this vicinity, and some steps should also be taken to watch out for the culprits and arrest them for this offense, which is a serious one. A disastrous fire in this immediate territory would entail a great loss to a large number of people.

Only the two chemical engines were required to extinguish the fire, for luckily it was discovered by the night policeman in time to awaken the firemen, who are located only a few feet distant.

W. R. Abstein has moved into his new home just opposite the Tuscawilla Hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Chamberlin of Tacoma were in town Saturday.

The best of the good ones.

All the experiments of the Government food experts and the athletic trainers of Yale University prove that cereal eaters are the strongest and healthiest. Quaker Oats stands at the head of the list of cereal foods. It is not only the best food, but it's the cheapest food on earth. Packed in tins it will keep sweet and fresh anywhere indefinitely.

The Alternative.

"If the window had been eight feet from the ground," pouted the young wife, "instead of eight stories, I'd have thrown myself out when you quarreled with me. Then you'd have had to be sweet to me when you picked me up. A lot of wives attempt suicide, they say, just to be petted when they come to."

"Yes," said he, "but sometimes they don't come to, remember."—New York Press.

The Best Advice.

If you are about to do something which may cause trouble, ask the advice of a man who has tried it. His advice will be stronger than that of a moralist, and it will be backed by experience.—Arlington Globe.

AFTER SUFFERING ONE YEAR

Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Milwaukee, Wis. — "Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has made me a well woman, and I would like to tell the whole world of it. I suffered from female troubles and fearful pains in my back. I had the best doctors and they all decided that I had a tumor in addition to my female trouble, and advised an operation. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound made me a well woman and I have no more backache. I hope I can help others by telling them what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me."—Mrs. EMMA IMSE, 833 First St., Milwaukee, Wis.

The above is only one of the thousands of grateful letters which are constantly being received by the Pinkham Medicine Company of Lynn, Mass., which prove beyond a doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, actually does cure these obstinate diseases of women after all other means have failed, and that every such suffering woman owes it to herself to at least give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial before submitting to an operation, or giving up hope of recovery.

Mrs. Pinkham, of Lynn, Mass., invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health and her advice is free.

WHILE MISS HATTIE ENGLISH LEADS IN THE EASTERN.

All Sections of the County Are Active and It Will Pay Contestants to Work.

As will be seen by reference to the list, Miss Ludwig leads in the Western section, and Miss English in the Eastern, but all precincts of the county are now showing up fine and each day the result changes in these sections.

By special arrangement, we have been enabled to increase the prizes, and now every candidate in the race will get a prize—a certificate good for $25 as a cash payment on any piano bought from the A. R. Harper Piano Company, of Jacksonville. In addition to this, they will give to the first five following the leader in each section of the county a certificate good for $100, and this can be applied as a payment in the same manner. This means that you can purchase any piano you want and use this as a cash payment and make arrangements for deferred payments. The same instrument that is now being given away can be purchased for the certificate and $225, so it will pay you to be among the first five following the leader.

Weekly clubs are still coming, but we urge the candidates to work among their friends while their time is unoccupied—it will prove profitable for them.
